OVERCOMING DEVICES OF SATAN AND SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Jesus, the Messiah, the Son of the living God.

Christians have direct access to the power of God, Eph. Chapter One; sadly, much of the power today is squandered on so-called clownish style ministers standing as circus entertainers striving to get laughter from the congregation instead seeking their souls for Jesus.

Jesus fully intended to leave a militant church so that His people could evangelize the world for souls.

“But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: 10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; 12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation,”

As the people of God, the mission of the church is to proclaim or announce to the world called believers out of the darkness of sin into light of His love and life. This is the good news the unsaved needs to know. Through the grace of God they too can pass from the darkness of sin into the light

SATAN IS DEFEATED WHEN WE SPEAK HIS NAME

We defeat Satan the same way Jesus did; we speak to the spiritual problem using His Word, his name and His delegated authority. Jesus used the Word of God when He needed the power of God and we use the Word of God when we need the power of God.

Many Christian ministers are ignorant of the reality spiritual warfare! They have not been taught essential tactics concerning the subject in the seminaries and most of them have never made an effort to learn it on their own. The emphasis is filling their churches with vast numbers of “sinners saved by grace who have never been saved,” while the enemy is savaging the sheep left and right. A general would never dream of sending his troops into battle without first giving them minimum of training concerning the warfare strategy of their opponents. One of the most important maneuvers is how to recognize and neutralize the enemy! Yet, many Christians are being sent out to fight the original "unconventional war" without a real clue as to the stated aims and strategies of Satan and his hosts. I am constantly confronted by an attitude of "ignore him and maybe he will go away!"

“For no other ‘foundation’ can no man lay than is laid, which is Jesus Christ.” Then Jesus becomes the head of the church and connected to His people. The Apostle Peter addresses the church as consisting of people to a living mystical organism in (I Pet. 2:5), “Ye also as ‘lively stones,’ are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.” “In whom all the building fitly ‘framed’ together groweth unto a holy temple.”

THE DEVICES OF SATAN

Hello, if you look around, you will see that Satan is here. He’s in the government. He’s in the schools, colleges, businesses, churches, and homes. He’s everywhere. He has not gone away! Unfortunately, it is the Christian Churches that are sleeping while he destroys everything, individuals, families, schools, university, schools, church and our governments, just look and see. His goal is to take every generation into his kingdom.

Recently, the author attended a meeting of seminaries trained missionaries. They were already going to the evangelistic fields. When I saw them through the eyes of the Spirit of God in the spiritual realms, they appeared as people that had just been released from consecration camps. Many of them had sicknesses unto death! I asked the Lord, what is meaning of this that I can see? He revealed to me that these fine Christians had not been properly spiritually trained for battle and because of their spiritual ignorance, the enemy had the advantage! It should be pointed out, that the knowledge of deliverance and spiritual warfare is not being taught in most seminaries in America. However, our evangelist and missionaries are being sent out on the mission fields to engage in a supernatural war with witches, wizards and voodooists that they are ill prepared to meet!

Satan’s agents are human shells filled with demons that have agendas to rob, kill and destroy. Witches and wizards believe they are in charge of these paranormal beings. However, the demons actually have power over humans Demons hate humans and only associate with them to use them for Satan’s plan to rule the world. Witches and wizards’ believe because they do satanic rituals that they are in command of the forces of evil. However, the demons are actually manipulating the witch or wizards' mind body and spirit because they obediently submit to the demons by doing these required sacrifices. Demons give the illusion that the human is in charge of the paranormal power. They scalp their minds and steal their souls; there are no freedoms in the person's life; they become enslaved servants or puppets to the spirit beings. These agents of Satan fully understand their "faith" and military mission and sent to spiritually and physically destroy the religious beliefs of these poorly trained missionaries. Witches and wizards also know how to destroy bodies though voodoo practices. Christians in America are simply told that "Christians cannot have devils," and that's all these Christians know!

They do not understand the principles of spiritual self-defense. The Devil is laughing at the ignorance as he sweeps over and captures both Christian workers and God's people!

The Bible says, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children," (Hos. 4-6).

USING GOD'S WORD

You must use the Word of God to tap into the Power of God. You must be a doer of the Word.

(Heb 4:12-13), "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do."

AUTHORITY OVER DEVILS

I believe that we Christians have absolute power over demonic spirits when we. Scripturally are submitted to God and properly use His Word.

BARNABAS AND SAUL were evangelizing, preaching about Jesus. But Elymas the sorcerer was interfering with them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. “Then Saul, (who also is called Paul), filled with Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, and said, O full of all subtlety and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?”

It is through the power of Paul’s words under the anointing of the Holy Spirit that caused God’s punishment to come upon this imposter.

“And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand,” (Acts 13:11).

Paul used his supernatural authority to stop the sorcerer from stealing a man’s soul. God backed Paul’s authority up and caused Paul’s words to immediately take an effect over the sorcerer’s life, (Acts 13:11).

[Not seeing the sun for a season] (Remember that the sun was usually the god that was worshiped by the pagans). The man was cut off from his god. Paul’s words were more powerful than the sorcerer’s and demonstrated to the people that his God was not only more powerful but his God was alive!

For how long of time this blindness was to continue is nowhere specified. It was, however, in mercy ordained that the blindness should not be permanent and final. Though it was a punishment, it was at the same time benevolent, for nothing would be more likely to lead him to reflection and repentance than such a state of blindness.

It was such a manifest proof that God was opposed to him it was such a sudden divine judgment; it so completely cut him off from all possibility of practicing his arts of deception that it was adapted to bring him to repentance. Accordingly there is a tradition in the early church that he became a Christian. Origen says that "Paul, by a word striking him blind, by anguish converted him to godliness" (Clark).

[A mist] The word used here properly denotes "a darkness or obscurity of the air; a cloud," etc. But it also denotes "an extinction of sight by the drying up or disturbance of the tumors of the eye."

[The hand of the Lord is upon thee] Paul said, "God shall punish thee." By this sudden and miraculous punishment he would be awed and humbled, and the proconsul and others would be convinced that he was an impostor, and that the gospel was true. His wickedness deserved such a punishment. At the same time that due punishment was inflicted, it was designed that the gospel should be extended by this means.

In all this there was the highest evidence that Paul was under the inspiration of God. He was full of the Holy Spirit; he detected the secret feelings and desires of the heart of Elymas; and he inflicted on him a punishment that could have proceeded from none but God.

That the apostles had the power of inflicting punishment is apparent from various places in the New Testament, "To deliver such a one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus," (1 Cor. 5:5);

(1 Tim 1:20), "Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme."

The punishment inflicted on Elymas, also, would be highly emblematic of the darkness and perverseness of his conduct. ¹

Notice that the sorcerer's hindrance to the work of Paul was not attacking him through oppression or physical. The sorcerer was trying to influence a man to turn him away from the Gospel. An attack of oppression can be used by modern wizards and witches to stop the minister work. So, how should we stop these hexes and spells demons sent by Satan's Agents? Should we simply pray and ask Jesus for relief? Should we resist the work of the demons by rebuking them and sending them back to their dwelling places where they came from? Satan and his agents are involved in keeping people from the kingdom God. Should we just ignore their handy work? Let's see what the Word of God says and not what we think in our minds.

Remember this, when an evil power is sent, it will abide until a superior power defeats it. Together with Jesus, you are that superior power but you have to use the power that Jesus paid a price for you to put to use!

WE ARE IN A SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Christians must know that we are in warfare to defeat our lives and the lives of others. Satan wants to defeat the Church and bring many people into hell through using his ordained agents. They work their evil powers by sending demonic forces to carry out his wicked plans.

The Philistines make war on Israel in (1 Sam 28:1-6). Here is, the design of the Philistines against Israel. They resolved to fight them, vs. 1. If the Israelites had not forsaken God, there would have been no Philistines remaining to molest them; if Saul had not forsaken him, they would by this time have been put out of all danger by them. The Philistines took an opportunity to make this attempt when they had David among them, whom they feared more than Saul and all his forces. The Philistines feared David because he was God's obedient servant. They wanted to kill him because they wanted to take the territory back that he had won.

We have enemies too. Satan's people want you dead! Christian warfare depends on our obedience to God and knowledge of His Word.

(1 Sam 28:1-6), The expectation Achish had of assistance from David in this war, and the encouragement David gave him to expect it: "Thou shalt go with me to battle," says Achish. "If I protect thee, I may demand service from thee"; and he will think himself happy if he may have such a man as David on his side, who prospered whithersoever he went. David gave him an ambiguous answer: "We will see what will be done; it will be time enough to talk of that hereafter; but surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do" (vs. 2), that is, "I will consider in what post I may be best able to serve thee, if thou wilt but give me leave to choose it." Thus he keeps himself free from a promise to serve him and yet keeps up his expectation of it; for Achish took it in no other sense than as an engagement to assist him, and promised him, thereupon, that he would make him captain of the guards, protector, or prime-minister of state. ²

The instruction of God to Moses showed him that he was going to inherit the land but he had to battle for it. God gave him the plan.

(Num. 33:52-55), "Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places: 53 And ye shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it.54 And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families: and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falleth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit. 55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell."

This is a perfect description of spiritual warfare. We cannot coexist with the enemy. Time and time again, and we see God's people going into battle in the Old Testament with God as their Commander and Chief. Again, we see the instructions such as shown in (Deut. 2:21-28), concerning the giants, "A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead": ³

DO NOT LOOK AT THEIR FACES (FLESH) BUT LOOK AT THE SUPERNATURAL GOD

God's people simply could not coexist peacefully with His enemies. He told Jeremiah that he would use his words to destroy the enemies.

(Jer. 1:8-10), "Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. 9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. 10 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant."

(Jer. 1:10) [I have this day set thee over the nations] God represents his messengers the prophets as doing what he commanded them to declare should be done. In this sense they rooted up, pulled down, and destroyed-declared God's judgments; they build up and planted-declared the promises of his mercy. Thus God says to Isaiah, (Isa 6:10): "Make the heart of this people fat- and shut their eyes." Show them that they are stupid and blind; and that, because they have shut their eyes and hardened their hearts, God will in his judgments leave them to their hardness and darkness." ⁴

Obedience is better than sacrifice, (1 Sam 15:22-23), "And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, he hath also rejected thee from being king."

The Ghost of Samuel

Saul got into spiritual trouble because he wanted to do it his way. God told Saul in (1 Sam 15:3) to go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

Look at what Saul did in (1 Sam 15:8), “And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.”

And then see (1 Sam 15:9), “But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.”

Saul lost his kingdom because he tired to move in the physical realms by his own mind motivations and in the flesh. (1 Sam 15:1-9).

Saul was a chosen vessel of the Lord to do His will and execute His Word. Though he was appointed to destroy Amalek, Saul decided to go into this war, ignoring God’s divine orders. Saul was in rebellion which is the sin of witchcraft.

God then swore that he would have war with Amalek from generation to generation, and that in process of time he would utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek; this is the work that Saul is now appointed to do (v. 3): “Go and smite Amalek. Israel is now strong, and the measure of the iniquity of Amalek is now full; now go and make a full riddance of that devoted nation.” He is expressly commanded to kill and slay all before him, man and woman, infant and suckling, and not spare them out of pity; also ox and sheep, camel and ass, and not spare them out of covetousness. ⁵

Impersonating Demon of Samuel

Saul saved the life of the king and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

He lost his life, kingship, and sons because he did not obey God to war against his enemies. Today Christians are losing territories that have been gained by past generations. They have lost entire Christian denominations, nations, cities, families because they refuse to go into battle and fight against the wiles of the Devil.

SPIRITUAL STUPOR

Spiritual realms have not changed. God still has enemies and God still has people. The Devil also has people and they are taking territories for him. Meanwhile, God's people seem to be in a spiritual stupor concerning the fact that there is a Spiritual Warfare going on. If you look at the condition of the Church in western civilization, it seems we are losing the Battle! It also seems that Satan's people are deeper in his spiritual realm than God's people are abiding His spiritual realm. Therefore, Satan's people are driven to do his will. God does not drive his people; they must use their free will.

Therefore, most choose and will not to fight or struggle against the powers of darkness. They will to just have fun with the "Holy Ghost." They want to "feel" the Holy Ghost tickling them and making them laugh. They want the benefits of Christianity but they do not want to pay the price for Jesus. The result is our families, cities, and nation is being taken over by the demonic powers. The answer to this dilemma is, they believe too simply to ignore it, that it will go away.

HOW SPIRITUAL WARFARE WORKS

Wizards, witches and Satan's agents are strongly used by the Devil to attack the Church of Jesus and her ministers. They are sent by Satan to destroy the church and kill God's people. They are trained to infiltrate and assault God's people for defeat and death.

Christian people ask this question? Should we send the demonic spirits back to where they came from? I believe that we have absolute power over demonic spirits when we scripturally are submitted to God and properly use His Word. Evil spirits have no right to be in our space. Since some people love their fellowship of darkness, that's where they

(The demons), need to go, back to their dwelling places.

We do have the power to command them to send them back to their dwelling places. Jesus said in, (Lk. 10:18-19), “And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. 19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.”

Yet, many of God's people are being brutalized by demons. Why? Did Jesus lie?

No! God forbid. He did not lie. However, Jesus cannot make His Church serve Him in wisdom and the knowledge of His Word. He gave us His delegated authority in Ephesians Chapter one. We have His power but most Christians don't know it or understand that demons do not have the right to attack them or defeat them. When a demon comes to attack, he will be able to abide, until a superior power defeats him.

HE LOVED CURSING

David had great wisdom and understanding of the power of words. He understood that words were spiritual or “spirit.” He used words to praise God . . . to command his army . . . to love his wives . . . to rebuke his enemies. When he used his selected words, they worked and accomplished his intended purpose.

So, when he prayed to God concerning his enemies and their words against him, he took their words seriously. He understood that he had to nullify their words otherwise their words would take effect over his life and be able to accomplish their goals.

When David prayed to God about his enemies, he actually did ask God to return the words back to his opponents. He did not return the words but simply ask God to do it!

Crying and praying to God, he said, (Ps. 109:17-21), “As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. 18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. 19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually. 20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul. 21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.”

Spiritual warfare happens through spiritual words. You must speak the Word of God under the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

The Devil anoints his people and they work by words, hexes, curses, and spells. Once a wizard or witch releases their curses and spells through words, those powers come and will abide unless a stronger power rises up to cancel them. Notice the Scripture below.

David was crying out for God’s protection. Protection from what . . . the Words of his enemies . . . ? Notice also, that David returned those words (spirits) by speaking (words in prayer to God) speaking, asking God to reverse their words! (Ps. 109: 17-21).

David demonstrates in the Scriptures below that the words of the wicked were having an effect upon his life.

(Ps 109:2-15) “For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue. 3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause. 4 For my love they are my adversaries:

but I give myself unto prayer. 5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.”

At this point of his prayer, David began to ask God to punish the wicked that had been attacking him.

(Psa. 109:6) “Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand. 7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin. 8 Let his days be few; and let another take his office. 9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow. 10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places. 11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour. 12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children. 13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out. 14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD and not the sin of his mother be blotted out. 15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.”

David was asking God to turn the spiritual words that had been unleashed upon him, to be returned to the sender!
