GLOBAL POLITICAL ECONOMIC RELIGIOUS- STRUCTURE

“Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as ‘internationalists’ and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure - one world, if you will. If that is the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it.” David Rockefeller

Doublespeak is language that deliberately disguises, distorts, or reverses the meaning of words. Doublespeak may take the form of euphemisms (e.g., "downsizing" for layoffs, "servicing the target" for bombing^[1]), in which case it is primarily meant to make the truth sound more palatable. It may also refer to intentional ambiguity in language or to actual inversions of meaning (for example, naming a state of war "peace"). In such cases, doublespeak disguises the nature of the truth. Doublespeak is most closely associated with political language.^{[2][3]}

The term "doublespeak" probably has its roots in George Orwell's book, Nineteen Eighty-Four. Who is considered to be a prophet for the globalist? Although the term is not used in the book, it is a close relative of one of the book's central concepts, "doublethink". Another variant, "doubletalk," also referring to deliberately ambiguous speech, did exist at the time Orwell wrote his book, but the usage of "doublespeak" as well as of "doubletalk" in the sense emphasizing ambiguity clearly postdates the publication of Nineteen Eighty-Four.^{[4][5]} Parallels have also been drawn between Doublespeak and Orwell's classic essay Politics and the English Language, which discusses the distortion of language for political purposes.^[6]

Edward S. Herman, political economist and media analyst, has highlighted some examples of doublespeak and doublethink in modern society.^[7] Herman describes in his book, Beyond Hypocrisy the principal characteristics of doublespeak;

What is really important in the world of doublespeak is the ability to lie, whether knowingly or unconsciously, and to get away with it; and the ability to use lies and choose and shape facts selectively, blocking out those that don't fit an agenda or program.^[8]

In his essay "Politics and the English Language", George Orwell observes that political language serves to distort and obfuscate reality. Orwell's description of political speech is extremely similar to the contemporary definition of doublespeak;

In our time, political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible... Thus political language has to consist largely of euphemism, question-begging and sheer cloudy vagueness... the great enemy of clear language is insincerity. Where there is a gap between one's real and one's declared aims, one turns as it were instinctively to long words and exhausted idioms, ...^[9]

TRANSFORMATION SHIFTS

The word transformation means a shift, or a qualitative change, a transfer from the original spiritual tenets to a switch over to a new religious belief system.

The Apostle Paul forewarned the Church to watch out for Satan's infiltrating agent's when he wrote, "For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (II Cor. 11: 4).¹

Nov. 2, 1987: Mikhail Gorbachev addresses the Soviet Politburo: "In October 1917, we parted with the old world, rejecting it once and for all. We are moving toward a new world, the world of Communism. We shall never turn off that road!" He further reassures his Communist colleagues: "Comrades, do not be concerned about all that you hear about glasnost and perestroika and democracy in the coming years. These are primarily for outward consumption. There will be no significant internal change within the Soviet Union other than for cosmetic purposes. Our purpose is to disarm the Americans and let them fall asleep." 1983: "The Humanist" publishes an essay which proclaims that "the battle for humankind's future must be waged in the public school classroom ... between the rotting corpse of Christianity and the new faith of humanism ... and humanism will emerge triumphant."

This book is about the new world religion coming into place. Are you ready for the return of Jesus?²

The Apostle Paul forewarned the Church to watch out for Satan's infiltrating agent's when he wrote,

"For there shall arise false Christ's, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect..." (Matt. 24:24).

TODAY'S CULTS

Jesus Only, Manifested Sons of God, the New Apostolic Prophetic Movement Third Wave, and Prophetic Movement, and hundreds of more. . . .

“An astonishing and horrible thing has been committed in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own power; and my people love to have it so. But what will you do in the end,” (Jer. 5:30-31)?

“For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek...” (Rom. 1:16).

There are many demonic forces involved in these modern-day forces such as, magical, numerology, occult, mystical, shamanistic, religious, antichrist, and many more.

These are damnable doctrines of Devils, twisted word, witchcraft doctrines, witches, wizards, etc., are going to cause the greatest massacre in the Church of Jesus Christ has ever experienced in the History of the world.

In Matthew 24 Jesus describes the world before He returns in His Second Coming, as a world where the love of most has grown cold because of false teachers (Matt. 24:11-12); and where "the Faith" will be nearly extinct, (Lk. 18:8).

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; 2 preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. 3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; 4 and they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. 5 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry,” (II Tim. 4).

FALSE TEACHERS

Never before has wrong teaching and beliefs about God been more widely proclaimed than in our day. In a continuous, 24/7 river erroneous teaching about God flows around the world: on radio, TV, cable, webcasts, podcasts, simulcasts, books, magazines, and everywhere in between—our world is increasingly filled with lies about God. And to this growing cauldron of darkness and lies comes the triumphant truth that— Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, “Murmur not among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, and they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. (Jn. 6:44).

Jesus warned “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. 11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. 12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. 13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. 15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep,” (Jn. 10:10-15).

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know we the Spirit of God, every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that confesses not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God and this is that spirit of antichrist whereof you have hear that it should come and even now, already is in the world,” (I Jn. 4:2).

The Bible in (II Cor. 11:14-15) warns of Satan's counterfeit: "And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness;"

CONTEND FOR THE FAITH

“Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. 4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ,” (Jude 2)

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit; neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. 19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. 20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. 21 Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity,” (Matt 7:15-24).

“O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? 2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? 4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? If it be yet in vain 5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith,” (Gal.3: 1-5)?

The apostle Paul a converted Jew inquires how they could be so foolish as to renounce the Gospel of Christ and turn back to Judaism and the law, after having heard, received, and suffered so much for the Gospel, (Gal 3:15).

Asserts the doctrine of justification by faith, on the example of Abraham, (Gal 3:6-9); shows that “all who are under the law are under the curse, from which Christ alone redeems us; and the promise made to Abraham comes to the Gentiles who believe,” (Gal 3:10-14); “for the covenant is not by the works of the law, but by promise,” (Gal 3:15-18). The law was given to show “the sinfulness of sin, and to act as a schoolmaster till Christ should come,” (Gal 3:19-25). It is “by faith only that any become children of God,” (Gal 3:26). And under the Gospel, all those distinctions which subsisted under the law are done away; “and genuine believers, whether Jews or Gentiles, bond or free, are one in Christ Jesus, and accounted the genuine children of Abraham,” (Gal 3:27-29).³

VISIBLE CHURCH FILLED WITH INFILTRATORS

The NWO order church is filled with infiltrators and wolves dressed like sheep and dark charlatans seeking to soul-scalp sleep Christians. My word to true believers is stop praying for the wolves to repent and receiving them as Christians who are in error but see them as wolves that are invading the sheep pen to steel God’s people for the Devil. They are not harmless and we must pray for the sheep who are deceived.

Millions are now seduced and facing an eternity of hell because Christians do not want their “peace disturbed or the Body of Christian divided.” May I suggest to you, these backslidden preachers who are living double lives and secretly serving the devil are not part of the “the Body of Christ.”

As the Apostle Jude warned the Church to be aware of false ministers, we must also be alert to discern them by their fruits. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit. Their fate has been set since the beginning of time; God knew them and warned His people to stay clear of them.

“But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. 11 Woe unto them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. 12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withered, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness forever,” (Jude 10-13).

Some so-called Christians go as far to accuse those who alert the Body of Christ as slanders and gossipers while totally ignoring those who are teaching another Gospel and wolves have invaded the sheep pen.

“For if he that cometh preached another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him,” (II Cor. 11:4).

Sadly, Christians are falling into the traps of Satan through their trust of wealthy, prominent, religious men and women who no longer preach Jesus Christ or the Bible. In these last days many Christians have not had their mind renewed through the Word of God. They have not been sanctified through the washing of the blood of Jesus. Their faith centers on Christian icons instead of Jesus Christ and His purpose of giving them salvation to enter into His Kingdom. He never taught us to seek a kingdom on this earth that is calling all religions to come into religious unity.⁴

So many in the Christian Church have become cold and lukewarm and they have given their minds over to forms of Better Homes and Garden and Disney World Christianity and lifestyles that are just seeking after material things and emotional experiences. Jesus is rarely preached, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God,” (Rom. 10:17).

Are you listening to preaching that consists of stories about the minister, his or her family experiences, or you giving to them so that you can get some money to increase your depleted bank account?

Many of these preachers are living sumptuously like kings and queens in multi-million dollar homes while you sit overwhelmed by debt. I’m telling you, that you are NOT listening to the real gospel. Repent for seeking after God the Father as a sugar daddy instead of the God that sent His Divine Son Jesus to save you from your sins to give you eternal life. Rededicate your life to Jesus and ask Him where you can go to receive the true Gospel.

The Bible warns, “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what [is] that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God,” (Rom. 12:2).

THE SPIRIT OF ERROR

The Apostle Paul tells us in (1 Cor.11: 19), why God allows heresy to dwell in the midst of His Church. Paul says, “There must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you,” If you are a true believer, you will be able to discern the real from the false! Give God glory for it is a gift to be able to discern good from evil. God’s Word and His anointing are standards that place our faith on firm foundations. It is by means of iniquity (self-will) that the root of error takes control.⁵

The Greek word, heresy, according to Liddell and Scott, means taking for oneself, choosing, or choice. The things chosen, and so plan, purpose a course of action or thought. From this we get a philosophic principle, a sect, and a heresy.

Webster's International Dictionary defines Heresy: Adherence to a religious opinion that contrary to an established dogma of a church; dissent from a dominant theory or opinion in any field group or school of thought centering on a particular heresy.

Therefore, heresy is not so much rejecting as selecting. The heretic simply selects the part of the scriptures he or she wants to stress, and lets the rest go. How prone we are to take to ourselves those parts of the truth that please us and ignore the other parts. This is heresy! Heresies are a direct result of an intellectual concept becoming crystallized into a religious system of teaching that is not Scriptural. This is the case with the multifarious sects which divide Christendom today.

The book of Jude supplies us with a simple, straightforward summary of such sects, "These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit," (Jude 19). Their philosophies are built, not on the full and glorious work of the Holy Spirit of God that exalts Jesus Christ, making His person the grand, central theme of their witness but on some sideline doctrine, which divides instead of uniting.

What are the "doctrines of devils"? What is the result of a "spirit of error"? Can a spirit of whoredom rule over a church? The Apostle Paul warned Christians to beware of deceivers but also to take heed that he would not deceive himself (I Cor. 3:18). Jesus also cautioned Believers to beware of self-deception in (Lk. 21:8). From the beginning of the Church throughout its history, Satan has attacked by using evil deceivers. "Evil men and seducers shall wax worse, deceiving and being deceived," (II Tim. 3:13).²

"The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead [their] dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger." (Jer. 7:18).

Roman Catholics believe that Mary, the mother of Jesus, remained a virgin after the birth of Jesus and was sinless all of her life. She is worshiped in the Catholic church as the "Mother of God" and the "Queen of Heaven." St. Bernard stated that she was crowned "Queen of Heaven" by God the Father, and that she currently sits upon a throne in Heaven making intercession for Christians.⁶

The Bible teaches otherwise. In the Bible, Mary was a sinner just like the rest of us. She said herself that she needed a “Saviour” (Lk. 1:47), and she even had to offer a sacrifice for her sins in (Lk. 2:24). Jesus was only her “firstborn” son, according to (Matt. 1:25), because she later had other children as well (Mt. 13:55; Gal. 1:19; Psa. 69:8). There’s only ONE mediator between God and men, and it isn’t Mary (I Tim. 2:5). The last time we hear from Mary in the Bible she is praying WITH the disciples, not being prayed to BY the disciples (Acts 1:14). The Bible never exalts Mary above anyone else. Neither should we.

Pope Francis Invokes Lucifer At Easter Vigil Mass from Now The End Begins on Vimeo.

Another thing that the Catholic Church is fond of doing is to invoke the name of Lucifer in their Easter Mass Exsultet. Yes, you read that correctly. The Catholic Church, as well as Pope Francis, makes singing a love song to the Devil part of their worship service. Don’t believe us?

ANCIENT HERESIES

Before the celestial "shock and awe" judgments of the Tribulation are unleashed, God's Word describes a time characterized by false teaching and teachers SO strong, that it would even sweep away even true believers (Mk. 13:22) if they were not sealed by the Spirit of God.

The end of the church age is shown in Revelation 3 to be like the church at Laodicea where truth is light, self-centeredness is heavy; materialism and personal agendas run deep, and true Biblical spirituality is shallow.

Today we see a sweeping collection of deceptive false teachers as just the foretaste of this birth pang which Jesus warned about and described and is forming before our very eyes.

Jesus said that the Devil is the Father of Lies. Christians must be sober and alert as the day of the Lord draws near so that we will be able to hear His voice knowing with all of our hearts that we are not being deceived by the evil one.

The best is yet to come for the saved people of God, the beautiful born-again Bride of the Savior. The worst is yet to come for the sinner that rejects Christ, refuses His love, salvation, forgiveness and future reign and glory.

NEW WORLD ORDER RELIGION

"And many false prophets will rise up and deceive and lead many into error..." (Matt. 24:11). We should expect false "Christian" leaders to arise, to give false assurances to Christians and lead them astray. The fact that we are seeing such a huge number of just such false leaders giving proof positive that we are living in the Last Days of Time.

A major emphasis of the Transformations movement is unity amongst the churches in the community. Reconciliation between different denominations and various churches are essential for community transformation to take place. If communities are to be effectively “evangelized,” unity amongst the churches and the church leaders of that community is a pre-requisite. Through the Transformation movement Churches are regularly called upon for inter-church prayer meetings and evangelistic actions in our cities and towns.

Ministers and pastors who are leading these actions constantly talk about unity churches must unite; the body of Christ is divided and must come to unity if it is to be effective in reaching the world for Christ. The call is, “We all believe in Jesus, let’s put aside our dogmatic differences, and reach out together with the Gospel.”⁸

On the surface this may seem the Christian thing to do, in the light of the desperate need to evangelize the world around us. But when the very essentials of the Gospel and the Christian faith are compromised for the sake of unity, it needs to concern us and make us sit up and take note! Tal Brooke makes it plain that “... to change the faith for the sake of unity ... is to compromise truth ... and once changed, faith is destroyed”⁹

Biblical truth about the nature of God and the atonement of Christ are some of the essentials that are compromised when participating in the Transformations movement.

The unity being propagated by George Otis Junior and his Sentinel Group is a unity based, not on the doctrinal purity of God’s Word, but on the common goal for community transformation, irrespective of doctrine and belief. Before he founded the Sentinel Group in 1980, Otis worked with the Luzanne Committee for World Evangelization which was launched in the early 1970s by Billy Graham. Not only do they include Roman Catholics who pray to Mary as Mediatrix (taking the place of Christ as our only Mediator) as well as to dead saints, believing that the Roman Catholic priest has the power to literally change the wafer bread and the wine into the actual body and blood of Christ in the unbiblical mass, that the Bible is not a sufficient rule of faith but that spiritual truth is also contained in tradition, that the pope is infallible and is God’s representative on earth (the Holy Spirit is God’s representative on earth – John 14:16 - 18), etc. – but also see those of other faiths as members of the Body of Christ. In an interview with Billy Graham, who is a leader in the Lausanne Movement, by Robert Schuller on May 31, 1997, Billy Graham said:¹⁰

“That’s what God is doing today, He’s calling people out of the world for His name, whether they come from the Buddhist world, or the Christian world, or the non-believing world, they are members of the Body of Christ because they've been called by God. They may not even know the Name of Jesus, but they know in their hearts that they need something that they don't have, and they turn to the only light that they have, and I think that they are saved, and that they are going to be with us in heaven.”¹¹

POPE PAUL II

In Assisi 1986 where Pope Paul II invited all the religious leaders of the world to come to pray for world peace; there were witchdoctors, animists, fire walkers, snake handlers, spiritists, North American Indians, Protestants, Buddhist, Hindus As they walked to altar to pray, the Pope said that they were all praying to the same god and that their prayers were creating a new energy that would bring about a new spirit of peace. The Pope allowed his good friend the Dali Lama to put the Buddha upon the altar at St. Peter's Church at Assisi and permitted a Buddhist ceremony while Shintoists chanted and rang their bells outside. The beginning steps were taken to form the prophesied religion shown in the Book of Revelation before the eyes of the world. Unity of and tolerance for, ALL religions of the earth, from Roman Catholics to Muslims, to New Age, to Shamans and Witchdoctors and every Protestant Christian they can deceive.

More than any pontiff in modern history, Pope John Paul II made important overtures to non-Christian religions, using documents, prayer meetings and personal visits to open the doors of dialogue.¹²

Pope John Paul advanced the church's sometimes-difficult relations with Islam by visiting a mosque, speaking to Muslim groups on his foreign trips and insisting on full religious freedom in countries under Islamic law.

His special efforts on Catholic relations with Jews and Judaism -- unique among other religions as elder brother of Christianity, with its own ongoing, irrevocable covenant with God -- will be remembered as a hallmark of his papacy.

Pope John Paul was convinced that prayer could bring believers together, an idea that inspired the 1986 World Day of Prayer for Peace in Assisi, Italy.

That unprecedented gathering at the pope's invitation drew leaders of Jews, Buddhists, Shintoists, Muslims, Zoroastrians, Hindus, Unitarians, traditional African and Native American religions and many others. Together, under the roof of the Basilica of St. Francis, they all prayed, side by side, with Catholic, Orthodox and Protestant leaders for world peace.¹³

It was 1986 this day in Assisi, Italy that Pope John Paul II called together many world religions and leaders to pray and work towards world peace. Today Pope Benedict is celebrating the Anniversary by having a “Day of Reflection and Prayer” and has assembled the world religions and leaders in this same holy place of Saint Francis and Saint Clare. The Pope emphasized that peace must be achieved through truth, justice, peace, and love. Yesterday he spoke to pilgrims saying, "Dear brothers and sisters we want to ask God for the gift of peace, we pray that He make us instruments of peace in a world still torn by hatred, by divisions, by selfishness, by war. We ask that the meeting Thursday in Assisi might encourage dialogue among people of different religious affiliations and bring a ray of light that might illuminate the minds and hearts of all men, so that rancor will give way to pardon, division to reconciliation, hatred and violence to love and gentleness: that peace reign in the world".¹⁴

Pope Benedict has approached more peoples for this gathering than his predecessor did in 1986. Pope Benedict has invited non-believers, 170 religious leaders from many faiths, and 50 Muslim delegations. There were only 11 Muslim delegations in 1986.¹⁵

"But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works. 36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. 37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, 38 and shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. 39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. 40 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance," (Psa. 106: 35-40).

"Then they that feared the Lord spake often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name. 17 And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. 18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not," (Mal. 3: 16-18).

BILLY GRAHAM DENIES JESUS

Something very serious is happening. Even Billy Graham (openly) enters the heretical picture. And here is the content of the transcript:¹⁶

Dr. Schuller: "Tell me, what is the future of Christianity?"

Dr. Graham: "Well, Christianity and being a true believer, you know, I think there's the body of Christ which comes from all the Christian groups around the world, or outside the Christian groups. I think that everybody that loves Christ or knows Christ, whether they're conscious of it or not, they're members of the body of Christ. And I don't think that we're going to see a great sweeping revival that will turn the whole world to Christ at any time. What God is doing today is calling people out of the world for His name. Whether they come from the Muslim world, or the Buddhist world, or the Christian world, or the non-believing world, they are members of the body of Christ because they've been called by God. They may not even know the name of Jesus, but they know in their hearts they need something that they don't have and they turn to the only light they have and I think they're saved and they're going to be with us in heaven."

Dr. Schuller: "What I hear you saying is that it's possible for Jesus Christ to come into a human heart and soul and life even if they've been born in darkness and have never had exposure to the Bible. Is that a correct interpretation of what you're saying?"

Dr. Graham: "Yes it is because I believe that. I've met people in various parts of the world in tribal situations that they have never seen a Bible or heard about a Bible, have never heard of Jesus but they've believed in their hearts that there is a God and they tried to live a life that was quite apart from the surrounding community in which they lived."

Dr. Schuller: "This is fantastic. I'm so thrilled to hear you say that. There's a wideness in God's mercy.

Dr. Graham: There is. There definitely is."

The conversation above occurred between Billy Graham and Robert Schuller, who is the pastor of the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, California and founder of the Hour of Power television program. The interview was broadcast on May 31, 1997 on the Hour of Power television program, titled "Say 'Yes' To Possibility Thinking," program #1426.¹⁷

NEW AGE ANNOUNCEMENT

In January of 1987, a full-page advertisement appeared in U.S.A. Today announcing that "The Christ is now in the World;" The advertisement was placed by leaders of the New Age Movement and this was not an isolated incident. Front page, feature articles on the teachings of the New Age have appeared recently in the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, the Washington Post, Time Magazine, Newsweek, U.S. News and World Report and many more.¹⁸

As a result of this high profile publicity, American Health Magazine reports that 69% of Americans now accept central New Age teachings. However, the New Age Movement is not just another cult. It is a powerful coalition of thousands of groups dedicated to bringing about a New World Religion based on the divinity of man.¹⁹

You see, like all cults, the central teaching of the New Age Movement is that men, through continuous reincarnations, eventually evolve into gods, . . . And, as you know, this is the exact lie that the serpent told Eve in the Garden of Eden. "and ye shall be as gods."

The emergence of the New Age Movement (was) given its biggest boost ever by actress Shirley MacLaine in her ABC MINISERIES Out on a Limb.²⁰

Do you know that the fastest growing theology America is ["Dominion Now Theology" - "Kingdom Building" "Social Gospel" etc.,] within the evangelical church is teaching that Christians must take over the Christian Church and the world before Christ can return?

Powerful ministers with large churches and national Christian television ministries are passing off an end-time message that can only be accepted if the clear written Word of God is rejected. Never before has a Biblically based understanding of the times been more vital to the body of Christ.²¹

Underground Evangelist, Brother Andrew wrote, "The Lord Jesus Christ, who crushed Satan and conquered death, commands us to invade this enemy-occupied world and reclaim it for God. We must be placed under His exclusive authority and are forbidden to make any deals with the foe. No compromises. No concessions and no excuses." ²²

JESUS IS THE TRUE CHRIST

The Bible says that Christ existed from all eternity with God. (Tit. chapters, 1:3, 2:10, and 3:4,) God is identified as the Savior (Tit. 1:4, 2:13, and 3:6); Jesus Christ is identified as God. (Isa. 43:11), the Lord says there is no Savior besides Him, (Acts 4:8-12), Luke records' Peter's affirmation there is only one Savior and that is Jesus Christ of Nazareth. There is either great contradiction in Scripture, or Jesus Christ is God!

Jesus Christ is depicted by the New Age followers of the (Hierarchy paranormal demonic structure) as being one of the ascended masters, or "Christ's". However, they give to Buddha with this title as well, and place him in a superior position. (The Hierarchy considers "Christhood" a position that can be attained; reference to "Christ" therefore is not always to the person of Jesus); Christ came to show us the love of God, but Buddha came to bring us enlightenment; suggesting that the Bible has been misinterpreted and its true meaning lost through the centuries; but they claim this has never happened to the "sacred" scriptures of the East.

John the Baptist said, “. . . He who comes after me has a higher rank than I, for He existed before me.” Notice, “He existed before me,” “He is the one way!” (Jer. 32:39; Acts 4:12). “He is the way of life,” (Col. 3:4). “He is the way of peace,” (Eph. 2:14). “It pleased God to reveal His Son to me,” was Paul’s account of his conversion. “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me,” (Jn. 14:6).

Peter witnessed every miracle, including the transfiguration, and yet his faith was not the result of these, but sprang from a revelation from God. In response to his confession, “Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God,” the Lord declared, “Flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven,” (Matt. 16: 16,17).

This special grace was not only accorded to the apostles but also “To them that have obtained like precious faith with us,” (II, Pet. 1:1); Peter’s address to the faithful generally as “born again by the Word of God,” (I Pet 1:12).

Peter boldly proclaimed that “salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved,” (Acts 4:12). Jesus’ exclusivity caused him to warn: “Watch out that no one deceives you. For man will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many,” (Matt. 24: 4-5; cf., vv. 23-25). It is apparent that Jesus was not “one of many” enlightened masters; JESUS is the “Light of the world,” (Jn. 8:12).

New Agers typically twist Jesus into a mere human being who sought godhood (or Christhood), Christians worship Jesus as the eternal God (Jn. 1:1) who became human (Jn. 1:14), and then atoned for our sins at the cross, rose from the grave, ascended back to heaven, far above all other beings, and coming again. He is uniquely and eternally God.

“Will ye also go away,” – (Jn. 6:67)? ²³

Many have forsaken Christ in this New Age and no longer walk with Him; but what motivation did YOU to make a transformation: was there reason for it in the past? Did you doubt Jesus as all-sufficient? Did you change the old and tried for new and false? As for the present, can that compel you to leave Christ? As for the future, can you suggest anything which can arise that shall render it necessary for you to mutiny, or desert the old flag to serve under another captain? We think not. If life is long--He changes not; if we are poor, better to have Christ who can make us rich? When we are sick, what more do we want than Jesus to make our bed in our sickness? When we die, is it written that “neither death, nor life, nor things present, nor things to come, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord!” We say with Peter, “Lord, to whom shall we go, You have the Words to eternal life,” (Jn. 6: 6, 7)? ²⁴

HEARTLESS RELIGIOUS SYSTEM

(Revelation 18-24), describes a ruthless, cold-blooded religious system upon whose head is written, the Mystery of Babylon which refers to witchcraft worship. Idolatry has always been associated with ancient Babylon. This backslidden religious system will bring Antichrist to power by supporting his scheme. This is mystery of Babylon is shown as a worldly, drunken prostitute who is riding to power on the back of a Beast. She is concerned with religious philosophy behind the state and is speaking the utopian propaganda and controlling people. The followers will choose sinful, sorcery, humanitarianism, medicine, science, machinery and worldly happiness in preference to God. The value and purpose of human life will be thought of as below animals and will be subjected in slavery to the state and Antichrist. ²⁵

Antichrist will be totally controlled by a powerful spirit from the sea; “And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon,” (Rev. 9:11).

He is the ultimate political ruler who arises to power speaking peaceful solutions to serious problems promising a new world utopia but he will actually do the work of Satan. He will appear the diplomat - peace-maker and perfect gentleman, while ruling with an iron hand. Nevertheless, he possesses all the evil aspects of Mephistopheles, corrupt, satanic, and doomed. His goal is to achieve the mental-spiritual enslavement of the world to force its worship to himself.

His subjects will be a classless people whose names will be replaced by numbers. Antichrist is a name taken from 1 and 2 John. In Daniel he is called “the little horn and the vile person”; in II Thessalonians as the Son of Perdition; and in Revelation as the Beast out of the sea. He will be indwelt by a powerful principality from hell that is called Abaddon- Apollyon. (Rev 9:11).

His hatred of Jews, the people of the Bible, will drive him to try to eradicate them. He will rise to power as a man of peace and take the position as the savior of a world threatened by destruction. The Tribulation will begin and last for seven years ending with the world on the brink of total annihilation at the battle of Armageddon; but will fail because Jesus returns!

A HARLOT CHURCH

The Bible gives a clear picture of the downward progression of sinful practices during the Church Age. It shows the condition of the organized church when Christ comes for His Bride. (He is not coming for a harlot). We see the traits and characteristics of the Church as backslidden as one who has left its first love (Rev. 2:4.).

It will be filled with materialism, secularization, self-confidence, human reasoning, and Spiritual fornication that tolerate false teaching. That kind of a church can never have a cutting edge against the deceptions of the world.

Satan's methods of corrupting the Church are portrayed in both (Matt. 13), and (Rev. 2, and 3). His plan starts with destruction and has no creative power. He has counterfeit and imitation false prophets. What he cannot destroy, he joins for the purpose of pollution. His primary goals are to defame the name of Christ, lie about Christ, and lead people to doubt the Bible, defeating the mission of the Church.

STRONG DELUSION

A strong delusion is spreading beyond America and throughout the world. The world that rejects Jesus Christ is waiting for its “incarnation” (avatar or “god-man”), to step on the world’s platform to take the reins to bring in the so-called New Age. Satan, the god of all delusions, is hungry for souls. He wants you!

GEORGE OTIS DENIES THE CROSS AND BLOOD OF JESUS

GEORGE OTIS

John is saying here, "You've heard about the coming of the Antichrist, has been preached and taught, and you expect his arrival. However, beloved, wake up, because the spirit of Antichrist is already at work!"

George Otis, Jr., says, "God has position ally sanctified you and that you're standing in Christ is something that is different from your actual state. Christ has not redeemed us by giving His life as a ransom for our sins in order that He might release us. If we accept the premise that Jesus literally purchased our salvation with his blood and He paid the Father; then this approach, first of all portrays God the Father as being vindictive and blood-thirsty and totally incompatible with biblical forgiveness."²⁶

CROSS HERESY OF GEORGE OTIS

"For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God," (I Cor. 1:18).

There is something drastically wrong with the theology of George Otis, especially with reference to his view on Christ's work of atonement. In lectures given to YWAM in Tacoma on Moral Government Theology, he made the following statements in this regard:

George Otis, Jr., says,

1. "Forgiveness is the relaxation of a legitimate claim it would be impossible for God to have, as one hymn put it, "paid the debt and forgave me all my sins."
2. "The essence of Christ's Atonement existed in His obedience to the moral law on behalf of sinners. Christ obeyed during his life the moral law for us and that's really the essence of the Atonement."

3. "Christ has not redeemed us by giving His life as a ransom for our sins in order that He might release us. God never kept man captive in sin. The truth is Christ paid no man's debt."
4. "If we accept the premise that Jesus literally purchased our salvation with His blood and He paid the Father then this approach portrays God the Father as being vindictive and blood-thirsty and totally incompatible with biblical forgiveness. It also presents another grave difficulty. If Jesus literally paid for our sins with His blood, and paid a debt that is no longer a debt, and He died for the sins of the whole world, then we [and the theological world] can only come to one conclusion, namely Universalism, which means that everybody will be saved."
 - "The power of the cross, today, does not lie in some vague, abstract, ethereal cosmic transaction but rather in the literal subduing of the human heart. Let's reverse things and let's tell the Lord Jesus that when He comes to us, when He comes to his own, that we will receive Him, that we will take Him down off that cross." 27

With these statements, Otis refutes clear biblical pronouncements on the redeeming of sinners through the atoning death of Jesus. The Bible says, "In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. 1:7). "For you were bought at a price," (I Cor. 6:20). "...knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot," (I Pet. 1:18-19).²⁸

Shocking!

Pat Holliday says these "Transformation Christians such as George Otis and Peter Wagner are among those who have joined the other side" and are actually working for a New Religious World system that is being formed to bring in the Antichrist.²⁹

It is quite evident that George Otis repeatedly, totally and emphatically renounced the basic elements of the doctrine of salvation in Jesus Christ, namely Christ's substitutionary death on the Cross for the remittance of our sins. In books that he wrote since the lectures were given, these fallacies are reconfirmed.

Sin, to him, is to be in demonic bondage or deception without reference to the effect of an inherent sinful nature. As solution to this spiritual bondage and deception, demons and their strongholds in a certain area must be identified, confronted in spiritual warfare, and dispelled from the area. As a result, people will seek the Lord and a great revival will occur.

The essence of Otis' ministry is the spiritual mapping and warfare needed in the process of deliverance. As proof of for the feasibility and enormous success of this approach, he and his Sentinel Group produced the Transformations video, which is also widely distributed and shown in South Africa. ³⁰

“. . . This is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is in the world,” (I Jn. 4:3).

Clearly, New Agers have an agenda to conquer the Church of Jesus Christ. They intend to infiltrate and permeate every segment of society with their occult notions and they have no plans to go away. They are growing in numbers and have the ears of the very powerful in high places. They will continue their pursuit of spreading their new gospel of deceit until their goal of a new world order has been achieved—and the “problems” of Christianity has been eliminated. Providentially they will only succeed for a short time. As we will see, God has His own plan for unity and it is not the one presented by these spirit guides (demons) and blinded occultist.

EVANGELIZING THE NEW AGE

This article shows that evangelism is the old fashion way of spreading the gospel in western civilization and Jesus must be preached. We must return to our Christian roots. Most Christians fail to grasp the depth of depravity into which the United States and the world is rapidly sinking, provoking a merciful and patient God to judgment. The truth is seldom preached. There are some who would rather preach anything but the name of Jesus. For instance in Ted Haggard’s church. This is a "must" book for anyone concerned for the Church of Jesus Christ. 31

GEORGE OTIS AND PETER WAGNER

On Fri, Sep 19, 2008 at 9:28 PM, @yahoo.com> wrote: Otis, Wagner and the Transformations Revival By Prof. J. S. Malan, University of the North, South Africa, and Ms. Louisa Coetzee, Cape Town, South Africa. 32

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not,” (II Pet. 2:1-3).

CHAMPIONED CHRISTIAN OCCULT CIRCUIT

Christian’ Occult Circuit

Summary: the "Transformations Revival" as championed by George Otis and Peter Wagner is a dispensational - ill-conceived attempt to uproot the kingdom of darkness and visibly establish the kingdom of God on earth.

A false revival based on Peter Wagner and George Otis' concepts of spiritual mapping and spiritual warfare also practiced in mass rallies on stadiums, has already been established in South Africa. The video, Transformations, by George Otis, has been widely distributed, recommended and showed throughout South Africa to introduce people to this strange kind of spiritual warfare techniques used by ecumenists and deconstructionists.

The seduction of Christianity is often very subtle and various Christian principles are targeted. The devil has already succeeded to infiltrate evangelical and charismatic Christendom through seduction to follow after a counterfeit revival. He follows the well-proved methods against which Paul warned Christians in the first century:

"For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (II Cor.11:2-4).

Jesus is still preached by these new spiritual leaders, but the message of the Cross is not central to their preaching. Through a reinterpretation of the meaning and significance of the Cross, Jesus is changed into another Jesus. The heart of the gospel message is twisted that the emphasis on sin and the inherent sinful nature of man is shifted to the sin of the community, the city, or nations that are ruled by Satan. The solution to this problem is not personal regeneration but spiritual warfare enforced by a united, ecumenical Christendom against the kingdom of Satan.

It is evident that another spirit is manifested during such meetings. It is the spirit of the "angel of light", who gives new revelations and new interpretations of the Bible, resulting in a new concept of revival. It is the spirit of unity at all cost. This spirit operates in the sphere of feeling, especially during mass rallies where emotions are stirred and a warm, corporate feeling of love binds all people together. These experiences do not depend on any revelation of Scripture. People are not convicted of personal sin and unrighteousness, but the blame for all the problems that exist is rather shifted to communal sins and to the devil and his hierarchy of demons who are viewed as the instigators of every wrong act.³³

The following six methods or steps are followed in this counterfeit revival:

1. 'A New Vision

A new vision for revival as a solution to all the problems of the country and the world originates from one or more key persons. Drastically Christian reforms in the community are necessary to achieve this revival. "New revelations" from God to high profile spiritual leaders, or self-appointed prophets, accompany this new vision. They see themselves as God's anointed to bring about the desired transformation and to take command with great authority, tolerating no opposition or exhortation.

2. Unity at all Cost

Unity is essential and must be achieved amongst all believers in their town, city or community. All divisions, differences and condemnations must be laid aside. The doctrinal basis for their unity is so accommodating, that evangelical Christians, Charismatics, Zionists and Catholics feel themselves all at home. Ecumenical mass meetings and prayer marches are demonstrations of their unity.

3. Spiritual Mapping

A practice of pinpointing the most important methods that Satan can use to obtain power over other people, e.g. unbelief, superstition, sorcery, ancestor worship, gambling, abortion, crime, drunkenness, drug smuggling, murder and war sites, etc. By means of spiritual mapping, trouble points are marked on a map (often with pins) and demons or demonic strongholds may be identified and targeted through spiritual warfare for attack.

4. Spiritual warfare

The breakdown of demonic strongholds is practiced with the new method of "strategic spiritual warfare". During prayer meetings the demons are rebuked, bound and cast out in the Name of Jesus. Gatekeepers are appointed to guard the entrances to the city, in order that the exorcised demons may not return. The city is claimed for Jesus, and the demons may not re-enter to mislead people.

5. The expansion of the Christendom

The quick expansion of Christianity will occur as soon as the strongholds and power of Satan are broken. There will then be no more inhibiting factors, spiritual deception or stumbling blocks preventing people from joining churches in large numbers and serve the Lord. Christians will also be appointed into key posts, e.g. in municipalities or government departments with local offices. In this way Christianity will thrive and functioning under ideal conditions.

6. Development and prosperity

The transformation or reconstruction of the whole community will realize in the political, social educational and economic areas. Prosperity, stability and freedom of crime will prevail and all will be able to live in peace and harmony. The subversive power of darkness will be broken and the children of God will reclaim the power and dominion that the Lord gave to Adam and was lost during the Fall.

The movement that strives for this "revival" is getting enormous momentum – also in South Africa. To better understand the movement's principles and approaches a closer look should be taken of at least two of its leaders, and also to the Transformations video that is used to mislead many people into applying the above methods.³⁴

GEORGE OTIS TRANSFORMATION & SPIRITUAL MAPPING & UNITY:

The late bishop Ryle once wrote: “Unity in the abstract is no doubt and excellent thing; but unity WITHOUT TRUTH is useless.”³⁵

Whenever you hear the word "transformation" you need to keep George Otis and his new uses of this term in mind. Global church transformation is inextricably connected to George Otis and his "Transformation" video series. The nutty new doctrines and unorthodox methods that this man has promulgated have had widespread influence far beyond the confines of the New Apostolic Reformation. These "Transformation" videos were behind the Global Day of Prayer, which began as an African initiative, and were later picked up by Rick Warren and others to create a 5-year global "transformation" event.

An excellent article by Professor Johan Malan was recently posted at the Discernment Ministries website <http://www.discernment-ministries.org> under the new AFRICA WATCH section. [<http://www.tinyurl.com/c2dxw>] Below is a brief excerpt from Dr. Malan's article, entitled "George Otis and His Fallacious Teachings." This particular excerpt is on the topic of the history of the new heresy called "spiritual mapping" and how it spread so rapidly across evangelicaldom.³⁶

"World-wide propagation of spiritual mapping

The following major events during the past twelve years are the driving force behind the rapid spreading of spiritual mapping all over the world. Otis played a key role in the process:

In 1989, John Dawson of the International Reconciliation Coalition published his pioneering book, Taking Our Cities for God. Unity is a key concept in the book. Dawson is a fervent advocate of racial, ethnic and cultural reconciliation.³⁷

In 1990, George Otis coined the term “spiritual mapping”. In 1991, he published his book The Last of the Giants in which he further expounds the concept.³⁸

In 1993, Tom White’s Breaking Strongholds was published, as well as a book by Hawthorne and Kendrick, Prayer-walking: Praying on Site with Insight. This exercise is offered as a prerequisite to radical city transformation.³⁹

Also in 1993, the Sentinel Group of Otis conducted the first North American Consultation on spiritual mapping in Washington.

In 1994, Otis accepted the role as coordinator of the Spiritual Mapping Division of the AD 2000 United Prayer Track. In the same year, spiritual mapping was presented at the first International Conference on Prayer and Spiritual Warfare in Anaheim, California.

In 1995, George Otis introduced spiritual mapping to hundreds of delegates at a Prayer Track plenary session during the Global Congress of World Evangelism (GCOWE 95). In the same year, Disciple a Whole Nation (DAWN) began teaching spiritual mapping principles in CitiReach seminars.

In Ted Haggard's book, Primary Purpose, published in 1995, it is said that the spiritual climate in your city can be changed to such an extent that it will be hard for people to go to hell from that city.

Also in 1995, Strongholds of the 10/40 Window was published by the Sentinel Group to assist journeyers in their effort to pray on-site with insight.

In 1997, Peter Wagner's Breaking Strongholds in Your City was published, and also The Twilight Labyrinth by George Otis. In the latter, insight into the spiritual darkness in cities is given, as well as methods to map and confront the powers of darkness.

In 1998, the spiritual mapping repository at the Observatory opened at the World Prayer Centre in Colorado Springs, Colorado. Also in 1998, the Sentinel Group initiated the Ancient Pathways project in Lynnwood, Washington.

In 1999, the "Transformations" video of Otis was first shown in the United States and then throughout the world. In it, a survey of four communities is presented as tangible proof of the success of united, intercessory prayer and strategic spiritual warfare.

Also in 1999, Otis published his book Informed Intercession with a guide on how to transform your city or region for God. In the same year, Jack Denison's book City Reaching was published and strongly recommended by Otis. The idea of the city church is discussed in this book.

From 1991 to 1999, Dr. Wagner taught spiritual mapping as a critical element for effective missions in his MC551 course at Fuller Theological Seminary School of World Mission. Approximately 800-900 pastors, ministry leaders, and lay persons received the fundamentals of spiritual mapping through Fuller courses.

In 2000, new spiritual warfare practices were introduced in association with spiritual mapping. The most significant of these, and also the most controversial, was the activation of the gift of prophecy and the role of prophets and apostles. Prophecy enables the church to see beyond data collections and demographics. Prophets hear the secrets of the Lord and declare His timing while apostles are sent out to mobilize [sic] the church. ⁴⁰

In 2001, the “Transformations 2” video was released by the Sentinel Group of Otis to give further credence to the strategies of spiritual mapping and spiritual warfare in breaking demonic strongholds and promoting revival, unity and socio-economic transformation in societies around the globe.

(The above list of events was derived from Trimble [1997:4-7] and further updated)...” ⁴¹

THE TRUTH

Be sure to read the entire article posted by Dr. Malan for a more thorough understanding of the new "transformation." In particular, the charts near the end of this article are very helpful for sorting out truth from error.

"Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee," (I Tim. 4:16) ⁴²

C. PETER WAGNER AND MANIFESTED SONS OF GOD

Peter Wagner is the Head of Global Harvest Ministries with their office in the World Prayer Center in Colorado Springs, USA. He is the leading person in the new movement for Strategic Spiritual Warfare. Wagner defined three levels of spiritual warfare:

1. Ground Level: Person-to-person, praying for each other's personal needs.
2. Occult Level: deals with demonic forces released through activities related to Satanism, witchcraft, astrology and many other forms of structured occultism.
3. Strategic-Level or Cosmic-Level: To bind and bring down spiritual principalities and powers that rule over governments. ⁴³

Wagner makes a lot of point 3 above. He says that the Satan sends senior demons from of the hierarchy of evil spirits to control countries, regions, tribes, communities, residential areas and social networks in the world. Their main aim is to prevent the glorifying of God in their areas. They appoint demons of a lower rank to strengthen them in their attacks.

This false teaching originates from the sect The Manifest Sons of God. One of their apostles, Francis Frangipane, said: "There are satanic strongholds over countries and communities; there are strongholds which influence churches and individuals. These fortresses exist in the thought patterns and ideas that govern individuals as, well as communities and nations. Before victory can be claimed, these strongholds must be pulled down and Satan's armor removed. Then the mighty weapons of the Word and the Spirit can effectively plunder Satan's house." The Latter Rain also holds this viewpoint.

Wagner moved through a certain course of compromise and decline to get to his present theological position. He was born in 1930 and began his career as a conservative Christian. In 1970 he joined ranks with Fuller Seminary where he became professor of World Missions. In 1974 he became a member of the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelization and Billy Graham.

During 1980, Wagner met John Wimber, founder of the Vineyard Movement. The Vineyard church became notorious for manifestations such as slain in the spirit, laughing in the spirit, etc., known also as the Toronto Blessing. Wagner was won over to the signs and wonders theology and its resulting charismatic revivals. He coined the term "third wave". Wagner says, "The first wave was the Pentecostal movement, the second, the Charismatics, and now the Third Wave is joining them." The Third Wave are those conservative evangelicals now following after the signs and wonders movement.

Since then Wagner moved steadily in the direction of the Latter Rain and Manifested Sons of God theology as a result of his contact with 'prophets' like Paul Cain, Bill Hamon and Rick Joyner. He also made close contact with leaders from the Toronto/Brownsville Revival. Wagner wrote the preface for a book by Bill Hamon, "Apostles, prophets and the Coming Moves of God: God's End-Time Plans for His Church and Planet Earth."

Wagner is a leading person in the movement he himself describes as the "Post-Denominational Church" of the 21st century. Theological differences will fade and become obsolete as Christians become part of the new signs and wonders oriented apostolic reformation – the so-called New Apostolic Reformation. Prophets will receive divine visions concerning the body of Christ which they will reveal to the Apostles. The Apostles will then pass the information to the pastors, teachers and evangelists who will proclaim the message to the world. This hierarchy will be God's representatives on earth. No opposition against this divine institution from God will be tolerated, [This sounds a lot like Roman Catholicism!] 44

GEORGE OTIS, JR. NEW AGE TRANSFORMATION

George Otis is president and founder of the research group the Sentinel, In Seattle. He also heads the AD 2000 United Prayer Track's Spiritual Mapping Division. He was responsible for the production of the video Transformations and wrote, amongst many other books, Informed Intercession: Transforming your Community through Spiritual Mapping and Strategic Prayer. He visits cities worldwide and help pastors to gather information on the spiritual history and dynamics of their cities. They gather detailed information on the status of Christianity; prevailing

"social bondages," any historical events that caused trauma; religions and philosophies that oppose Christianity, etc. Mass gatherings, prayer watches and prayer marches are arranged to pray strategic prayers against the strongholds of the enemy. When the powers of darkness are broken over the city, the spiritual genes (DNA) of the community are changed and revival can occur, times of prosperity, growth and abundance will now follow. 45

UGANDA MOST CORRUPT NATIONS

Kato Mivule, a reporter and a native of Uganda says, "Uganda the Christian Nation is Among the Most Corrupt Nations of the Earth."

Kato Mivule, November 16, 2010, George Otis and his famous Transformation Videos went to Uganda and famously "documented" how Uganda was declared a "Christian Nation" by President Yoweri Museveni, the leader of Uganda since 1986.⁴⁶

George Otis noted how corruption was being stamped out, Parliamentary sessions were opened with prayers, Ugandan MPs were Christian, President's wife was a Christian, and how people were praying day and night for a mighty revival, and how Uganda was being "transformed" by this supposedly prayer movement.⁴⁷

Many missionaries, ministers, preachers, and pastors from the west have bought into such unfounded notions of Uganda being a "Christian Nation". Interesting is that now US Evangelicals engaged in Politics are now heavily influencing undiscerning Christians in Uganda to take on the same mantle of right wing Christian Politics.

I have spoken to some US ministers who travel to Uganda and all they see is a so-called revival, yet the opposite is true, Uganda is among the most corrupt nations on earth, from preacher, prophet, to president, corruption has become the order of the day and way of life. [1] The Christian Church has become an extension of the rich, powerful, and most corrupt, as long as they can bring in the tithe. Below is an article by a Ugandan renowned journalist documenting the moral and ethical decay in Uganda the "Christian Nation"?⁴⁸

In the last piece regarding Africa and many others I've mentioned how American Evangelicals often play the role of dupes and financiers for a lot of political interests.⁴⁹

I also mentioned the well reported role of American Evangelical groups working with the Ugandan government and actively trying to promote a Theonomic-type agenda...some even advocating the death penalty for homosexuals in Uganda.⁵⁰

Just in case this is the first article you read here, I'll say it again. Homosexuality is a sin, period. Homosexuals are lost people that need the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The Church does not work with the State to build the Kingdom of God, and the Kingdom is not built with the sword.

We can't evangelize the lost if we're calling on the state to execute the lost. The Theonomic mandate perverts the typical imagery of the Old Covenant and rather than promote the Kingdom it sets a mandate for Dominion AGAINST the Gospel Commission. ⁵¹

FALLACIOUS TEACHINGS

George Otis and his Fallacious Teachings

By Johan Malan

Abstract: Confronted with increased opposition, the producer of the two Transformations videos tries to conceal his grave theological errors but does not abandon them. In association with people like Peter Wagner, Chuck Pierce, Ted Haggard and Cindy Jacobs, George Otis of the Sentinel Group relentlessly pursues the grand cause of the post-denominational, Apostolic Reformation aimed at unifying and controlling the entire Christian Church. This is a misapprehended method to defeat Satan, promote revival, establish the kingdom of God and transform societies everywhere. ⁵²

THE LEAVEN SPREADS

In 1991, Otis published the book, The Last of the Giants: Lifting the Veil on Islam and the End Time. In it, he confirms some of his previous theological fallacies and further explains them while also promoting the idea of “spiritual mapping”.⁵³

No sinful nature. The author continues to deny the notion of the sinful nature of man: “Because all human peoples belong to God initially by right of fatherhood, Satan has no automatic control over them; unless individuals give themselves over to the ruler ship of Satan willingly, they will remain under the tender influence of the Holy Spirit” (1991:88).

This is an outright denial of the depraved and sinful nature of man due to the fall. In our unregenerate state we are “without hope and without God in the world,” (Eph. 2:12). David says: “Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me,” (Psa. 51:5). But according to Otis we have no sinful nature and only sin by deliberate choice and afterwards by force of habit. Small wonder that he sees no need for Christ’s atonement on the cross to forgive our sins and to make provision for a new nature to all lost sinners who turn to Him for salvation. All that is needed in the Otis paradigm is spiritual warfare to liberate societies from the oppressive influence of territorial spirits. They will then turn to God in great numbers. According to Otis, the inherent sinful nature of people doesn’t need to be addressed because they do not have one! They were only deceived by an external spiritual force (a territorial demonic stronghold) to sin. Remove this stronghold, and society will be free to embrace Christianity! ⁵⁴

NEW REVELATIONS

Otis clearly does not believe that the Bible contains the whole counsel of God. He regards the Church as God’s primary instrument of revelation on earth today. He also says that Christians must lead the parade of history (1991:34). This teaching opens the way to the practicing of further revelation gifts by prophets and apostles. Extra-Biblical revelations are, therefore, in order. This is an ideal opportunity for false prophets to flourish as it opens the way to deceiving the entire Christian Church by following the teachings and advice of specially anointed “prophets” of God.⁵⁵

A NEW WAY OF DISCERNING SPIRITUAL ENEMIES

This new way of seeing I have labelled spiritual mapping” (1991:85); Otis says that negative feelings are related directly to the presence and influence of unseen territorial spirits. He refers to Peter Wagner’s theory that Satan assigns high-ranking evil spirits to control nations, regions, cities and tribes to prevent God from being glorified in their territory. The ability to identify these satanic strongholds is described as spiritual mapping (1991:87; recognition for the above quotations from Otis 1991, and some of the comments, to Rev. Greg Robertson on...<http://www.geocities.com/promo777/Otislevn.htm>).⁵⁶

TRANSFORMATION HAS JOINED THE “OTHER SIDE”

Pat Holliday says these “Transformation Christians such as George Otis and Peter Wagner are among those who have joined the other side” and are actually working for a New Religious World system that is being formed to bring in the Antichrist.⁵⁷

It is quite evident that George Otis repeatedly, totally and emphatically renounced the basic elements of the doctrine of salvation in Jesus Christ, namely Christ's substitutionary death on the Cross for the remittance of our sins. In books that he wrote since the lectures were given, these fallacies are reconfirmed.

Sin, to him, is to be in demonic bondage or deception without reference to the effect of an inherent sinful nature. As solution to this spiritual bondage and deception, demons and their strongholds in a certain area must be identified, confronted in spiritual warfare, and dispelled from the area. As a result, people will seek the Lord and a great revival will occur.

The essence of Otis' ministry is the spiritual mapping and warfare needed in the process of deliverance. As proof of for the feasibility and enormous success of this approach, he and his Sentinel Group produced the Transformations video, which is also widely distributed and shown in South Africa.

GEORGE OTIS JR, CRITICISED

During the past number of years since the release of his first two transformation videos, which also prompted Transformation Africa, George Otis was rightfully criticised by many evangelical Christians for the exaggerated portrayal of revivals and comprehensive societal transformations that allegedly occurred in places such as Cali in Colombia, Almolonga in Guatemala, Kiambu in Kenya, and Hemet in California. Subsequent events in these places, and also in the rest of the world, do not corroborate his claims and more often suggest an opposite movement.⁵⁸

At the prayer summit near Pretoria, Otis changed his approach of reviewing world-wide transformations and screened a short video which is introduced as follows: “The Sentinel Group presents a different angle film: Approaching fire.” This film contains clips from videos as well as footage from TV newscasts on the devastation caused by wars, terror groups and natural disasters around the globe. The scenes of a disintegrating world gave rise to a sense of hopelessness among world leaders who try to solve the serious problems of our time. Their diplomacy, wars and political solutions do not work.

Otis then concluded that the only hope for a troubled world is prayer. He quoted from the prayer of Jesus: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven” (Matt. 6:9-10). He insisted that the kingdom of God should be manifested on earth exactly as it is in heaven – in all its divine authority, purity and productivity. That means that there should be no evil at all in society, as there is no evil heaven. He said that Lagos, Nairobi, Durban and all the great cities of Africa need a big revival and transformation in order to live in accordance with the kingdom of God.

Otis referred to scriptures such as the following to explain what transformation entails: “I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counsellors as at the beginning. Afterwards you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city,” (Isa. 1:26). Traditional religions and witchcraft should also be renounced: “And many who had believed came, confessing and telling their deeds. Also many of those who had practised magic brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all... So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed,” (Acts 19:18-20).

George Otis said that contrary to the film on human suffering, wars and natural disasters there are 500 communities in the world where revival is experienced at present. He said that prayer and fasting were critical activities in bringing about revival and transformation, which is the only way to overcome violence, crime and suffering. He said that when God is present in a community “everything snaps into place.” A transformed society is defined as “a neighbourhood, city or nation of which the values and institutions have been overrun by the grace and presence of God.” This calls for an invading supernatural power. Otis concluded his discussion on transformation by saying: “Kingdom values should be celebrated publicly and passed on to future generations.”⁵⁹

VIDEOS TRANSFORMATION

The transformations video was produced by the Sentinel Group of George Otis. Peter Wagner, head of Global Harvest Ministries, is also a major role-player in the spiritual warfare movement (SWM) who promotes and teaches the techniques of spiritual warfare to thousands upon thousands people throughout the world. George Otis is the presenter of the Transformations video in which four communities are portrayed that were allegedly radically transformed through revivals brought about by the kind of spiritual warfare of the SWM.⁶⁰

In the video it is said that in each of these four communities strategic spiritual warfare was done prior to the revival. The results were big revivals and a total cultural transformation of the whole community. Since the release of the video various groups conducted research in these areas to verify the claims that were made. They found many of the claims exaggerated and often false. One of the best sources thus far concerning the accuracy of the claims is Tom Smith's home page in which he reports as follows:

CALI, COLOMBIA

Claim: Drug cartels were defeated. For years, Colombia was the world's largest Cocaine exporter (unstated implication is that this has changed). Cults have decreased. Cali is a "safe" city, where a significant percentage of the population is now safe and revival flourishes. Instead of a city where people lived in fear, people now safely walk the streets.⁶¹

Reality: Six of the cartel leaders were jailed. The drug cartel reorganized, with two of the original leaders still operating from of Cali, one commanding his operation from prison. Other leaders of the drug cartel set up operations just outside Cali and in other parts of Colombia, and due to this de-centralization, the organization is more resilient. The rebels (who protect the drug trade) are still attacking churches in Cali, shutting down many. The church recently wanted to hold a pastors' meeting in the local auditorium, but the police initially resisted the application because the risk of guerilla attack was too high. The Ekklesia Newsletter carries a report in which they say: "FARC guerrillas also may view evangelicals as allies of the United States. The rebel group has closed churches, imposed a 6 p.m. curfew on services where it allows churches to meet, and banned public religious activity in a territory under its control, Esquivia said. The ELN, another rebel group, invaded a Catholic church in Cali and kidnapped 140 members two months ago"⁶²

New reports are still continually received. This can be verified on www.cnn.com search for Cali, Colombia.

<http://www.usdoj.gov/dea/traffickers/Colombia.htm> and

<http://www.emergency.com/calipres.htm>

Quotes from the US Drug Enforcement Agency: "Colombia-based drug traffickers are responsible for most of the world's cocaine production and wholesale cocaine distribution, although traffickers from Mexico have assumed a much larger role in the transportation and distribution of cocaine. Colombia's strategic location makes it a logical hub for cocaine trafficking.... Traffickers from Colombia have been able to solidify and expand their position in the U.S. heroin market by distributing high-quality heroin and by initially undercutting the price of their competitors. They also use marketing strategies, such as including free samples of heroin in cocaine shipments, in order to build a clientele. Trafficking groups operating in New York and Philadelphia even market their drug using brand names - like No Way Out and Death Wish - as a way to instill customer recognition and loyalty. These marketing techniques have allowed the traffickers from Colombia to expand and ultimately dominate the heroin market. In fact, the DEA's Heroin Signature Program, which determines the origin of the heroin sold on the street, found that 65 percent (356 kilograms) of the heroin seized in the United States in 1998 was produced in Colombia." ⁶³

Satanists are invading churches to shut them down. A quote from the newsletter of Ekklesia says: "Satanic groups are attacking churches and Christians, especially in Cali. Some churches have suffered repeated attacks, said Consuelo Zuluaga, a social worker of Justapaz." ⁶⁴

According to the newsletters of Ruth Ruibal, the widow of the assassinated pastor Julio Ruibal (who is mentioned in the film), the situation in Cali is "a gross darkness", a city where her church must hire armed guards and where the church must be protected by barbed wire (soon to be replaced by a 10-12 foot wall if permission is granted). Recently at another church in the city, a church bodyguard was killed when the church was attacked by guerillas protecting the drug trade. A quote from the October 1999 newsletter from Ruth Ruibal: "The church in Cali confirms the news that we receive through the media in the USA. Naturally speaking the political and economic situations seems to be going from bad to worse. In fact, the Sunday before I left for this trip, there was guerrilla infiltration in our church service." The newsletter of Ekklesia, denomination for Ruibal's church, confirms how bad the situation is. The assassin of Julio is free and openly claiming to have killed Julio. He owns the land next to the church and is threatening to kill other family members. A quote from the Dec. 1999 newsletter written by Ruth Ruibal: "On the other hand, some days ago the man who continues to threaten us (and boasts in the street about killing Julio) started a new construction right next to our property. In the past he has tried to take over our land. Our simple barbed wire fencing had been knocked down, so we began to replace it. Immediately, the man began threatening the workers and several of our churchmen, shouting that he would "give us problems" with 50 hit men that he claims to have. He asked if we wanted there to be another death, and added that he will get the property (the entrance to our church) and block it. We have had to hire guards just to get the work done!"⁶⁵

Transformation claim: Ruth Ruibal says, "The violence was getting worse and the church was really feeling the pressure of what was going on." The video claims in 1995 there were 15 killings a day, 10 days afterwards the first drug lord was arrested, no killings. United prayer events were going on, that when we started seeing the results, and 10 days later the first drug lord fell, and God was changing the city." (This is before the end of summer 95'). ⁶⁶

Transformation Fact: Government reports: "Homicide rates in the city of Cali, Colombia (1994 population: 1,776,436), increased fivefold from 1985 through 1992, reaching levels of 100 per 100,000 persons. Because of this increase, in 1992 the city of Cali established the Development, Security, and Peace Program (DESEPAZ) to implement a series of strategies to prevent violence and improve security among the residents of Cali.”

“Of the 2695 total homicides during January 1993-May 1994, for 2461 (91%) no suspect was charged with the murder; for 641 (24%) of all homicides, the suspected perpetrator was identified as a “hit man” (i.e., a hired assassin) (458 {71%}), gang member (91 {14%}), or a relative/acquaintance (62 {10%}).

Firearms were banned in Cali in 1993-94 and in Bogata in 1995-97 with the result as follows: “The incidence of homicide was lower during periods when the firearm-carrying ban was in effect compared with other periods (multivariate-adjusted rate ratio, 0.86 [95% confidence interval {CI}, 0.76-0.97] for Cali and 0.87 [95% CI, 0.77-0.98] for Bogotá). Conclusion: An intermittent citywide ban on the carrying of firearms in 2 Colombian cities was associated with a reduction in homicide rates for both cities.”

So apparently the ban in 1993-94 was already having an effect on the homicide rate well before Transformation’s implemented their prayer plan. Yet they took the credit. But has it worked?

US Drug Enforcement Agency states that nothing has changed in the drug arena. KINS reports Cali, maintains the second highest murder rate in Latin America at 112 per 100,000 people, is the traditional headquarters of one of the most powerful drug trafficking rings in Colombia and remains rife with narcotics-related violence. It is also in a region where guerrilla and right-wing paramilitary forces have become increasingly active in recent years. Pickpockets and purse-snatchers prowl downtown and armed assaults on both pedestrians and vehicles pose a high threat at night. Drug-related violence is commonplace, although it is generally quite focused and less likely to involve outsiders.

The murder rate has changed little in Columbia “With 25,660 recorded homicides in 2000 and an average of 70 killings per day, Colombia's murder rate is among the highest in the world, in line with the country's reputation as one of the world's most dangerous places.”

In October 1999, Transparency International issued its annual Corruption Perceptions Index, which ranked 99 countries based on levels of corruption perceived by experts and the general public. On a scale of 1 to 10, with 10 being the least corrupt, Colombia received a score of 2.9, making it the sixth most corrupt country of those surveyed in Latin America. (Country risk reports)

August 2000 update: The US donated a lot of money to Colombia to fight the drugs. The guerillas are obviously not happy about this, and fights and kidnappings have been intensifying.⁶⁷

ALMOLONGA, GUATEMALA

Claim: 92% percent of the people are Christian. Large vegetables, increased production of 1000% over past 20 years; researchers from all over the world are coming to study the produce, but the film doesn't state the reasons for their research and the nature of their findings.⁶⁸

Reality: A spiritual revival occurs in this place. According to an article written by Stephen Sywulka (in Guatemala City) for Christianity Today, the figure of the people involved is exaggerated, and is more likely 65%. In many cases the change is only "skin deep", with former witchdoctors now calling themselves "prophets" but they are doing much the same thing as before.⁶⁹

The war in Guatemala brought agriculture to a near standstill with fields being burned, people disappearing, and farmers being killed. The war, which lasted for 36 years, ended only in the early to mid-1990s and was therefore at its peak 20 years ago. Though we cannot say that this happened specifically to the Almolonga fields, the information that we have was that agriculture across all of Guatemala was impacted by the war. It is thus no wonder that if we compare the agriculture production over that period of time, it would have significantly increased.⁷⁰

Secondly, the crops in Almolonga are notable in the health community, not for their size, but for the health problems that were caused by the excessive use of pesticides. This would have the effect of increasing the quantity and size of the produce, but with side effects. Third, the size of the produce depends upon many things, including the variety of seed used, and improved agriculture practices over the years.⁷¹

The film itself states that the agricultural output improved as the people worked harder. None of what they showed required anything supernatural. As one can see just from a quick search on Internet, researchers around the world are coming to Almolonga to study the health problems, which have resulted from the abuse of pesticides used to create bumper crops.⁷²

KIAMBU, KENYA

Claim: People are flocking from Nairobi to live in Kiambu. A revival of Christianity has broken out across the city from "The Prayer Cave."

Reality: A missionary with African Inland Missions (AIM) who returned to Canada in March says that she has not heard of any people flocking to Kiambu because they want to live there.⁷³

The Prayer Cave is a "Word of Faith" church, under the ministry of Rudi and Sharon Swanepoel. They do not teach Biblical Christian doctrine, but rather Word-Faith doctrine. On their website Swanepoel indicates that they were impacted by the ministries of preachers such as Rodney Howard Browne and his brother Gil. Rudi is an ordained minister of the Apostolic Faith Mission of South Africa. As can be seen in the film, they do support "drunkenness in the spirit" which is a sign related to the "Intoxicating Jesus" (who is not the Jesus of the Scriptures).⁷⁴

HEMET CALIFORNIA

Claim: Once 9 methamphetamine labs operated out of the area and most have been shut down. A 75% decrease in drug trade. Unity amongst the churches; Most cults have left town; decrease in crime, church attendance increase to 14% of the population (it doubled in 10 years). The crime rate is significantly lower.⁷⁵

Reality: In 1998, 20 of the 52 labs in the region were large-scale operations that could cook more than 20 pounds of methamphetamine in a day or two, according to state drug-lab statistics. Some labs make more than 100 pounds at a time. As the Central Valley methamphetamine problem grows, agents use new techniques to catch traffickers who change their operations to avoid detection, Pennal said. Investigators follow trails from the clues left behind when meth makers dump lab waste. Now, Pennal is organizing an expanded team funded with federal money received when the region was designated a High Intensity Drug Trafficking Area. The money will add six agents to fight meth in the Central Valley. Agents will have resources to do more than just react to labs, Pennal said. "We're going to be able to conduct a lot of follow-up to dismantle these organizations," he said (Published 1/23/2000).⁷⁶

Neither the churches contacted nor the authors of an article on the drug trade in S. California were aware of any such drop. Quote from one of the authors of the series on the drug trade in this area when he replied to my email: "I have not heard of the group or anyone in that area, including the police, talking about such a mind-boggling drop in drug use." Quote from an email from a church in Hemet: "I do know there are many methamphetamine labs throughout our two-county area." Newspaper stories on that situation can be found at <http://www.inlandempireonline.com/meth> (See article "Inland Drug Empire"). A police contact in Hemet said: "I don't know how they can measure a drop in the drug trade when the criteria for the measurement are not familiar to us. This is a new claim to me."⁷⁷

I checked with a couple of churches in Hemet. One had not heard of any of the claims nor could they support the truth of any of the claims (including increased church attendance, drug use down, 1st street gang members saved, etc.). They referred me to a newspaper article on the drug production and use in their area of S. California. The second church said that they had not seen the film but that God had promised to bring revival to the San Jacinto Valley. They did not confirm any of the claims and that wording appears to suggest that they are not aware of any "revival" in Hemet.

Police comment - "Like most cities in our nation, yes, and the crime rate are measurably down."

THE GLOBAL DAY OF PRAYER:

On 15 May 2005, Pentecost Sunday, stadiums all over the world were filled with believers who prayed scripted prayers in unison while watching others do the same via satellite link-up. There were many sincere, Bible believing Christians participating in this event. Those who participated did not realize that they were involved in an unbiblical move to pray for the establishment of an earthly kingdom where the Christians will rule and reign. They were participating and supporting the Dominion Theology heresy! ⁷⁸

In the material promoting the Global Day of Prayer, and in the prayer guide, there are numerous quotations and prayer suggestions that subtly reveal the ideals and propagation of the Kingdom Now Theology (Dominionism):

- Description: Ten days of prayer toward the transformation of the nations.
- Vision: to reveal God's glory on the earth to bless the nations of the earth.
- Mission: Building a canopy of prayer over all the continents.
- Praying for the transformation of all nations.
- Some of the following prayers are listed in the Prayer Guide for the 10 days that led up to Pentecost Sunday. Take note of the subtle references to Kingdom Now (Doninionism) and manifested Sons of God Theology:
- "For God to bring outbreaks of Christ's peace all over the world ..."

·For Christians to live with expectancy for the promises of transformation to be fulfilled in their lifetimes..."

- "For the righteousness and justices of God to transform the ways of commerce and politics."
- "For the peace of Christ's kingdom to change the ways cities and nations are governed."

In the lengthy scripted prayer called, "A Prayer for the World," some of the following prayers are found. Again note how subtly their Dominion theology is presented:

- "Let Your Kingdom be established in every nation of this world so that governments will rule with righteousness and justice.
- "May your blessing bring transformation amongst every people on the earth."
- "Give us wisdom and insight in every sphere of life."

- “King of Glory, we invite You to come to the nations of the world ... to restore all things. We welcome You to finish Your work in our cities, our peoples and our nations.”⁷⁹

The Otis theology tested against Scripture

The following comparison may be helpful to indicate the extensive range of theological errors emerging from the writings and videos of George Otis:

The basic human problem

Otis: The most serious human problems are self-consciousness instead of God-consciousness, pride, lack of knowledge, fear of death, the control by and belief in occult powers and ideas (1997:93-108).

Bible: All the descendants of Adam have a sinful nature, which manifests as moral and spiritual depravity and an incessant inclination to sin. The sinner is spiritually dead and needs to be born again (Rom. 5:12; Jn. 3:3).

Strongholds of evil

Otis: Demonic strongholds are established territorially over communities, cities and even nations. The strongholds are society-based. The demons in charge blind entire societies that they should not see the divine truth (1997:52-3; 274).

Bible: The devil blinds the minds of individuals and establishes strongholds of sin and idolatry in their hearts and minds. The strongholds are individually-based. Deception by evil spirits keeps them from seeing the truth of God's plan of salvation (2 Cor. 4:4).

The origin of sin

Otis: People sin because they are subjected to the influence of particular demonic strongholds in the area where they live, and also because of pacts concluded with the devil by their forefathers. They are sinners by habit rather than by nature, and need to be taught to reject, overcome and destroy the bad habits and evil influences (1991:88).

Bible: People sin because they inherited a sinful nature from Adam (Rom. 5:17). The particular sins that they commit are often related to the various lies and forms of deception that have become internalized and popular in their societies and families – but that is not the root cause of sin, which is a deep spiritual problem in each one's life.

The knowledge of sin

Otis: An intensive study must be conducted of the evil ideologies and demonic strongholds that control people. This investigation is called spiritual mapping. In the process, the assistance of a mentor is needed to determine the cause of all the problems (1991:85-87; 1997:259).

Bible: The biblical definition and examples of sin must be studied and accepted. The Holy Spirit will convict you of your sin by imparting a clear knowledge to you about those things that defile your spirit, soul and body, and separate you from the presence and grace of God (Gal. 5:19-21).

Redemption from sin

Otis: He is very vague on the nature of redemption. To him it amounts to the breaking down of satanic strongholds, the exorcising of demons from individuals, the knowledge and practices and the acceptance of God's forgiveness and His divine knowledge and principles. The atonement of Jesus on the cross is not part of his doctrine of salvation as God can forgive us without reference to the cross (1978:76; 105-140).

Bible: The atoning death of Jesus on the Cross and His resurrection from the dead are pivotal in the Biblical doctrine of salvation. "In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. 1:7). We are regenerated by the Holy Spirit who also imparts to us a new nature. The forgiveness of God is specifically based on the redemptive work of Jesus Christ on the cross for all who believe (1 Cor. 1:18).

Distinction between divine and evil supernatural manifestations

Otis: He is unable to discern the falseness of the modern signs and wonders movement and the accompanying extra-biblical revelations of God's will. He condones it as part of a great revival of the last days. All his knowledge of the occult fails him on this point (1997:57; 259).

Bible: We are commanded to test the spirits whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world (1 Jn. 4:1). Their works must be tested against Scripture. Peter says that these false prophets will even deny the Deity of the Lord Jesus (2 Pet. 2:1-2).

The marginalizing of Jesus Christ

Otis: It is very conspicuous that he deliberately marginalizes Jesus by referring to

Bible: Jesus Christ and His work on the cross is the central message of the

The spiritual Good News in the Bible. There is no true attributes of believers are not explicitly knowledge of God without Him; there is no related to “Christ in us.” Why is he shying salvation and forgiveness of sin without away from Jesus? No clear doctrine on sanctification

Otis: Despite his strong emphasis on Bible: The Bible clearly commands us prayer, fasting and spiritual warfare, he to be filled with the Holy Spirit. “Be filled offers no clear doctrine on sanctification with the Spirit” (Eph. 5:18). “For this is the and the need to be filled with the Holy will of God, your sanctification... he who Spirit. Ecumenical unification of churches

Otis: Ecumenical meetings of all Bible: The true Church of Christ is Ecumenical groups invariably Without unity there will be no victory in the sacrifice doctrinal principles and are struggle against evil (1999:241). therefore compromisers who are not strongly united.

Prayer-walking

Otis: This is the practice of on-site, street-level intercession. Prayers offered by participants are in response to immediate observations and researched targets (1999:254)

Bible: Prayer-walking is unnecessary. We can pray for people from our homes. When in a neighborhood, we must witness to people and share the Gospel with them (Acts 1:8).

Position during intercessory prayers

Otis: In spiritual mapping lessons, the following is said about intercessory prayer: "Intercession also involves the act of standing between the object of prayer and the spiritual forces... In the case of the devil, it is to deflect his attacks." This is a dangerous position since it suggests that the power emanates from the person who is praying. People who regard themselves as specially anointed persons with supreme authority over the forces of darkness may try apply strategies of this nature. They obviously do not realize the risks that they are taking in confronting evil from this position (1999:252).

Bible: During intercessory prayers, our boldness should be applied in another way. We must have "boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh..." (Heb. 10:19-20). We must draw near to Him with a true heart in full assurance of faith. We take our refuge in the presence of Christ and trust Him to protect us against the devil and his wiles. Jesus, as the conqueror, will stand between us and the evil forces to dispel them from us. He will rebuke the devil and set us free from his attacks on us and our families.

Communal strategies

Otis: He promotes communal strategies for the deliverance of big societies such as the inhabitants of an entire city. He views them collectively like a river. They have a common destiny that

Bible: We were sent out by Christ to seek and save the lost. As in the parable of the sower, only a relatively small percentage of the seed falls on good ground. The truly saved ones are always a must be changed for the good. Once saved, minority group compared to the great they will live peacefully, be prosperous and masses who tread the broad way to hell united, while evil and sin will vanish in the (Mt. 7:13). Societies at large will therefore city. In the words of Ted Haggard, remain evil and become even more so in individuals in a revived city will find it hard to the end-time. Christ never commanded us go to hell. Evil strongholds have been pulled to practice spiritual warfare to deliver cities down through prayer and spiritual warfare, and nations from demonic bondage. We and virtually every person turns to the Lord must shine as lights in the midst of a and serves Him. This is the (self-imposed) crooked and perverse generation that will vision of those who regard themselves as reject and persecute us during the present the faithful and heroic! (1999:15; 140-143). dispensation (Phil. 2:15).

The coming of the kingdom

Otis: The Otis theology constitutes yet Bible: According to Biblical another version of kingdom-now theology – eschatology, the whole world is heading for also referred to as dominion theology and the hour of darkness during the coming reconstructionism. The kingdom of God Day of the Lord. False Christ's and false must manifest now (before the coming of prophets will prepare the way for the the King) and for that to happen, the appearing of the universal false prophet kingdom of Satan must be stripped of its and the Antichrist. Their coming will be power and strongholds (1999:154-5). Great according to the working of Satan, with all revivals will then follow, accompanied by power, signs, and lying wonders (2 Thess. signs and wonders, and societies will be 2:9). The Bible says that in the last days radically transformed to function as truly perilous times will come (2 Tim. 3:1). It will Christian communities. Great men of God be a period of great apostasy when many will appear on the scene to lead the people will be deceived. Sin and transformation process to its goal of peace wickedness will proliferate and the love of and world unity. They will practice the many Christians will grow cold. This dominion granted to Adam and prepare the situation will only change after the coming world for the coming of the King. No of the King, when all people on earth will mention is made of the judgments of the serve Him and rejoice in His kingdom of coming great tribulation. righteousness (Rev. 11:15)

Concluding remarks

The theology of Otis is widely accepted and welcomed in kingdom-now circles, rendering him a very popular spiritual leader among like-minded people. However, there is also growing antagonism against him, his books and Transformations videos since his extravagant claims about total transformation that occurred in a number of cities are not substantiated by the true facts. It becomes increasingly evident that people such as Otis deceive evangelical Christians into believing false doctrines, exaggerated statements and a completely misapprehended conclusion about revivals in various parts of the world (1999:15-50). His unbiblical methods simply do not work and can only lead to the undermining and even destroying of people's faith. It also reflects badly on missionaries who are working under difficult circumstances in hostile, heathen communities, as they are evidently not able to pull down the enemy strongholds.

Many people tried the methods of spiritual mapping and strategic spiritual warfare, but without any notable success. A Christian from a town in the Western Cape, South Africa, noted the following incidents: "A certain brother came very sincerely in the name of the Lord Jesus to bind the devil and stop his destructive work in our town. Shortly afterwards this brother left the town, but he also left behind the devil – as loose as ever! Other brothers followed his example and again attempted to bind Satan and pull down his strongholds, but without success."

The same can be said about scores of similar efforts by groups of people who attempted to oust the devil and his territorial spirits from countries such as Russia, Turkey and China, or from cities such as Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, New York, Washington, London and Cape Town. Prayer-walks without witnessing to the lost are rife, and missionaries who do not participate in the ill-conceived methods, stand to lose their credibility and financial support among kingdom-now believers who have an overwhelming propensity for sensational and dramatic events.

Otis, together with Wagner and others, have the doubtful honor to lead the way in this man-made "revival" and community transformation of the last days. The one who is least concerned about this movement is the devil himself, because he is attacked and countered in ways which do not affect his position and influence at all. His biggest ally in the battle is the sinful nature of people, which is left virtually untouched in this campaign against evil.

GOD OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST IS THE POWER OF GOD!

We must remain in our foundational faith; centered up the cross of Jesus; grounded in the scriptures and established in the power of God.

"Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; 17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: 8 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, 20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: 22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,” (Eph. 1:16-22).

Saturday Evening Session with George Otis

WOMEN’S AGLOW

David Stanfield and his group of banner-wielding Australians added a powerful element to our worship sessions.

On Saturday evening, the worship went on and on and on and on! It went from loud celebration to intimate communion and then back to celebration again. I especially enjoyed seeing the men (about 20 of them) worshipping with banners, led by David Stanfield from Australia. Seeing the flags waving in unison around the large meeting hall was so inspiring. I loved it!

When George Otis Jr got up to speak, he said “I’ve come to a conclusion about Aglow International — you’re all worship addicts.” So true — and the Lord is dancing with us — or maybe over us as it says in Zephaniah.

George spoke about prayer this evening. Here are some highlights of what he shared with us:

I once spent 72 hours straight in prayer — without sleep — and felt exhilarated when it was over. It was during a revival in another country and I had come there to document what was happening.

So what would true transformation look like? Rapid church growth for sure, but that's not all. We would also see dramatic social, political and economic change.

A transformational community is a neighborhood, city or nation whose values and institutions have been overrun by the values of the Kingdom of God.

Prayer plays a critical role in its success.

The question is "Are our prayers getting answered?" If you take an honest assessment of society today, you'll have to agree that:

- Corruption is pervasive
- Economies are failing
- Islam is spreading
- Pornography is rampant (affecting an estimated 54% of U.S. pastors)

Many Christians "play" at prayer. We pray when we feel like it and without any kind of system method for our prayers.

Transformational prayer is not centered on how long we pray or even on how many are praying.

Maybe we should spend less time praying and more time preparing ourselves to receive when we do pray.

Prevailing prayer attains the blessing it seeks. Transformational intercessors know their prayers are being answered.⁸⁰

By Rick

It's high time people started waking up to the real pandemic that has hit our culture... that is...the Luciferian cabal intent on enslaving humanity.

There is a hidden agenda that we must be aware of. That is the formation of a New World Order with Satan as the head and humanity as their playground. We need to be awakened to this real threat and know how to combat it not only from a physical standpoint but from a spiritual one as well....

Time to put on our Survival Gear!

"Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places..." Ephesians 6:11-12

We don't fight against flesh and blood; we fight against principalities, powers, and rulers of darkness. This is a full fledged battle being waged at this very moment and it's high time we start doing some serious spiritual battling! It's time to put on our "Survival Gear" and stop playing hooky!

“Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might....Take up the whole armor of God that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; and above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints” Ephesians 6:13-18

In order to fight the spiritual battle we must take up the whole armor of God. Now, does that mean physically dressing like a soldier? Heavens No! It’s not quite my style if you ask me; rather it is referring to wearing it spiritually. Let me explain.

For starters Paul was likely to have written the epistle during the time he was under house arrest and chained to a Roman guard. With that in mind, he likened the spiritual battle to that of a Roman soldier who prepares himself for battle. Roman soldiers would often put on various items to protect themselves in a flesh and blood battle. In the same manner, spiritually speaking, Christians need to prepare themselves for war by putting on various items to protect themselves.....

1. “Be Strong in the Lord” \(vs.10\). It is only in the power of His might that we can win against sin and Satan. We have God Almighty to lean on in times of trouble, when we believe and seek Him.

2. “Gird Your Waist with Truth” \(vs.14\). We must have a committed relationship with Christ first and foremost. Not just using Him when we need Him, but developing a relationship of truth starting from our innermost being.

3. “Wear the Breastplate of Righteousness” \(vs.14\). Ultimately living righteously, will protect us from the evil one. When we are not living the way we should be, we are left vulnerable to the enemy’s attacks. We must keep our lives holy and pure before the Lord. And this can only be done, by making sure we have a daily relationship with Him.

4. “Shod your feet with the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace” \(vs.15\). Peace gives us the strength to stand against the evil one. Don’t be prone to fights, quarrels, and arguments; rather show gentleness and long-suffering to all people. Be full of peace, which will keep you from temptations.

5. “Above all, Take the Shield of Faith” \(vs.16\). With this shield we can ward off attacks of the enemy and resist any darts that the evil one throws our way. Darts of temptations, darts of sin, darts of greed, pride, jealousy, guilt, etc. Keep the shield at all times, and above all remember the power in faith. With it, we can move mountains and accomplish any task with God's help.

6. “Take the Helmet of Salvation” (vs.17). If we don't wear our helmet, then we don't have anything protecting our heads, and our minds are an open target for Satan to entice. Bad thinking and distressful thoughts can target you and get you down. Don't let Satan get a foothold in this area. Be on guard. Wear the helmet of Salvation. This helmet is our Salvation. When we truly give our lives over to Lord, we can rest in Him and the gift that he has given us.

7. “Take the Sword of the Spirit” (vs.17). Our sword is the Word of God. This is a weapon that we need to get skillful at using. It is the weapon that Jesus used against the devil when he was tempted after a forty day fast. We need to be reading it and understanding it in order to use it for our survival. Get acquainted with the Book!

8. “Praying Always with all Prayer and Supplication in the Spirit” (vs.18). Not only are we told what armor to wear, but we are also told what our attitude should be. Part of our survival depends on our praying with sensitivity to the Spirit, which can only come about by living holy lives.

9. “Be Watchful to this End with all Perseverance and Supplication for all the Saints” (vs.18). We cannot survive alone. Our survival is entangled with other Christians. We should look out for other Christians, fellowship with them, and keep them in prayer.

Far too often Christians leave the house naked and unprepared for battle. Think if a Roman soldier left for war without wearing a piece of his garment. Chances are, he would die in the battle field and so to it is with many Christians today. They are dying in the battle field because they fail to wear their spiritual armor.

We must realize we are at war and wake up to what is happening and pray the spiritual armor over ourselves each and every day. Be ready and most of all put on your 'survival gear.'

Lord, we need you now more than ever. Strengthen and protect us with your armor. Teach us to use each piece appropriately. Help us to pray for America and our self. Reveal yourself to the world that they may be saved. In Jesus' name AMEN! ⁸¹
