ABOMINATIONS

Humanity is in a deep crisis while American leaders seek after other gods!

“Wherefore should the heathen say, where is now their God? 3 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased. 4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men’s hands. 5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not: 6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not: 7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat. They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them,” (Ps. 115:2-8).

They that make them are like unto them; so is everyone that trusteth in them. They that make them are like unto them. (Deut. 7:25-26), first laid down this great principle, “Thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them (the idols) . . . Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it.” No people or individuals rise in character higher than their gods. Each man is as his god is. The servant of the all-gracious God partakes of the divine nature (2 Pet. 1:4), His holiness and

GLOBAL IDOLATRY

Idolatry and Witchcraft works in your mind but it will capture and imprison your spirit. The New Age Movement is to the highest degree of duplicitous and scathing philosophy at work in religion today. It is interlaced not only in witchcraft, idolatry and Satanism but it is attacking all Christian denominations. The New Age belief system is deeply rooted in Eastern religious mysticism and the paranormal. Followers are led to awaken their God consciousness by using powerful occult techniques such as, worshiping Obama, Transcendental Meditation, Yoga, Hypnosis, visualization, psychic phenomenon, New Thought Consciousness, divination, mind control, Ancient Mythology, Teaching Occult Christianity. Book of Enoch; Book of Jubilees; Nephilim, Anakim, Fallen angels, Giants of Ancient Mythology, Portals and Trans-humanisms, Crystal Skulls, Mayan 2012 Galatic Gospel, Cosmic Wars, Stargates, celestials & extraterrestrials Cosmic Christs, Planet X Nibiru and the Fallen angels, Stargazers, Nephilim (those who came down from the sky), anunnaky royal blood lines, Atlantis, Mayan Calander 2012, Ancient Sumer Sumerian tablet text bible biblical end times prophecy illuminati Vatican NWO CIA Nasa race dimension 10th 12th 3rd 4th 5th New Age paranormal conspiracy theory solar

Etc.

Today there is a special onslaught of (Chaotic) deceiving spirits upon the Church of Christ, the fulfillment of the prophecy which the Holy Spirit expressly made known to the Church through the Apostle Paul, that a great deceptive onslaught would take place in the latter Times. Since the utterance of the prophecy, more than two thousand years have passed by but the special manifestation of evil spirits in the deception of believer's today points unmistakably to the fact that we are at the close of the age. “And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.” (1 Jn. 4:3).

The most popular apostasy in Christendom today is the teaching that God has revealed Himself in many different ways to different cultures. Therefore, all religions worship the same god, but just use different names.

From this viewpoint, they say, the Allah of Islam is the same as the Yahweh of Judaism and both are the same as the Krishna of Hinduism. Of course, the New Age teachers conclude is that Jesus Christ is just another god.

CHRISTIAN CAPITULATION

Dr. Dennis Cuddy writes. “People were surprised that a Catholic university would give an honorary degree to a president who supports the right of women violently to kill their preborn babies by abortion.

Christian leaders have either surrendered their true Christian faith to the powers that be or they have become lukewarm toward Jesus. It is not trendy to become a Christian. Remember recently when President Obama refused to speak at Georgetown University unless they covered up the name of Jesus hanging on a crucifix. The university officials obeyed extremist request, and covered Jesus' Holy Name with a black triangle.

You may have been surprised concerning President Obama speaking at the University of Notre Dame”, Dr. Dennis Cuddy writes. “People were surprised that a Catholic university would give an honorary degree to a president who supports the right of women violently to kill their preborn babies by abortion. However, one must remember that the University's former head, Rev. Theodore Hesburgh, was head of the population-controlling Rockefeller Foundation for a number of years in the late 1970s and early 1980s." <sup>i</sup>

Fidelity editor E. Michael Jones said he met Prof. Sam Shapiro of the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana, on July 4, 1984, and that Shapiro's wife who taught at Indiana University South Bend, was a strong supporter of abortion-rights. Jones also related that Shapiro told him of his concern that Prof. Gloria Kaufman, Shapiro's wife, had "demonic energy" and was a witch. <sup>ii</sup>

On ABC's "Jimmy Kimmel Live" (June 4, 2009), actress Heather Graham (reared as a traditional conservative Catholic when she was a girl) told Kimmel she and some friends recently had been engaged in witchcraft, casting spells to elect Obama as President among other things . . . <sup>iii</sup>

Wow! This happened in America and hardly a peep was heard by the news media; the Catholic leadership or the public. And then, Notre Dame gave this Muslim –phony Christian, a doctorate after he signed the largest abortion – Executive Order the world has ever seen.

Christians are not sleeping; they are dead! Many are ensnared by the powers of darkness, sitting brainwashed or bewitched, tranced out on a better homes and garden church pew.

A few lukewarm Christians believe that Jesus will come back to help them escape the wrath of the Antichrist; thereby missing all the fireworks of the new world revolutionary system of being able to challenge them to stand up for Jesus. Friends, this is just not going happen. Jesus warned that if we deny Him before the world, He would deny us before His Father. You'd better wake up.

SACRILEGE WALL STREET BULL PRAYER

The transfer of wealth happened, but not to Peter Wagner's New breed...

Obama let the banks transfer our wealth to foreign banks!

Jesus People Sing to False Idol to Save God's Economy

Cindy Jacobs led a bunch of Christian nuts praying over a false bronze idol, the Wall Street Bull asking God to nationalize the economy under the state of heaven.

Christians must separate themselves from any involvement in witchcraft, and destroy all evidence of their former involvement in the occult.

All forms of the occult – astrology, divination, fortune-telling, necromancy, hypnotism, magic, etc. – these things are forbidden by God. Leviticus 19:26-28, 31; 20:6, 27, Deuteronomy 18:9-14, 2 Kings 23:24, Jeremiah 10:2

Witchcraft was widely and openly practiced in the Old Testament.

God blessed the Church of Jesus Christ. Matt 16:1818 "And I say also unto thee, that thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." KJV

WALL STREET

In January of this year, Cindy Jacobs was in a worship service when the Lord spoke to her, “Cindy, the strongman over America doesn’t live in Washington, DC – the strongman lives in New York City! Call My people to pray for the economy.”<sup>1</sup>

Since Cindy is the head intercessor for Peter Wagner’s group (NAR) Third World apostasies’ I doubt very seriously that the real Jesus Christ spoke to her. The other Jesus that they represent is the one that would lead her to the feet of the Wall Street Baal Bull to pray. The Bible never uses idolatry in such a manner.

Cindy claims she’ was so shaken by the word from her god that ‘she knew she had to call the people of God (followers of the Third Wave Movements) to converge on New York City the week of October 29 for an emergency prayer rally to cry out against economic collapse in the midst of shaking.’<sup>2</sup>

Cindy goes on to say, “the Lord further said, October 29 was Black Tuesday, the day the stock market crashed, and Satan wants to do it again. We must be proactive in prayer. At the beginning of the year many intercessors began to hear from the Lord that without divine intervention, a major shaking was coming to Wall Street. This would spread until there were food shortages. Some think that 2009 would be worse than 2008. Of course, it goes without saying that this would affect markets around the world.

Many people are fasting and praying for the upcoming elections, Cindy says. We don’t want to let up in this final press, we need to P.U.S.H. (pray until something happens) to avert financial judgment. On September 29 last month, the US stock market went down 777 points in one day. Cindy says it was no coincidence that this happened on the first day of the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah.

“This is so severe in the economic area because we are facing judgment from the actions, not only for our stance towards Israel, but our blatant sin against Him in passing laws such as the one allowing homosexual marriages,” Cindy said.

We all know that our country’s policy towards Israel, at the time that Cindy heard this paranormal voice speaking to her was and still are, 100%. If I know this, surely the real Jesus knows it. After Cindy’s prayer meeting before the statue of Bull god BAAL, Obama, the Senate and Congress gave trillions of dollars to the bankers and the money was taken out of nation and used to bring about a great victory for those who are forming the New World Government. Her prayers for the transference of the "wealth" left the west went east and our nation has been poor ever since. The departure from Jesus Christ in this nation is costing us our freedom, wealth and enslaving us into the economy of Satan.

NO MORE BUSINESS AS USUAL

Cindy calls for a Day of Prayer for the World's Economies on Wednesday, October 29, 2008.

In early August in her prayer time Cindy heard the Lord say, "There will be no more business as usual."

Little did she know the scope of what this meant on a worldwide scale. God is on the move. She and many others have taken this as a major point of intercession. She believes that just as there came a time when God judged the gods of Egypt, He is now judging the god of mammon. Nations are standing on the cusp of history that will determine their course for generations to come. God is judging the ideologies of nations. He is moving to put the fear of the Lord not only on His church; but upon the nations of the world.

For these and other reasons Cindy is calling for a Day of Prayer for the World's Economies on Wednesday, October 29, 2008. They are calling for prayer for the stock markets, banks, and financial institutions of the world on the date the stock market crashed in 1929. They are meeting at the New York Stock Exchange, the Federal Reserve Bank, and its 12 principal branches around the US that day.

"We are going to intercede at the site of the statue of the bull on Wall Street to ask God to begin a shift from the bull and bear markets to what we feel will be the 'Lion's Market,' or God's control over the economic systems," she said. "While we do not have the full revelation of all this will entail, we do know that without intercession, economies will crumble."

WHILE SOULS DIE, CINDY WANTS YOU TO MEET AT THE STATUE OF THE BULL ON WALL STREET (the idol of BAAL) to pray to her god; Cindy is encouraging prayer groups to intercede for banks and financial institutions in your area. Cindy says each of us has to be accountable to the Lord.

"Don't think you're going to be in sin and that God will take care of you in these hard economic times, holiness is key," Cindy said. Each of us has a part to play and should not think that God will indiscriminately bless us without us dealing with personal areas that are wrong. We must repent of any misuse of money, think before we spend, get out of debt, etc., and allow God to do a course correction for us." OMIGOD; God talking about a misuse of money ... instead of repentance for their sins to save their souls; who is she working for

THE BULL IS DEAD

Who killed the bull?

Mmmmmmmmmmm very strange indeed. I'm sure the Lord is smarter than I am but I know the economy is already in the toilet and the greedy Feds are ready to flush it. I don't think that Jesus is concerned about the economy which is being manipulated by the Feds who are not even part of government. The chaos that they have created will soon have them stepping up to the plate to bring a new order to the world.

While Cindy Jacobs and Peter Wagner try to lead spiritually blinded Christians to pray for a money transfer AT THE STATUE OF THE BULL (BAAL), souls will die and fall into hell.

Wake up my friends and know that Jesus is standing outside her church window, looking in and knocking at the door of heart, repent and let him in and He will enter in and sup with you.

My advice, let these confused NAR people seek the New Age Religion of demonic voices directing them, and you grab your Bible and seek the Lord. If you haven't got the message yet, America and her former days OF GLORY' is over; it's a New World that has arrived. Get close to Jesus and pray for your family and friends. New money will appear soon and so will the Mark of the Beast.

Cindy Jacobs is considered THIRD WAVE PROPHETESS TO THE NATIONS in this Protestant Neo-Pentecostalism through the ecumenical prayer meetings being driven by Latter Rain Revival, Jesus Only, Angelic moving, counterfeit movement of the end time seduction of Christianity. Cindy Jacobs, Chuck Pierce Peter Wagner and the Third Wave associates all participate in "opening star gates to "Third Heavens." They are magically parting the veil of the paranormal to open a doorway for fallen angels to enter into the earthly realm.*

Mrs. Jacobs and her associates serve and worship "angels of light" (II Corinthians 11:14) by replacing the power of the Holy Spirit, the name of Jesus and His Word with another spirit that impersonates the Holy Spirit called Kundalini. 2 Cor 11:4, "For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him." KJV

BEELZEBUB LORD OF THE FLIES AND IDOLATRY

Beelzebub was a god worshiped by the ancient Canaanites and was called the Prince of Demons by Hebrews. Jesus was falsely accused of casting out devils by this power of this demon. (Matt 12:24), “But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.”

In II Kings 1:2-4), King of Samaria is injured after falling through a window. He sends his to a nearby Phoenician city to ask their god Baal-Zebub if he will recover. The Phoenicians worshiped the god Baal, whose name means lord. The Hebrews added the word “zebul” meaning feces to the name “Baal,” and thus was born Baal-Zebul; their conjoined names meaning “Lord of Dung,” and obviously an insult to the Phoenician god. Later the name became Beelzebub. Beelzebub became synonymous with Satan. In modern demonology, the image of Beelzebub is often depicted as a fly, especially considering the origin of the conjoined name.

“2 Kings 1, 2... “And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease. <sup>3</sup>But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron? <sup>4</sup>Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.”

IDOL WORSHIP

While Israel clearly was influenced by some of the traditions of her neighbors, the Hebrew prophets and religious leaders abhorred other aspects of these cultures. First they condemned such religious practices as idolatry, common in Canaan and in the surrounding regions. <sup>2</sup>

“My heart rejoices in the Lord; in the Lord my horn is lifted high. My mouth Boasts over my enemies, for I delight in your deliverance, There is no one holy like the Lord; There is no one besides you; There is no rock like our God, For the foundations ,of the earth are the Lord’s upon them he has set the world,” (I Sam. 2:1,2).

The Hebrews called a pagan deity to whom child sacrifices were often made by the contemptuous title Molech. This name combines the Hebrew consonants for “king” with the vowels from the word meaning shame. <sup>3</sup>

Aaron collected gold from the people, melted it down, and constructed the image of a calf or young bull, a common symbol of the divine in ancient near eastern religions.

Moses stayed on the mountain for 40 days and received from the Lord all the laws that were to govern the religious and secular life of the Israelites. While Moses was in the mountain alone with God, a strange and wicked thing was done in the camp on the plain. At first the people were alarmed when they saw the mountain smoking and heard the thunder. But soon they grew accustomed to it, and when day after day passed, and Moses did not come down, at last they said to Aaron “Come now, make us a god that we may worship and that we may have to lead us. As for Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him, (Ex 32:1). And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what is become of him,” (Ex. 32:23).<sup>4</sup>

POWER OF IDOLATRY AND REBELLION

The Israelites felt abandoned by Moses during his absence. They went to Aaron and said to him, “up, make us gods, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him,” (Exo. 32.:1). Modern scholars have suggested that ancient people often used “idols” not as gods, but as “pedestals” on which they imagined an invisible god to be standing or riding; the Israelites who clamored for ‘gods’ may not have perceived any contradiction between creating images for such use and God’s prohibition against idolatry.

Aaron was not a man of strong will, as Moses was. When his brother Moses was not by his side, Aaron was weak and ready to yield to the wishes of the people. Aaron said: “If you must have a god that you can look at, then break off the gold earrings that are in your ears and in the ears of your wives and children, and bring them to me.”<sup>5</sup>

Aaron collected gold from the people, melted it down, and constructed the image of a calf or young bull, a common symbol of the divine in ancient near eastern religions. The Israelites acknowledged the calf as their god. Aaron announced a religious feast to take place the next day. “This is your god, O Israel that brought you out of the land of Egypt.” And Aaron built an altar before the image, and he said to all the people, “Tomorrow shall be a feast to the Lord.” The people came to the feast and offered sacrifices; and then they began to dance around the altar and to do wicked deeds together, as they had seen the Egypt doing before their idols. And all this time the mountain was smoking and flashing with fire, almost over their heads!<sup>6</sup>

And the Lord, up in the mountain spoke to Moses and said: “Hasten, and get down to the camp; for your people have done very wickedly. They have made for themselves an idol, and they are worshiping it now. I am angry with them and am ready to destroy them all, and to make of your children a great nation.”<sup>7</sup>

And Moses pleaded with the Lord for Israel, and God did not destroy the people; but he sent Moses down to them, holding in his hands the two stone tables on which God had written the Ten Commandments. As he went down the mountain, Joshua joined him and said to him: “I can hear noise of war in the camp. It is not the sound of men who are shouting for victory, nor is it the cry of those who are beaten in battle; it is the voice of singing that I hear.”<sup>8</sup>

Moses was angered because he knew the spiritual impact of their foolish actions. The Bible says, “anger burned hot, and he threw the tables out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain,” (Ex. 32:19). The people had violated their covenant with God. And Moses was so angry when he saw all the wickedness and shame of his people that he threw down the two tables out of his hands and broke them in pieces upon the rocks.

Moses came straight into the midst of the throng, and at once all the dancing and merry-making stopped. He tore down the golden calf, broke it in pieces, and burned it in the fire and then ground it to powder and threw it into the water. He then made the people drink the water filled with its dust. He meant to teach the people that they would suffer punishment like bitter water, for their wicked deed.

Moses “took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it upon the water, and made the people of Israel drink it,” (Verse 32: 20). On Moses’ instructions, members of the tribe of Levi put to death 3,000 Israelites who had worshiped the Calf.

Aaron blamed this idolatry on the people. Then Moses stood at the entrance to the camp and call out: “Whoever is on the Lord’s side, let him come and stand by me! . . . Draw your swords and go through the camp and kill everyone whom you find bowing down to the idol.

Spare no one. Slay your friends and your neighbors, if they are worshiping the image.” And on that day three thousand of the worshipers of the idol were slain by son of Levi.” Then Moses went before God to intercede for his people that God would forgive them.

The next morning Moses sought to restore the people in God’s good graces. He audaciously declared that if Israel was not forgiven, “blot me, I pray thee, out of the book which thou hast written” (Verse 32:32).<sup>9</sup>

RESULTS OF IDOLATRY

God told them you shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below. You shall not bow down to them or worship them. Idolatry brings a curse from God. Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol— a thing detectable to the Lord, the work of the craftsman’s and sets it up in secret (Deut. 27:15). “And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands. 42 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? 43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon,” (Acts 7:41-43).

HOUSEHOLD GODS

Throughout the Old Testament, it is evident that the peoples of that day, regarded gods, deities, spirits or angelic powers of various kings as having territorial jurisdiction. Household gods: Such as those stolen by Rachel from her father, Laban was small portable of ancestors or family deities. The possession of these images symbolized the holder’s claim to leadership and property.<sup>10</sup> They were symbols of the right of inheritance. If Jacob possessed Laban’s idols, he might legally claim to be Laban’s heir. This may have been the reason Rachel took them from her father’s house.

Laban was outraged when he found Jacob's family and the idols, gone. He pursued them but Jacob insisted that he was innocent of the theft. Laban searched Jacob's tent and went into Leah's tent and into the tent of the two maidservants, but he did not find them. He entered Rachel's tent. There Rachel sat upon the saddle in which she had hidden the images. After searching her tent, she said to her father, 'Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me.' The ruse worked and Laban gave up the search and Laban and Jacob parted after swearing a ceremonial friendship, a covenant of peace.

GIDEON CHOSEN FOR ISRAEL'S DELIVERANCE

Gideon met God's angel under an oak in Orah. (Gen. 28:1-8). Gideon's divine encounter marked a spiritual and physical deliverance of Israel. Not only did Gideon rout the desert raiders, he led a renewal of faith in Yahweh. The choice of Gideon becomes more remarkable as the story reveals how deeply his own family and city were committed to the worship of the Canaanite god, Baal. Now, at God's command, Gideon tore down his father's altar to Baal as well as the Asherah, a totem to a pagan goddess, using a harnessed bull.

The villagers were outraged at such sacrilege and wanted to kill Gideon, but his father, Joash, stopped them by saying, "If Baal is a god, let him contend for himself." Thus Gideon gained the name Jerubaal, "Let Baal contend." Since Gideon had been called by God to deliver his people from the Midianites, his first act was to put an end to pagan worship among his own people. For it was not until this was done that he could hope to defeat the enemy. Gideon delivered Israel from the destructive raids and achieved a peace that lasted for 40 years. He had 70 sons. He refused to be anointed as a king or to establish a dynastic succession for his sons, saying, "I will not rule over you, and my sons will not rule over you: the Lord will rule over you."

THE SPIRIT OF BAAL

The Bible commands the children of Israel to "destroy all their engraved stones, destroy all their molded images, and demolish all their high places," (Num. 33-32). There is more to these stones and images and high places than just harmless native art. Many of these had become the literal dwelling place of demonic spirits, later in the New Testament called powers and principalities.<sup>12</sup> who, rather than destroy the high places worshiped and served the demonic beings that occupied them.<sup>13</sup>

Worship of Baal. Jezebel Worshiped Baal, a Phoenician god. She approached her religion with a fanatic's zeal. She came to Israel with 450 priests of Baal and 400 "prophets" of Aasherah, the mother-goddess. and dined at the palace. When Ahab built his "ivory house," he constructed a temple of Baal with quarters for the priest next to the palace. The greater part of this sacred structure was a court, enclosed with thick walls and open to the sky. Within the court was a small sacred chapel containing symbols of Baal and the mother-goddess, Asherah. The temple priest and their attendants kept an eternal flame burning in a large dish-shaped brazier on the chapel's altar.

Since Baalist was a nature cult, worshipers joined the priests and temple prostitutes in sacred orgies before the altar, especially at the new-year celebration. They acted out the reproductive theme so that the gods, who control earth and water, would follow their example and improve the fertility of agriculture, animals and man.

In time of crisis, such as famine or war, these cultists sacrificed firstborn children in the sacred fire to summon the help of their gods. When some Israelite prophets opposed Jezebel's policies, she had several of them executed.<sup>14</sup>

Ahaz was one who "in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the Lord God his fathers" (2 Chron. 28:23).<sup>15</sup>

God had to execute judgment and punish Israel for what was frequently referred to by the prophets as spiritual adultery. The Babylonian captivity was one such judgment. (Ezek 8:1-6).

Ezekiel was now in Babylon; but the messages of wrath he had delivered in the foregoing chapters related to Jerusalem, for in the peace or trouble thereof the captives looked upon themselves to have peace or trouble, and therefore here he has a vision of what was done at Jerusalem, and this vision is continued to the close of the 11th chapter.<sup>16</sup> "And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain. Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry,” (Ezek 8:3-5).

The prophet's remove, in vision, to Jerusalem. The apparition he saw put forth the form of a hand, which took him by a lock of his head, and the Spirit was that hand which was put forth, for the Spirit of God is called the finger of God. Or, The spirit within him lifted him up, so that he was borne up and carried on by an internal principle, not an external violence. (Ezek 8:1-6).<sup>17</sup>

He was miraculously lifted up between heaven and earth, as if he were to fly away upon eagles' wings.

The Spirit represented to his mind the city and temple as plainly as if he had been there in person. O that by faith we could thus enter into the Jerusalem, the holy city, above, and see the things that are invisible! (Ezek. 8:1-6). “There he saw the reproach of Israel-and that was the image of jealousy, set northward, at the gate of the altar, (v. 3, 5). What image this was is uncertain, probably an image of Baal, or of the grove, which Manasseh made and set in the temple (2 Ki. 21:7; 2 Chron. 33:3), which Josiah removed, but his successors, it seems, replace there, as probably they did the chariots of the sun which he found at the entering in of the house of the Lord (2 Ki. 23:11), and this is here said to be in the entry. But the prophet, instead of telling us what image it was, which might gratify our curiosity, tells us that it was the image of jealousy, to convince our consciences that, whatever image it was, it was in the highest degree offensive to God and provoked him to jealousy. he resented it as a husband would resent the whoredoms of his wife, and would certainly revenge it; for God is jealous, and the Lord revenges, (Nah 1:2).

The very setting up of this image in the house of the Lord was enough to provoke him to jealousy; for it is in the matters of his worship that we are particularly told, I the Lord thy God am a jealous God. Those that placed this image at the door of the inner gate, where the people assembled, called the gate of the altar (v. 5), thereby plainly intended:

[1.] To affront God, to provoke him to his face, by advancing an idol to be a rival with him for the adoration of his people, in contempt of his law and in defiance of his justice.

[2.] To debauch the people, and pick them up as they were entering into the courts of the Lord's house to bring their offerings to him, and to tempt them to offer them to this image; like the adulteress Solomon describes, that sits at the door of her house, to call passengers who go right on their ways, Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither, (Prov. 9:14-16). With good reason therefore is this called the image of jealousy. (Ezek. 8:1-6).

(Isa. 44:17), The Hebrew words mean:

[He falleth down unto it]. There were four forms of adoration used among the Hebrews: 1. HISHTACHAWAH, The prostration of the whole body. 2. QADAD, The bowing of the head. 3. KARA`, The bending of the upper part of the body down to the knees. 4. BARAK, Bowing the knee, or kneeling.<sup>18</sup>

“He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: 17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. 18 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand. 19 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree? 20 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?” (Isa. 44:16-20).

[At their stocks] They consult their wooden gods. [And their staff declareth] They use divination by rods; see the note at (Ezek. 21), where this sort of divination (rabdomancy) is explained. (Hos. 4:12-19). “My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God. 13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery. 14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall. 15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. 17 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone. 18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye. 19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices,” (Hos. 4:12-19).

(Hab. 2:19) [Woe unto him] How foolish and contemptible to worship a thing formed by the hand of man out of wood, stone, gold, or silver! The meanest brute is superior to them all; it breathes and lives, but they have no breath in them. However, they are said above to be teachers of lies; that is, they appeared to give out oracles: but these were lies; and were not given by the statue, but by the priest. <sup>19</sup> “Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it,” (Hab. 2:19).

(2 Ki. 17:9; 2 Ki. 17:10), “And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.”

[Did secretly those things] There was much hidden iniquity and private idolatry among them, as well as public and notorious crimes. [From the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.] That is, the idolatry was universal; every place was made a place for some idolatrous rite or act of worship; from the largest city to the smallest village and from the public watchtower to the shepherd's cot. “And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree,” (2 Ki. 17:10). [Images and groves] Images of different idols, and places for the abominable rites of Ashtaroth or Venus. <sup>20</sup>

“And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them. 16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal. 17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger,” (2 Ki. 17:15-17).

[Sold themselves to do evil] Abandoned themselves to the will of the Devil, to work all iniquity with greediness. (2 Ki. 17:15-17). <sup>21</sup>

“For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.” (1 Chron. 16:26). “Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them? 4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; 5 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. 6 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations,” (Ezek. 14:3-6).

(Ezek. 14:6), “Thus saith the Lord God; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols. Though God so threatened the people for their idolatry, (Ezek. 14:5), “yet He would rather they should avert the calamity by "repentance."

Turn yourselves. Translates, 'turn others'-namely, the stranger proselytes in the land. As ye have been the advisers of others (see Ezek. 14:7), ("the stranger that sojourneth in Israel") to idolatry, so bestow at least as much pains in turning them to the truth-the surest proof of repentance. But the parallelism to (Ezek. 14:3-4), favors the English version; their sin was two-fold:

- (1) "In their heart" or inner man.
- (2) "Put before their face" - i.e., exhibited outwardly.

So their repentance is generally expressed by "repent," and is then divided into — (1) "Turn yourselves (inwardly) from your idols." (2) "Turn away your faces (outwardly) from all your abominations." It is not likely that an exhortation to convert others should come between the two affecting themselves.<sup>22</sup>

“Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. 7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to inquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: 8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. 9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. 10 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him,” (Ezek. 14:6-10).

(Ezek. 14:1-11), This chapter contains two words of God, which have obviously an internal connection with each other. The first (vv. 1-11) announces to the elders, who have come to the prophet to inquire of God, that the Lord will not allow idolaters to inquire of Him, but will answer all who do not turn from idolatry with severe judgments, and will even destroy the prophets who venture to give an answer to such inquirers. The second (vv. 12-23) denounces the false hope that God will avert the judgment and spare Jerusalem because of the righteousness of the godly men therein.<sup>23</sup>

“Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass. 21 They forgot God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt,” (Ps. 106:20-21). This is an abridgment of the history of Israel's provocations in the wilderness, and of the wrath of God against them for those provocations: and this abridgment is abridged by the apostle, with application to us Christians (1 Cor. 10:5, etc.);

“for these things were written for our admonition, that we sin not like them, lest we suffer like them,” (Ps. 106:13-33).

l. The cause of their sin was disregard to the works and word of God, (v. 13).<sup>24</sup>

A child of God that is: ONE that is born again and believes that Jesus is the ONLY WAY TO GOD; if Jesus said it. Just believe it. He is truth. Truth will never change.

SPIRITUAL BEINGS ASCENDED MASTERS

Teachings are derived from the Theosophical concept of Masters of Wisdom or "Mahatmas". . . claimed to have worked with mankind throughout the centuries. Most of the time in the past, the Ascended Masters have worked in the background. . . . However, in the New Age, these supernatural beings will appear and possess the government and religious leaders of the world. They will rule and reign creating a new Babylonian religion to worship their personality, The Christ.

This new world religion wishes to raise your consciousness to the Spiritual Hierarchy (Demons), through MEDITATION. Ascended Masters, in the Ascended Master Teachings is derived from the Theosophical concept of Masters of Wisdom or "Mahatmas". They are believed to be spiritually enlightened beings who in past incarnations were ordinary humans, but who have undergone a process of spiritual transformation.<sup>[1]</sup> The term "Ascended Master" was first introduced in 1934 with the publication of Unveiled Mysteries<sup>[2]</sup> by Guy Ballard in The "I AM" Activity.<sup>[3]</sup> This term was further popularized by others in books like The Bridge to

THE PLAN ~ THE GOD OF THE FORCES

This is not a new program that has suddenly come into existence. This author heard about The Plan while working in the Republican Party in 1972. I have watched it come into its world “Shamballa Force” that we are facing today.

U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton tours the Shwedegon Pagoda in Yangon, Myanmar Thursday.
That, after all, is her job.

Though it's my guess that she'll be enchanted both by Suu Kyi and Yangon – a good deal more so than the sterile meeting rooms of Naypyitaw. <sup>v</sup>

2 Chron. 7:14-16 “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. 15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attend unto the prayer that is made in this place. 16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house that my name may be there forever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.” KJV

“After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter. 2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. 3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald. 4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.” KJV
