ESCAPE FROM THIRD WAVE

“Hello Everyone, I called in toward the end of the program, blogtalkradio/miracleinternetcafe, and spoke to Dr. Pat Holliday last night as ‘Plucked from the Fire’ and as I said, I have truly been Plucked from the Fire.

At age 15, in 1980, I asked Jesus Christ of Nazareth; Lamb of God; Only Begotten Son of The Father; Lord of Lords and King of Kings; I AM, to come into my heart, be my personal Lord and Savior, save me from my sins, wash me clean in His blood of atonement, and rule and reign on the throne of my life. Immediately, unclean spirits pressed out of my mouth from inside of me and exited my body.

I also mentioned in the program that I come from a background of SRA and multi-generational Luciferianism. At fifteen I was first exposed to the Gospel through an organization founded by Billy Graham: Youth for Christ. Satanic infiltrators within that organization targeted me, joining forces with family members in an effort to fulfill the plan of Satan for my life.

When I first became involved with the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR)/Third Wave/Joel's Army/Prophetic Movement, I was searching for the authentic Body of Jesus Christ. I was searching for mature Believers walking in discernment and able to manifest the authentic love of God for me. Determined to find my place in the Body of Christ, I pressed forward in my requests for prayer support in and through the Holy Spirit. I dealt with inner-circle individuals and in some cases, primary individuals in key leadership positions. As I said, my repeated, ongoing requests went consistently rejected.

I Thank God I was rejected by those of the body of Anti-Christ. Had I not experienced the attack, rejection and betrayal of those satanic workers who infiltrated Youth for Christ, one of the largest Evangelical organizations in America, I am not sure I could have withstood this experience.

Jesus commands us to love, especially one another. Love is not optional. We are marked by our love, or the lack of it. I consistently pray that Jesus know me; really know me, and that I know Him. I want to be a bone in the throat of the Anti-Christ; apparently I was, and I am grateful to have been spit out.

Thank You Jesus, that YOU are FAITHFUL.

Every Blessing,

Angela (PFTF)

THIEF IN THE NIGHT

“The Lord is not slow concerning His promise, as some count slowness, but is long-suffering toward us, not purposing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance,” (II Pet. 3:10).

“But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a rushing noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat. And the earth and the works in it will be burned up,” (II Pet. 3:9-to-13).

“Then, all these things being about to be dissolved, what sort ought you to be in holy behavior and godliness...” (II Pet. 3:11).

“Looking for and rushing the coming of the Day of God; on account of which the heavens; being on fire; will melt away; and the elements will melt, burning with heat?” (II Pet. 3:12).

“But according to His promise; we look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells,” (II Pet. 3:13).

HUNGER FOR STRANGE GODS

America has a full hunger for doubt and people following strange gods and strange fire. Shocking evidence that the Marxist, Jewish neo-con controlled Council on Foreign Relations has recruited top evangelicals

Pastor Rick Warren, Southern Baptist leader Richard Land, and others in its seedy campaign to foster a globalist religion devoid of any New Testament spirituality. ¹

Pastor Rick Warren's "Purpose Driven Movement" is borrowed right out of the pages of Lucis Trust and New Age organizing manuals and textbooks, and is designed to totally rip the heart out of true Biblical Christianity. The whole planet is now being groomed for a diverse, new faith, based on the sacredness of all religions, the despoiling of Christianity, individual greed, environmental insanity, and sensual partying and celebration.

Babylonian hedonism and sodomy are going to be enthroned in a diabolical orgy of religious ecstasy, all orchestrated by the Illuminati. ²

Christian leaders have changed their goals. No longer is the mission to spiritually save souls and reach people for Christ. Our pastors will only realize their spiritual blindness concerning these new mystics when they find their churches empty and their bank accounts dead. Most of those that don't do God's will claim to be Christians. What good are they, do they belong to God? ³

“Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven,” (Matt.7:21).

There is no middle ground and there will be no large group of lukewarm professors of Christ in Heaven who blasphemed his name by their open and willful rebellion. No, their fate will be with the unbelievers, the rapists, the child molesters and the worshipers of devils. ⁴

GODS OF THIS WORLD AND RICK WARREN

Many Christians refuse to try to understand the eternal struggle between cosmic good and evil, darkness and light that has progressed throughout the ages. “Can’t we all just get along, I’m so tired of the divisions, splits and the bickering; the Lord wants us to be in unity.”⁵

Jesus said,

“Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. 36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household,” (Matt 10:34-36).

Other words, Jesus came to separate us from the evil powers of the Satanic world and his wicked followers.

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. 45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.” (Jn. 8:44-45).

It is Satan’s plan to join all the faiths of the world to unify to their gods teaching all pathways lead to God. We must be prepared to explain why we are not encouraged to follow every wind and doctrine; or follow men and women who preach another worldly Jesus who moves by another spirit called Kundalini.

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me,” (Jn. 14:6).

SATAN'S KINGDOM IS ORGANIZED

Obviously Satan's counter-kingdom is organized: “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places,” (Eph. 6:12).

Many American preachers no longer speak about Hell or Satan; the Jesus of the Bible because they are presenting a new religion that has been devised through these false prophets that will steal the souls of many Christians before Jesus returns.

“For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him,” (II Cor. 11:4).

Who is Lucifer, the New Age God? The word Satan occurs 56 times and “devil” appears 61 times in the Bible and we find Lucifer a Latin word for “morning star”, lucifer, as a proper name (“Lucifer”) who became known as Satan (the adversary) after his fall in Isaiah 14: 12, “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! 13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. 15 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.”⁶

Rick Joyner named his ministry “Morning Star” and the bird like logo looks to me like a vulture.

PREACHERS IGNORE SATAN

Why would preachers ignore such serious topic so prevalent in the Bible; to refuse to acknowledge the full counsel of the Holy Writ and spiritually criminal as souls are at stake?

Ignoring the enemy is simply not biblical and has caused the greatest devastation of human souls in history. It is not wise to ignore Satan and his powers of deception and God warns us “not to be ignorant of his devices “... know our enemy “who walketh about seeking (aggressively) whom he may devour,” (II Cor.2:11).

The great stealer of souls has power, characteristics/devices shown from Genesis to Revelation. He is a supernatural being that has been given many names; but remains forevermore our arch enemy. Yet, preachers chose to keep him hidden from view from their congregations; thus giving him overwhelming power over their minds to guide them to eternal destruction!⁷

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, and seeking whom he may devour: Who resist steadfast in the faith," (I Pet. 5: 8, 9.)

<http://amzn.to/ZWImJF>

"Resist the devil and he will flee from you," (Jam. 4: 7).

We are warned there would in fact be falsely anointed people who claim, by virtue of accompanying signs and wonders as verification, to speak and work for the Living God. The Christian Church is filled with wheat and tares. We are supposed to be spiritually aware of those who work among us; test the spirits to see if they be of God.⁸

"And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works," (II Cor. 11:14-15).

FLEE FROM FALSE TEACHERS

"Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world," (1 Jn. 4:1).

"And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple. 2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, there shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down. 3 And as he sat upon the Mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying; tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? 4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. 5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places,” (Matt. 24: 1-7).

“But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. “And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 4 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; 5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; 6 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; 7 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked: 8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) 9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: 10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. 11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. 12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; 13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; 14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: 15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. 17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. 18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. 20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. 21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. 22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, the dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire,” (II Pet. 2: 2-22).

There are many Christian Church systems following after false ministers, movements, and some the occult instead of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

OLD GODS AND GODDESSES

English: This is an engraving of Pandora trying to close the box that she had opened out of curiosity. At left, the evils of the world taunt her as they escape. The engraving is based on a painting by F.S. Church. In Greek...mythology, the character Pandora had a large box. It contained all the troubles of the world. When she opened the box, she let all the troubles come into the world except one - hope. The Greeks thought that hope was also very dangerous. But without hope, people were filled with despair. Finally Pandora opened the box again and let out hope as well.

There is an incredible occult invasion of pagan gods entering the Christian Church. At the same time, modern false movements and ministries are twisting the truth of the Bible.

PANDORA was the very first woman formed out of clay by the gods. The Titan Prometheus was originally assigned the task of creating man. But, because he was displeased with their lot, he stole fire from heaven. Zeus was angered, and commanded Hephaistos and the other gods to create a woman, Pandora, and endow her with beauty and cunning. He then delivered her to Epimetheus, the foolish younger brother of Prometheus, to be a bride. When he had received her into his house, Pandora opened the pithos (storage jar) which Zeus had given her as a wedding present, and released the swarm of evil spirits trapped therein. They would ever afterwards plague mankind. ⁹

Only Elpis (Hope) remained behind, a single blessing to succor humankind in their suffering. Pandora's daughter Pyrrha (Fire) was the first-born mortal child. She and her husband

Deukalion alone survived the Great Deluge. To repopulate the earth they each cast stones over their shoulder. Those cast by Deukalion formed men, and those of Pyrrha women.

The effect of the words, especially in Ephesians chapter 6, suggests a ranking of power and authority, like that of an army. Satan himself is called “the prince of the power of the air,” (Eph. 2:1-2).

Dr. Murphy provides this theological perspective: Jesus reveals that Satan directs a forceful mighty kingdom of evil. He has his own evil angels, just as God has His holy angels (Matt. 25: 41).¹⁰

Idols, fallen angels, witchcraft, star worship, worldly materialism, another gospel, another Jesus, by a different spirit; ancient gods and goddesses are being worshipped in many Christian churches today.

“Thou shalt have no other gods before me. 4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: 5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor ...” (Exo,20: 3-5).

Next we discover that these gods, goddesses and angels are the same as the demons spirits who bind and oppress men (Matt. 12:22-29; Lk. 13:10-16; Rev. 12:4-17; 13:1).

Obviously, Satan’s counter-kingdom is organized.

Many American preachers no longer speak about Hell or Satan; and who is Lucifer, a New Age God? The word Satan occurs 56 times and “devil” appears 61 times in the Bible. Why would preachers ignore such a serious topic so prevalent in the Bible? Why refuse to acknowledge the full counsel of the Holy Writ? What about the book of Acts? Such actions are spiritually criminal considering human souls are at stake.

Pick-and-choose ministers excluding vital scriptures are truly enemies of human souls with regard to God’s Word.

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works” (II Tim 3:16-17).

Ignoring the enemy is simply not biblical and has caused the greatest devastation of human souls in history. It is not wise to ignore Satan and his powers of deception and God warns us “not to be ignorant of his devices.

“[K]now our enemy “who walketh about seeking (aggressively) whom he may devour,” (II Cor. 2:11); The great stealer of souls has power, his characteristics/devices are shown from Genesis to Revelation. He is a supernatural being that has been given many names; but remains forevermore our archenemy. Yet, preachers chose to keep him hidden from view in their congregations; thus giving him overwhelming power over minds to guide them into eternal destruction!

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist steadfast in the faith," (I Pet. 5: 8-9).

"Resist the devil and he will flee from you," (Jam. 4: 7).

GREAT FALLING AWAY

Tell me, are you following a deceitful agent of Hell who is taking care of your soul in order to take it to hell as a sacrificial blood offering to his/her god, Lucifer?

The Lord reveals the Laodicean Church shown in the book of Revelation; they thought they were doing well and were super spiritual. After all, they were rich and faithfully attending church. So naturally, God must be blessing them. The wealthy mostly dress well and talk about their possessions to impress people; focusing upon outward appearances and worldliness. On the contrary, they did not seem to be aware of their soul condition: Lukewarm, not hot for Jesus; blind and unable to see. The Lord asked if they would buy from Him gold refined in the fire (by their suffering), white garments (robes of salvation), and eye salve, so they could see their inward condition.

Today many Christians see their success and prosperity as God's blessing; the Laodicean Church is again lukewarm; the Lord is warning you that you are either cold or hot. You must decide to return to the basics of the Bible, and make up your minds. Are you standing for nothing and good for nothing? Are you trying to live in two worlds: Both the Kingdom of God and the kingdom of the world?

Spiritually, the Laodiceans could have been either all for God or not at all, but they were in between. If they were hot, they would have been approved. If they were cold, God could have changed them. However, they were in the middle and He was unable to do anything. This is the worst place to be, to be part of a church, doing church things, thinking you are a Christian, when in fact you are not.

The Laodiceans had just enough religiosity to get by and think they were fine. They were also naked. In the time of Jesus all soldiers would sleep in their clothes. They did not take them off so they would be ready for battle. We are to be clothed in white garments, the righteousness of Christ. Jesus was saying they did not have his righteousness, so in fact they were naked. Yet even this church is not hopeless; Jesus can come into the individual if He is invited, “As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore, be zealous and repent,” (v.19).

This is the only Church He is outside of and He offers to come to the individual in the Church. He does not offer to come to the collective Church, because the whole Church is removed from the truth of functioning in the word of God. This does not mean they abandon Gods word or name but only use portions of it that suit them, or change its meaning.

The Church today is also sitting in this same fallen condition and many have left the foundations of the Gospel. They are seeking things and emotional experiences instead of wisdom and knowledge of the Word of God and Jesus. Seductions are great and worldwide. Many have lost their first love. Christians use to get excited about Jesus Christ but now they cheer when greedy preachers pick their pockets as men and women of God. We must return to the basics of the Word of God if we intend to make it into the kingdom of God.

"Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and in which you stand. By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless you have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scripture," (I Cor. 15:1-4).

RICK WARREN- MASTER ILLUMINIST

America has a full hunger for doubt and people following strange gods and strange fire.

WASHINGTON – Joe Farah, World Net Daily, November 20, 2006, stated, "Mega pastor Rick Warren's Damascus Road experience: Warren admits he is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR)".

Rick Warren, the superstar mega-church pastor and bestselling author of "The Purpose Driven Life," had a Damascus Road experience last week – and like Saul of Tarsus, one of the after-effects appears to be blindness. ¹¹

Warren went to Syria and could find no persecution of Christians. He could find no persecution of Jews. He could find no evidence of extremism. He could find no evidence of the sponsorship of terrorism.

“Despite the temporary loss of vision that prevented him from seeing any evil in the totalitarian police state, Warren's hearing was apparently not affected – for his ears were tickled by what he heard and apparently accepted lock, stock and barrel from the second-generation dictator, Bashar Assad”

Warren admits that.... Warren explained that he had also counseled with the National Security Council and the White House, as well as the State Department, before his little courtesy call for a neighbor.

"In fact," Warren added, "as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and Oxford Analytica, I might know as much about the Middle East as you." ¹²

WOW! Warren admits that he's more than a Christian preacher.... AS A MEMBER OF THE COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS AND OXFORD ANALYTICA; Let us review the way Rick Warren -- founder, "Purpose Driven Church" -- bragged to Joe Farah of World Net Daily, that he (Warren) surely knew more about Middle Eastern affairs than did "poor Joe".

NEWS BRIEF

"And lastly I suggested that he should have 'counseled with me, or other people knowledgeable about the Middle East before doing so much damage with your reckless trip'. I really didn't expect to hear back from Warren – but, a few minutes later, I did, with an absolutely stunning retort. He let me know he is a close friend of President Bush 'and many, if not most, of the generals at the Pentagon' ... Warren explained that he had also counseled with the National Security Council and the White House, as well as the State Department, before his little courtesy call for a neighbor. In fact, Warren added, “as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and Oxford Analytica, I might know as much about the Middle East as you’.”¹³

"Oxford Analytica is a consulting firm founded by David Young, an American who worked on the National Security Staff under Dr. Henry Kissinger."

What a revelation! Rick Warren is a member of an international organization with connections to Henry Kissinger, undoubtedly one of the most influential Illuminists alive today.

"It is notable primarily in the context of proving the value of open source intelligence ... The company has access to a network of over a thousand academics at the University of Oxford, England. However, despite its name it has no formal connection to Oxford University, and works using a small core staff and an extended network of part-time academics."

Notice the truly heavyweight Illuminist names in this next segment: Information taken from article by Berit Kjos, "Purpose-Driven Deception on a Global Scale", November 23, 2006.) “Oxford Analytica "fits right into its agenda! Many of the same power brokers that steer the CFR are also guiding the Oxford Analytica". Its founder, David R. Young, provides background information:”

"...I joined the National Security Council staff as Kissinger's Administrative Assistant in late 1969. During the next four years in the White House - until 1973 - I observed among other things how Kissinger made ample use of his own personal network of friends around the world. I could not avoid a very simple idea, namely: 'what a reservoir of talent: there must be a way of harnessing it, and becoming a bridge for it to reach the business and government worlds outside.' At the center of this vision was the conviction that people in authority - the world over - would more often than not make better decisions if they were to regularly receive the benefit of totally dispassionate and detached analyses on the significance and implications of world events....”

"...with the help and encouragement of my old mentor at the Rockefellers, J. Richardson Dilworth, I tried the idea on David Rockefeller, then Chairman of Chase Manhattan Bank; Walter Wriston, then head of Citibank... Robert Engle, then Treasurer of J.P. Morgan; and Sir Siegmund Warburg.... All of them felt the idea was sound and worth pursuing."

Warren's "global ambitions and magnetic leadership skills would serve them well, and Warren knows it."Billions of people suffer each day from problems so big no government can solve them," Warren told the cheering crowd at Los Angeles' Angel Stadium back in 2005. "The only thing big enough to solve the problems of spiritual emptiness, selfish leadership, poverty, disease, and ignorance is the network of millions of churches all around the world." (Mark Kelly, "P.E.A.C.E. Plan: A Worldwide Revolution, Warren Tells Angel Stadium Crowd,"

Now you know the truth about Rick Warren and his "Purpose-Driven Church". If you are a member of this church, you must leave now, for the Holy Spirit has caused the truth to come out -- and it is an ugly truth, indeed. Cutting Edge author, Mac Dominick, discovered that the source of funds for Rick Warren's movement was Illuminist banker, Peter Drucker. ("Now, we hear Rick Warren himself declare that he is a master Illuminist - a member of the CFR and Oxford Analytica.

WHAT IS THE CFR?

Master Illuminist Rick Warren is pastor of Saddleback Church in California; writer of “The Purpose Driven” ® Church and the Purpose Driven ® Life series of bestselling books. With The Purpose Driven® Church Warren targeted pastors and church leaders; now with the release of The Purpose Driven® Life, he turns his attention to laypeople. Since its release in 2002, literally thousands of churches have either used or are using this book in a campaign called ‘40 Days of Purpose’.

The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) is an American nonprofit and bipartisan membership organization dedicated to improving the understanding of U.S. foreign policy and international affairs. WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

Oxford Analytica is an international consulting firm providing strategic analysis of world events. There you have it! A WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING working for DAVID ROCKEFELLER! Follow this suspicious character and you may end-up frying in Hell. (more on Rick Warren later).¹⁵

SECRET DISBELIEF

Strange fires of doubt, unbelief and eastern religious Kundalini devils are raging throughout the World, and are carried by false brothers who are sitting in powerful high places.

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God,” (II Thess. 2:3-4).

Dennett and LaScola undertook their project with the goal of looking for unbelieving pastors and ministers who continue to serve their churches in "secret disbelief." Their "small and self-selected" sample of ministers represents a microcosm of the theological collapse at the heart of many churches and denominations. In their report, Dennett and LaScola present case studies of five unbelieving ministers, three from liberal denominations ("the liberals") and two from conservative denominations ("the literals").¹⁶

Wes, a Methodist, lost his confidence in the Bible while attending a liberal Christian college and seminary. "I went to college thinking Adam and Eve were real people," he explained. Now, he no longer believes that God exists. In his rendering, God is a word that "can be used very expressively in some of my more meditative modes" and "a kind of poetry that is written by human beings."

His church members do not know that he is an atheist, but he explains that they are somewhat liberal themselves. His ministerial colleagues are even more liberal: "They've been de-mythologized, I'll say that. They don't believe Jesus rose from the dead literally. They don't believe Jesus was born of a virgin. They don't believe all those things that would cause a big stir in their churches."

Rick, a campus minister for the United Church of Christ, perhaps the most liberal Protestant denomination, was an agnostic in college and seems to have lost all belief by the time he graduated from seminary. He chose ordination in the UCC because it required "no forced doctrine."

Even as he graduated from seminary, he knew, "I'm not going to make it in a conventional church." He knew he could not go into a church and teach his own theological views, based on Paul Tillich and Rudolf Bultmann. He did not believe in the doctrinal content of the Christian faith from the beginning of his ministry. "I did not believe the traditional things even then."

He does not believe "all this creedal stuff" about the incarnation of Christ or the need for salvation, but he remained in the ministry because, "These are my people, this is the context in which I work, these are the people that I know." In the pulpit, his mode is to talk as if he does believe, because "as long as ... you are talking about God and Jesus and the Bible, that's what they want to hear. You're just phrasing it in a way that makes sense to [them] ... but language is ambiguous and can be heard in different ways.

He doesn't like to call himself an atheist, but: "If not believing in a supernatural, theistic god is what distinguishes an atheist, and then I am one too."

See "False Pastor, Darryl" confession of his true motive of preaching to Christians. Darryl is a Presbyterian who sees himself as a "progressive-minded" pastor who wants to see his kind of "non-doctrinal Christianity" given validity in some way." He acknowledges that he is more a "pantheist than a theist," (all pathways lead to God) and thinks that many of the more educated members of his church hold to the same liberal beliefs as his own. And those beliefs (or unbelief's) are stated clearly: "I reject the virgin birth. I reject substitutionary atonement. I reject the divinity of Jesus. I reject heaven and hell in the traditional sense, and I am not alone."

Amazingly, Darryl is candid about the fact that he remains in the ministry largely for financial reasons. It is how he provides for his family. If he openly espoused his beliefs, "I may be burning bridges in terms of my ability to earn a living this way."

Adam ministers in the Church of Christ, a conservative denomination. After years in the ministry, he began to lose all theological confidence. After reading a series of books, he became convinced that the atheists have better arguments than believers. He has moved fully into an atheist mode, yet he continues to lead his church in worship. How? "Here's how I'm handling my job on Sunday mornings: I see it as play acting. I see myself as taking on the role of a believer in a worship service, and performing."

This "atheistic agnostic" stays in the ministry because he likes the people and, "I need the job still." If he had an alternative source of income, he would take it. He feels hypocritical, but no longer believes that hypocrisy is wrong.

John is identified as a Southern Baptist minister who has primarily served as a worship leader. He was attracted to Christianity as a religion of love, but his pursuit of Christianity "brought me to the point of not believing in God." As he explains, "I didn't plan to become an atheist. I didn't even want to become an atheist. It's just I had no choice; if I'm being honest with myself."

He is clearly not being honest with his church members. He rejects all belief in God and all Christian truth claims out of hand. He is a determined atheist. Once again, this unbelieving minister admits that he stays in the ministry because of finances. Amazingly, this minister even names his price: "If someone said, 'Here's $200,000,' I'd be turning my notice in this week, saying, 'A month from now is my last Sunday.' Because then I can pay off everything."¹⁷

THE SEEKER FRIENDLY CHURCH MODEL

Pastors all want to be a mega church and if they have to leave Jesus outside their buildings, SO BE IT!

Willow Creek & Psycho-heresy

Pastor, if you have the smallest church in town and obedient to Jesus, you are a success.

“No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day,” (Jn. 6:44).

Pastor Bill Hybels, of the seeker-sensitive Willow Creek Community Church has embraced the emotionalism, self-enhancing subjectivity, popular vocabulary, and self-seeking goals of psychotherapy and the recovery movement, along with their underlying psychologies. Rather than looking only to the Lord and His Word, leaders at Willow Creek have been looking elsewhere. In addition to using the sales and management methods of the world, they have incorporated the world's methods of helping people deal with emotional pain and tragedy. They evidently believe secular psychological ideas to be so significant and essential for modern seekers that they give them Christ plus psychology — a syncretism that adapts and even perverts Christ and His Gospel.¹⁸

In his book “Prophetic Untimeliness: A Challenge to the Idol of Relevance, of Guinness” identifies the following "four steps to end disastrously in unfaithfulness and irrelevance".

Something modern is assumed (step one). As a consequence, something traditional is abandoned (step two), and everything else is adapted (step three). The outcome is that what remains is not only adapted but absorbed by the modern assumptions. It is assimilated without any decisive remainder. The result is worldliness, or Christian capitulation to some aspect of the culture of its day.

When psychotherapy and its underlying psychologies are assimilated with the Gospel and with the Bible, the Gospel and the meaning of various Bible texts are adapted and altered so that they no longer mean what they meant even 50 years ago. The Bible is God's unchanging Word, but when it is assimilated with notions from a psychologized culture, the result is no longer what God said or meant. Woe to those who assimilate to the point of not having "any decisive remainder" of the true Word of God in meaning or understanding.

Again speaking of this Illuminati Traitor, Rick Warren is the pastor of Saddleback Church in California, and the writer of The Purpose Driven® Church and The Purpose Driven ® Life series of bestselling books. With The Purpose Driven® Church Rick Warren targeted pastors and church leaders, now with the release of The Purpose Driven® Life; he turns his attention to laypeople. Since its release in 2002, literally thousands of churches have either used or are using this book in a campaign called '40 Days of Purpose'.

Rick Warren is now known as the "The World's Pastor" replacing the ageing Billy Graham; and due to Fox News and his star member of his church, Rupert Murdoch.

Any error should be exposed by the light of scripture; Rick Warren does a lot of what bible scholars call 'proof texting', that means he often takes scripture out of context to back up his point or to sound persuasive.

In appendix 3 at the rear of the book, Rick Warren explains his use of fifteen different translations. He states 'no matter how wonderful a translation is, it has its limitation'. This may be true, but to use fifteen different translations, many of them paraphrases and free translations is not good scholarship practice. It can be helpful to read verses in many different versions, but when using paraphrases and free translations, the original meaning of the text can be lost.

REJECTION OF TRADITION

It's a depressing statistic. A majority of Western churches do not see a single addition through conversion in a typical year. In an effort to turn things around, many are rejecting traditional methods of evangelism and adopting a new 'church growth' model. Market research has convinced them that unbelievers stay away from church not because they reject Christ, but because they reject the church's boring presentation of Christ. There's no need to change the product – just the packaging – and the crowds will come flocking back.¹⁹

The new packaging is all about replacement. A 'stage' with a moveable Perspex lectern replaces the old wooden pulpit. PowerPoint graphics replace the hymn books. A rock band replaces the organ. A casually dressed and jovial audience replaces the reverent congregation. A charming minister in a t-shirt and jeans replaces the suited 'preacher'. Fun replaces holiness as the tone of the service. Loud music, side-splitting drama, multimedia presentations and a humorous 'talk' replace hymn singing and preaching. But, we're confidently assured, the message remains the same. (Lies- messages are not the same, Jesus of the Bible is left out and all pathways lead to God.)

Judging by numbers alone the new model has certainly proved a success. Prominent 'church growth' pastors like Robert Schuller (Crystal Cathedral, LA), Rick Warren (Saddleback Church, California), Bill Hybels (Willow Creek Church, Chicago) and Joel Osteen (Lakewood Church, Houston) attract thousands to their churches each Sunday. Though a majority of this 'growth' occurs by transfer rather than 'conversion', multitudes of other churches have adopted this model and have seen their congregations' rocket numerically. Small wonder anyone questioning the movement is cautioned, "Never criticize what God is blessing."¹ The reality is that truth never stood a chance against success.²⁰

How widespread is this new phenomenon? Consider this fact; more than 400,000 pastors from 162 countries alone have been trained under Rick Warren's church growth seminar material alone. (Warren calls his philosophy a "stealth movement flying beneath the radar that's changing literally thousands of churches around the world"). His book The Purpose Driven Church, which espouses this new philosophy, has sold over 1 million copies in 20 languages and is a standard textbook in hundreds of Bible Colleges. Yet despite the incredible popularity of Rick Warren and others like him, there are numerous problems with the church growth movement, starting with its history.

The father of the church growth movement was the relatively unknown missionary Donald McGavran, whose writings had a 'dramatic impact' on Rick Warren. The day in 1974 when Warren first read an article on church growth by McGavran was the day he decided to "invest the rest of his life" discovering the principles of 'church growth'. McGavran's best known student and successor at the Fuller School of World Mission in California was C. Peter Wagner, a founding member of the Lausanne Committee on World Evangelization. Wagner, a close friend of the late John Wimber (Vineyard), calls himself an apostle and is one of the world's leading promoters of charismatic 'signs and wonders'. From Fuller Seminary the church growth philosophy spread worldwide.²¹

Warren uses mind control programs in his materials.

RICK WARREN AND NEW AGE TEACHERS

Rick Warren and Peter Drucker

On May 23, 2005 Rick Warren was a guest speaker at the Pew and Religion Forum, where he said "Peter Drucker, he's my mentor. I've spent 20 years under his tutelage learning about leadership from him."
RW

And "I read everything Peter Drucker writes. His book "The Effective Executive" is a favorite I re-read every year. Long before words like "empowerment" became popular, Peter was telling us that the secret of achieving results is to focus on your strengths, and the strengths of those you work with, rather than focusing on weaknesses. In fact, Peter says, making strengths productive is the unique purpose of organization.

"... Find out what others do well and help them to be able to do more of it. This is the key to effective businesses, effective churches, and every other effective organization. Great organizations position people for success rather than trying to eliminate all their weaknesses. It's far easier to manage weaknesses than to eliminate all of them.”

The Drucker-Warren relationship may surprise many readers, but it goes back two decades, to when the young minister came to Drucker for advice. Under Drucker's tutelage, Warren's own success as a spiritual entrepreneur has been considerable. Saddleback has grown to 15,000 members and has helped start another 60 churches throughout the world. Warren's 2001 book, “The Purpose-Driven Life”, is this decade's best seller with 19.5 million copies sold so far and compiling at the rate of 500,000 per month.”

Although Drucker is supposed to be a ‘religious man’, he is well known in the business world for Management techniques and business innovation... He has written 35 books in all: 15 books deal with management, including the landmark books The Practice of Management and The Effective Executive; 16 cover society, economics, and politics; 2 are novels; and 1 is a collection of autobiographical essays. His most recent book, Managing in the Next Society, was published in fall 2002.

Drucker advised Warren on the challenges of ministry and church building. This consultation is one Drucker and Warren have engaged in twice yearly for two decades”.

Drucker stares, “Successful leaders don't start out asking, "What do I want to do?" They ask, "What needs to be done?" Then they ask, "Of those things that would make a difference, which are right for me?" (Sound familiar?).

Drucker's concepts of man, society and church were ‘lab-tested’ by pioneers of the mega-church movement. Mr. Drucker is now recognized as the grandfather of the ‘mega-church’ movement.

HEAD OF THE THIRD WAVE MOVEMENT

C. Peter Wagner, NAR, recently retired, calls himself the head “Apostle” of the Third Wave Movement. He appointed “his son,” Chuck Pierce to head the ministry.

According to Wikipedia, Kingdom Now theology (which the NAR ascribes to) believe that God lost control over the world to Satan when Adam and Eve sinned. Since then, the theology asserts; God has been trying to reestablish control over the world by seeking a “special” group of believers. Through these people, known as "covenant people," "over comers" or "Joel's army," depending on the source — social institutions (including governments and laws) would be brought under God's authority. These "covenant people" or "over comers" are "little gods" — God's "extension" in the world to regain authority from the devil. The church, under the leadership of "restored" apostles and prophets, therefore must take over the world and put down all opposition to it before Christ can return; anyone who rebels against the church, along with other "evildoers," must convert or be punished.²²

No one is more central to this global takeover of the Church than C. Peter Wagner. It might frighten you to know that through Wagner’s World Prayer Center (WPC) he is tracking thousands of ministries and churches. (Government Agent), I wonder? Also, Wagner’s group opens Star Gates and wormholes to allow demons to come through the veil.

"We see our task as getting people in touch with one another to form interactive, human web networks that are properly equipped to wage effective spiritual warfare. The WPC is a fully equipped nerve center with data and information about prayer needs throughout the world [which] ... networks prayer ministries, denominations, churches and cell groups.²³

Why is this groundwork being laid for a global network? According to its leadership pave the way for the Apostolic Reformation in which apostles take control of the Church and usher in the New Order Church they call the kingdom of God.”

I don't think anyone has put it more succinctly than Sandy Simpson in his forward to his article, The Agenda & Teaching of the New Apostolic Reformation. Simpson states that, “This agenda (the apostolic and prophetic reformation) runs through thousands of agencies and web sites. It is what is driving the Transformations movement, the global prayer movement, and thousands of other churches and organizations. What Christians need to realize is that they need to make a choice now. A majority of Christian churches have already succumbed to this Dominionist agenda foisted on the churches by false apostles driven by false prophecies from false prophets. Wagner is talking about the government of the church, (sic) under the leadership of the new foundational restored "apostles", OVERTHROWING the governments of the world.”²⁴

Recently someone sent me a DVD of one of these apostolic conferences called, 2008, Starting the Year off Right. Dutch Sheets spoke shamelessly about their (NAR) plans to take over. He showed a dotted map of the United States with hundreds of large and smaller dots spaced evenly across the country. He explained that the larger dots showed the apostolic hubs: the teaching and training centers they had already implemented. The smaller dots showed the individual apostles put in place. Underneath the apostles, he explained, would be the individual churches that would be a local expression of the global church. He stressed that we were no longer to think in terms of our local church but in terms of the Kingdom (buzz word for the coming One World Church). It might alarm you that they have deemed 2008 as the year of the “great shift.”

John Eckhardt, one of Wagner's “Apostle” leaders, had this to say in his book, Moving in the Apostolic “The war between the Pastor and the Prophet will cease with the full emergence of the Apostle.... Are we going to be willing to submit our ministry to a specific Apostolic visionary? This is a critical question that will determine our influence on hastening the coming of the Lord, in our effective contribution to the restoring of all things spoken by the prophets”

Let me state emphatically that God does not need us to hasten his coming. That the God of the universe would somehow be impotent and unable to return to earth until WE overthrow the kingdoms of this world is not only heretical but utterly ludicrous.

Rick Joyner, President of Morningstar Ministry in his book “The Harvest” had this to say about the emerging government of the Apostles. “It was said of the Apostle Paul that he was turning the world upside down; it will be said of the apostles soon to be anointed that they have turned an upside down world right side up”. Nations will tremble at the mention of their name.

According to Joyner these reigning apostles will actually make all things right; they will bring order out of Chaos. Interestingly enough, this is the same mantra as the New Agers and those pushing for a New World Order. Joyner goes further in saying that the nations will tremble at their name? If these apostles are going to make all things right and bring order, healing, salvation, and the love of Christ to the whole earth, then why would the nations tremble? They will tremble because they plan to kill those who do not go along with their governance.

WOW! Did you read that? They plan to kill those who do not go along..... WOW AGAIN ... And this is coming from a well-known, respected SO-CALLED CHRISTIAN LEADER!

If your only basis by which to judge whether a person or ministry is from God are signs and wonders then sadly enough you are already deceived.

WHAT THE HERETICS BELIEVE REALLY BELIEVE

Below are some of the teachings and beliefs of these self-styled apostles that are followers of the Third Wave Movement.

- They believe that God is restoring the office of prophet and apostles to the church that will rule the Christian Church and the entire secular world.
- Claim that they alone have the power and authority to execute the plans and purposes of God.
- Believe they are building a new foundation for a global church.
- Believe they will literally establish the Kingdom of Heaven on earth.
- Believe in a coming “civil war” in the church where they will overcome all (true Christian) opposition and any of the old established order will either submit to their rule or will be killed.
- They place an inordinate emphasis on angels and the paranormal knowledge.
- They claim extra biblical revelations that cannot be scripturally proven (progressive revelation).
- Claim that God is doing a “new thing”. I must say it is a thing alright... However, their “new thing” is not being motivated by God, the Father of Jesus.
- Frequently they say that those not accepting their heretical teaching are “Putting God in a box”.
- They teach that we should never question their authority even if it disagrees with the Bible.
- They use the term “Touch not God’s anointed” frequently when scriptural questions are raised.
- They peg those that question their authority as bound by outdated religion, legalistic, divisive, narrow-minded, rebellious, and demonic. They even perform deliverance sessions to deliver you from the antiquated church and old-fashioned Bible beliefs.
- They will place a greater emphasis on paranormal dreams, visions and extra-biblical revelations than they do on the Word of God.
- They believe they are the corporate manifestation of Christ.
- They believe they will execute judgment upon those who oppose them (up to and including death). They will bring about this power of bringing death to their enemies through using the powers of casting spells and pronouncing curses up the Believers that refuse to follow them.

- They believe in a one world religion operating in sync with a one world government that they believe they are building.
- They believe in complete unity and think that there is nothing they can not accomplish through this unity.
- They believe they can bring Heaven down to earth.
- They believe in aggressively organizing small group networks.
- They believe in the organization of apostles under pre-eminent apostles.
- They believe that ALL local churches must be under the authority of a regional or trans-local apostle.
- They believe each city must have an apostle - men given extraordinary authority in spiritual matters over the other Christian leaders in the same city.
- They consider themselves divine, little gods and equal to Christ (although they loosely veil this).
- They believe they will attain perfection on earth.
- They consider themselves the “defenders of the faith”.
- Place a great deal of emphasis on mysticism and hidden knowledge (Gnosis) and the use of magical powers.
- Do not believe in the rapture of the Bride of Jesus Christ, (only believe the wicked are the ones that will be raptured). They think that they are the manifested Bride on earth.
- They stress unity over doctrine and reject the literal interpretation of the Bible.

Millions are following a New Age god that they are worshiping called Lucifer while the many pastors and Church members losing respect and witness of the true gospel of Jesus Christ and His Word. According to the Bible, Satan is real and also a designated by God to capture the world ruling it during Seven Years of Tribulation. However, he is not God and you must be aware of his devices.

“And then shall that Wicked (the Antichrist) be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: 9 Even him, whose coming [the coming of the lawless one, the Antichrist] is after the working of Satan with [paranormal – witchcraft] all power and signs and lying wonders, 10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: 12 that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness” (1I Thess. 2:8-12).

MASTER DJWHAL KHUL

Ezekiel 28 tells us that, as first created by God; Lucifer was a beautiful creature before his fall. Master Djwhal (the spirit guide to New Age Prophetess Alice Bailey) said through Bailey, "when the Great One appears (Antichrist), he will take the Mysteries religion preserved by Freemasonry and make them public." The highest degree in freemasonry, 33rd degree, brings one to the illuminated realization that Lucifer is actually god. According to Masonry, Lucifer is the one who brings true light and Adonai, the God of the bible, is not the true or only God. The New Age has a ‘Plan’ to bring the Antichrist to the throne to rule the world.

Unfortunately for the people of the world everything is going according to the New World Order Plan. But what is this New World Order Plan? In a nutshell the Plan is this. The Dark Agenda of the secret planners of the New World Order is to reduce the world's population to a "sustainable" level "in perpetual balance with nature" by a ruthless Population Control Agenda via Population and Reproduction Control. A Mass Culling of the People via Planned Parenthood, toxic adulteration of water and food supplies, release of weaponries man-made viruses, man-made pandemics, mass vaccination campaigns and a planned Third World War. Then, the Dark Agenda will impose upon the drastically reduced world population a global feudal-fascist state with a World Government, World Religion, World Army, World Central Bank, World Currency and a micro-chipped population. In short, to kill 90% of the world's population and to control all aspects of the human condition and thus rule everyone, everywhere from the cradle to the grave.²⁵

Witchcraft and cultism has become the new foundation of America; it used to be God and the Constitution. Today it is false religions and despotism. We have seen the occupants of the White House talk to departed spirits (necromancy), practice idolatry and use astrology. How can anyone think that this is a Christian nation? Believe me, when Africans come to America, they are shocked because they see on our coins, "In God We Trust" and then they are mostly shocked that the Word is not being preached and the Churches are not alive. Unfortunately, we are in the great falling away and the Church isn't alive, at least not anymore. America is a land full of rebellion; it is the land of Ichabod and it's all happening in front of our eyes but most eyes can't see!

LIGHT BEARER LUCIFER

Lucifer is a Latin word, literally meaning "light-bearer", which in that language is used as a name for the dawn appearance of the planet Venus, heralding daylight. Use of the word in this sense is uncommon in English, in which "Day Star" or "Morning Star" are more common expressions.

In English, "Lucifer" generally refers to Satan, although the name is not applied to him in the New Testament. The use of the name "Lucifer" in reference to a fallen angel stems from an interpretation of Isaiah 14:3-20, a passage that speaks of a particular Babylonian King, to whom it gives the title of "Day Star", "Morning Star" (in Latin, lucifer),^[2] as fallen or destined to fall from the heavens or sky.^[3] In 2 Peter 1:19 and elsewhere, the same Latin word Lucifer is used to refer to the Morning Star, with no relation to the devil. However, in post-New Testament times the Latin word Lucifer has often been used as a name for the devil,

“And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end...” (Mk. 3:26).

SATAN STANDS BEFORE JUDGMENT SEAT

It is Satan's intention to destroy the world and victoriously ascend to the throne of God. These scriptures show that he will destroy cities and make the earth tremble. He will shake kingdoms, open up his gates, and take men and women as his prisoners. It also reveals that at the end, at the Judgment Seat of Jesus, people will look upon the god they chose to follow and ask incredulously, saying "Is this the man . . .?" (See Isa.14:16).

“How are thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit. They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners? All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, everyone in his own house” (Is. 14:12-18).

Yes, when the people of the world see Satan standing at the Judgment Throne of Jesus, they will see his true spiritual status and in comparison, he will look like a small defeated creature that could hardly possess the power to do the great devastation he caused on the earth. Well, the truth is, Satan never had the power to destroy the lives of people, or steal their souls, cities, and the world. It was never his to take; they, exactly like Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden to give it to him through sin. EVERY HUMAN HAD TO GIVE HIM THEIR INHERITED POWER that God gave to them. Satan can do absolutely nothing unless acquiesced by humans' power to him. Through rebellion and witchcraft, the people freely exchanged their power with Satan for his rewards: Mere trinkets by comparison. Satan never won; the people lost!

“And this is the condemnation, that the Light has come into the world; and men loved darkness rather than the Light; because their deeds were evil,” (Jn. 3:19-20).

“For everyone who does evil hates the Light; and does not come to the Light; lest his deeds should be exposed,” (Jn. 3:20).
