TRUMP'S REVIVAL CHANGES COURSE OF HISTORY

He appeared during the historic crossroads of hopeless calamity then engrossing the afflicted nation. We were facing thick dark clouds of being lost in catastrophe confusion, gloominess; a sea of impossibilities. Donald Trump was called by God on the campaign trail. James C. Dobson, one of America's leading evangelicals, who said Mr. Trump had recently come "to accept a relationship with Christ" and was now "a baby Christian." It is time for the Church to rise up and unite and do mighty exploits for the Kingdom of God! ¹

TRUMP KNOWS THE ENEMY

And we know that God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. ... It is massive. The infinitely wise, infinitely powerful God pledges to make everything beneficial to his people! God uses all sorts of people, good and bad, for His purpose. Look at Paul. One of the worst people ever, and God picked him and he became one of the greatest apostles in the Bible.

My flawed human perception sees that God knew that Trump has walked and talked and dined with all the elites. He knows them. He knows how they operate. God knows Trump doesn't need money; can't be bought. But I believe God knows one thing about Trump that most do not: That he is a fighter and is principled in the sense that if he is the President of the United States, then by God he'll do right by all Americans and for the future of this great, God fearing land even if it kills him. He was the perfect storm that evil was not expecting, and yet was fearful of. Strength, intellect, and driven to succeed for America, not for himself. Trump LOVES America. He knows more than anything the threats that have besieged this great country and had it on the brink of financial ruin and social destruction. God bless Trump. Help him continue to see with your eyes and ears. Give him wisdom beyond your enemy's grasp.

Jesus said that His Church was built upon the foundation of THE ROCK (His testimony) and the Gates of hell shall not prevail against it. "If revival in this land depended on your prayers, your faith, your obedience, would we ever experience revival?"

TRUMP - DEFENDER OF THE FAITH

Trump: 'We are stopping cold the attacks on Judeo-Christian values'

<http://www.cnn.com/2017/10/13/politics/trump-values-voters-summit/index.html>

Trump, fourteen months into his presidency, has found it harder to get things done than the ease with which he made promises on the campaign trail, making speeches to adoring audiences like Friday's in Washington key to boosting the President's morale. And the audience at the Values Voter Summit, an annual socially conservative conference, didn't fail to deliver.

"We are stopping cold the attacks on Judeo-Christian values," Trump said to applause, before slamming people who don't say "Merry Christmas."

"They don't use the word Christmas because it is not politically correct," Trump said, complaining that department stores will use red and Christmas decorations but say "Happy New Year." "We're saying Merry Christmas again."

The comment drew thunderous applause.

Heated debates over the "War on Christmas" have raged for years, with many on the right complaining that political correctness has made it less acceptable to say Merry Christmas. Trump has seized on these feelings, regularly telling primarily religious audiences that his presidency has made it acceptable to "start saying Merry Christmas again."

"You go into a department store. When was the last time you saw 'Merry Christmas?' You don't see it anymore," Trump said on the campaign trail. "They want to be politically correct. If I'm president, you will see 'Merry Christmas' in department stores, believe me, believe me."

"America is a nation of believers and together we are strengthened and sustained by the power of prayer," Trump said.

TRUMP STOP ATTACKS ON JUDEO CHRISTIAN VALUES

President Donald Trump touted his administration's actions to a major gathering of social conservatives in Washington, D.C. Thursday, stating that he's "stopping cold the attacks on Judeo-Christian values."

In a speech at the 12th annual Values Voter Summit on Friday morning, Trump told those gathered at the Omni Shoreham Hotel that "in the last 10 months, we have followed through on one promise after another."

"I appointed and confirmed a Supreme Court Justice in the mold of the late great Justice Antonin Scalia, the newest member of the Supreme Court, Justice Neil Gorsuch," said Trump.

REINSTATED NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

"To protect the unborn, I have reinstated a policy first put in place by President Ronald Reagan. The Mexico City Policy. To protect religious liberty, including protecting groups like this one, I signed a new executive action in a beautiful ceremony at the White House on our National Day of Prayer."

EXECUTIVE ORDER ANNULLING JOHNSON AMENDMENT

Trump also denounced the Johnson Amendment, which prohibits houses of worship from engaging in political activities, promising that he will "not allow government workers to censor sermons, or target our pastors, our ministers, our rabbis."

"These are the people we want to hear from and they are not going to be silenced any longer," continued Trump, receiving applause from the audience.

Trump also referenced his administration's broadening of religious exemptions under the Department of Health and Human Services' contraception mandate, which has been the subject of many lawsuits due to claims of religious liberty violations.

STOP ATTACKS ON JUDEO=CHRISTIAN VALUES

"The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services on [Oct. 6] moved to broaden those narrow religious exemptions to include an exception 'on the basis of moral conviction' for non-profit and for-profit companies," Reuters reported last week.

"The move drew fire from [abortion] advocates and praise from conservative Christian activists. California's Democratic attorney general pledged to fight to protect the mandate from circumvention. It remained unclear how many women would lose contraception coverage and which companies would use the exemptions."

Calling his efforts "substantially ahead of schedule," Trump declared that "we are stopping cold the attacks on Judeo-Christian values."

Trump's remarks were part of the annual Values Voter Summit, a national gathering of socially conservative activists.

Sponsoring organizations for VVS include the Family Research Council, the American Family Association, American Values, FRC Action, and Christian Healthcare Ministries, among others.

The FRC announced Tuesday that Trump was going to address the VVS, the billionaire real estate mogul being the first sitting president to do so in its history.

ENDS ASSAULT ON FIRST AMENDMENT

FRC President Tony Perkins said in a statement that he and other social conservatives are "thankful to hear from a president who is fulfilling the promises that he campaigned on."

"Since the early days of the campaign, President Trump allied himself with values voters, promising to put an end to the eight years of relentless assault on the First Amendment," said Perkins.

"President Trump's executive order on religious liberty and the follow up actions last week by HHS and DOJ, demonstrate that he is committed to undoing the anti-faith policies of the previous administration and restoring true religious freedom."

Friday marks the second time that Trump has addressed the VVS, doing so for the first-time last year as the Republican nominee for president.

"Imagine what our country could accomplish if it started working together as one people under one God, saluting one flag," said Trump in 2016.

Desperate prayers by Trump's great aunts in 'sanctuary' cottage said to spark Hebrides Revival in Scotland

God used two elderly sisters who desperately wanted to see God move in their church in a small fishing village on Lewis Island. Not only did the revival reach their Island in Scotland but the Hebrides Revival became known around the world. Little did they know that their nephew would one day become the President of the United States of America and bring change and a move of God to the Nations. It is time to rise up and intercede for our President and for our Nation.

The sisters, Peggy and Christine Smith, were the great aunts of President Donald Trump.

2 Chronicles 7:14 "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

HEBRIDES REVIVAL IN SCOTLAND

“If revival in this land depended on your prayers, your faith, your obedience, would we ever experience revival?”

Two elderly sisters who desperately prayed to see God move in their small Scottish fishing village helped spark the movement between 1949 and 1952 that became known as the Hebrides Revival. Peggy and Christine Smith ⁱⁱⁱ

The sisters, Peggy and Christine Smith, were the great aunts of President Donald Trump.

According to “The Intercessors of the Hebrides Revival,” the Smith sisters resided in a small cottage by the roadside in the village of Barvas on the Island of Lewis.

“They were 84- and 82- years-old. Peggy was blind and her sister almost bent double with arthritis. Unable to attend public worship, their humble cottage became a sanctuary where they met with God. To them came the promise: ‘I will pour water upon him that is thirsty and floods upon the dry ground,’ they pleaded this day and night in prayer. One-night Peggy had a revelation, revival was coming and the church of her fathers would be crowded again with young people.”^{iv}

The revival movement is often referred to as the “Lewis Awakening.”

“During these years a large number of people cried out to God for mercy and trusted in Jesus Christ for salvation,” the Rev. Gareth Burke wrote.

“Another interesting feature of Lewis is the extent to which the church continues to exercise a significant influence in its society, despite the rapid secularization of the UK as a whole,” Burke wrote. “The Western Isles are something of a ‘world apart’ from the rest of Britain.”

Many who live on the island would attribute this difference to the Hebrides Revival “a mighty outpouring of God’s Spirit which occurred throughout the island in a three-year period from 1949-1952.”

One minister writing about the revival stated: “You met God on meadow and moorland. You met Him in the homes of the people. God seemed to be everywhere.”

Mary Anne Smith MacLeod, niece of the two sisters emigrated from the Island of Lewis to America and met a gentleman named Frederick Trump. They married in January 1936 at the Carlyle Hotel in Manhattan.

On April 5, 1937, she gave birth to their first child Mary Anne Trump Barry, a United States Federal Judge, followed by Fredrick Jr. (1938–1981), Elizabeth (1942), Donald Trump 45th President of the United States (1946), and Robert (1948).

On online post on the 2017 National Day of Prayer asked: “Coincidence or Holy Ghost? Not only did the revival reach the sisters’ Island in Scotland but the Hebrides Revival became known around the world. Little did they know that their nephew would one day become the President of the United States of America.” ^v

DUNCAN CAMPBELL

Duncan Campbell says, “Revival is a going of God among His people, and an awareness of God laying hold of the community ... the fear of God lays hold upon the community, moving men and women, who until then had no concern for spiritual things, to seek after God.”¹ Such an occurrence can fairly be called revival; such was the experience of Duncan Campbell and the inhabitants of the island of Lewis during the Hebrides Revival of 1949.²

The island of Lewis truly experienced an awakening out of spiritual darkness and depravity, into spiritual victory and life. In the years preceding the revival, the population of the island had digressed into either impiety or empty mechanical religion. Campbell says that “the stream of vital Christianity appeared to be running low.”³ Many pastors on the island were not unaware of the condition that the community had sunken into. They were pained by what seemed to be a hopeless situation. This pain resulted in a voiced concern as the Free Church Presbytery of Lewis published the following statement in the local paper:

The Presbytery of Lewis having taken into consideration the low state of vital religion within their own bounds, and throughout the land generally, call upon their faithful people in all their congregations to take a serious view of the present dispensation of divine displeasure manifested, not only in the chaotic conditions of international politics and domestic economics and morality, but also, and especially, in the lack of spiritual power from Gospel Ordinances, and to realize that these things plainly indicate that the Most High has a controversy with the nation. 4

This challenge was left with the community with the sincere hope that spiritual recovery and restoration would be known in Lewis.

THE COMING JUDGMENT A MOTIVE TO REPENTANCE.

This challenge was left with the community with the sincere hope that spiritual recovery and restoration would be known in Lewis.

This burden for spiritual recovery was especially held by two elderly women in the Parish of Barvas. These women, one eighty-two and the other eighty-four years of age, committed to pray two nights a week for revival. They began praying at 10:00 P.M. and would usually continue until three or four in the morning. One scripture that they especially clung to, and frequently quoted in their prayers was; “For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: ...” (Isaiah 44.3). These women were thirsty for revival, and they would not let go of the hope for it, until it would be poured upon Lewis like a mighty flood. During this time, one of the women saw a vision in which the church of her father was packed with young people and a strange man was standing in the pulpit. She shared this vision with her pastor, insisting that he needed to act on it. She said to him, “You’ve tried missions. You’ve tried special evangelists. Mr. McKee, have you tried God?”⁵ She requested that he, along with others, should gather to pray for revival. If not in the same home as theirs, at least they could meet at the same time.

PRAY AND FAST AND WAIT ON GOD

The pastor took the women's request very seriously and gathered others along with him to pray and wait on God. In one of these meetings a deacon spoke out, reading the following words from Psalms: "Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; . . ." (Psalm 24.3-4). Next, he exclaimed to the others with him, "It seems to me to be so much humbug to pray as we are praying, to wait as we are waiting, if we are not rightly related to God."⁶ Then he cried out, "God, are my hands clean? Is my heart pure?"⁷ He immediately fell onto his knees and went into a trance. Coinciding with this, Campbell says that the power of God swept in, and the community was gripped by an awareness of God.

SPIRITUAL HUNGER

This sweeping through of God's Spirit had a profound affect upon the community. Men and women began experiencing a spiritual hunger which expressed itself in many ways. Prayer meetings were held in churches and cottages, running until any hour of the night or following morning. There was a great impartation of faith, in which believers were gripped with the conviction that God was a covenant-keeping God, and that He must pour the water of His Spirit upon their thirsty souls. They would be content with nothing less than a flood of revival. Campbell comments on this "spirit of expectancy" by saying, "Here I found a group of men who seemed to be living on the high plane of implicit confidence in God."⁸

The elder accepted Campbell's answer and asked him further if he would be willing to address a crowd of about three hundred persons who had gathered in the church that evening. Campbell agreed and they proceeded to the meeting. Campbell was also experiencing the same spiritual hunger that the inhabitants of Lewis so deeply felt. He cried out to the congregation:

CAMPBELL PLEADS GOD'S CAUSE

'What shall I do?' The history of man is the history of enquiry. Man, down through the ages has been out on a great quest, the sum of which is to know God. Away back in the distant past Job cried: 'Oh that I knew where I might find [h]im[!] that I might come [even] to [h]is seat!' (Job 23.3). I would go as far as to say that the initiative of the honest soul is not towards self-realization but toward God-realization, and in this verse of Scripture we have the language of a young man in search of reality. He is tired of the tinsel and toy of earth's vain show. 12

Campbell, after his closing address, proceeded down the aisle. However, at least one young attendee was not ready to leave the meeting. He looked up to God and prayed aloud, "God, You can't fail us. God, You can't fail us. You promised to pour out water on the thirsty and floods upon the dry ground. You can't fail us."¹³ The young man then dropped to his knees and fell into a trance. Campbell was impacted by the unusual events which were beginning to happen. Standing just outside the front doors of the church was a crowd of about six hundred people. Why were they there? They had come up from the community after, somehow, being struck with a deep awareness of their need for God. A hundred of them were young people who had been attending a dance that evening; they left the dance under a strong compulsion that they needed to get their lives right with God. They saw the lights on in the church and moved towards it, until they reached its doorway. Everyone was ushered inside, the meeting was resumed, and they continued until 4.00 A.M. An intense awareness of personal sin was felt by attendees and they began crying to God for mercy. One young woman, who was a teacher in the community, lay prostrate on the floor, crying to God, “Oh God, is there mercy for me?”¹⁴

GOD RESPONDS WITH CONVICTION AND RELIEF

What was happening in the parish of Barvas? It would be better to ask, “What was happening in Lewis?” A move of God was sweeping through the island, and scenes like the one above was occurring in other parishes as well. Souls were experiencing both conviction and relief and Campbell comments on one such meeting:

There was a moving scene, some weeping in sorrow and distress, others, with joy and love filling their hearts, falling upon their knees, conscious only of the presence and power of God [W]ho had come in revival blessing. Within a matter of days, the whole parish was in the grip of a spiritual awakening. Churches became crowded with services continuing until three o'clock in the morning. Work was largely put aside, as young and old were made to face eternal realities. ^{vi}

PEOPLE RESPONDED TO THE CONVICTION OF GOD

People not only gathered in churches and at the police station but, on one occasion, a crowd of seekers was found waiting in a field. Campbell went to them and was moved to see two teenage girls, who had recently been converted, counselling a deeply distressed older man who was crying out to God in prayer. The man happened to be the school headmaster and the girls were encouraging him to persevere in his seeking for God.¹⁹ One of them could be heard saying to the schoolmaster, “The Jesus that saved us last night can save you now.”²⁰

GOD'S SPIRIT MOVED EVERYWHERE

People from every walk of life, from a schoolmaster to farmers, were affected by the revival. A certain farmer, Donald McLeod, who was apathetic to spiritual things and had not been to church for twelve years, told Campbell that he might come out sometime to one of the meetings. He did so, and because it was so crowded, McLeod had to sit on the steps to the pulpit, right where Campbell was preaching. He came under intense conviction of sin and left the meeting for home. McLeod had a godly wife and daughter and word was brought to Campbell that McLeod was in great distress of soul. Campbell came to the farmhouse and found a number of others there praying for the farmer. They were worried that if he did not find relief, he would go insane. His wife exclaimed, “Oh, my God have mercy on the mighty sinner.”²¹ Campbell found him in a room and heard him praying, “God, can You have mercy on me? God, can You have mercy on me?”²² McLeod, not receiving relief that night, called for a prayer meeting for the next evening and, on the morning following, he experienced a glorious conversion.

Campbell found himself ushered from churches, to a police station, to a field, to farm houses and other places, almost continuously. On one occasion, Campbell was asked to speak at another parish. He was already committed to speaking elsewhere on Lewis but said that this parish could have him between one and two o'clock in the morning. Upon arriving there, he found the church crowded to capacity, with many persons standing outside. He ministered a word to the congregation and, as he left, he heard behind him hundreds crying out to God.²³

BEFORE TRUMP- OBAMA'S CHANGE - AMERICA CAN'T BELIEVE IN

So, it was showbiz as usual for the weak, so-called "Conservatives at the annual CPAC gathering. Like Nero playing his harp while Rome burned, The Conservative Republicans continued to play the outlandish tune of politics as usual while America and the world is crashing into an utter state of bewilderment and despair.

People in our country have lost their homes, retirement pensions, old people are trying to find jobs that are no longer available because our elected officials voted to send our manufacturing base to China so that its pampered CEO's could get cheap, enslaved labor while the Democratic leadership grovels at the feet of union leaders whose people are jobless because we cannot compete globally.

Friends, our entire manufacturing base is gone and we are now selling our ports and infrastructures to foreigners while the America's no longer can afford to buy the cheap, poisoned trinkets and the polluted food send into our nation by people who hate us.

Then, our banks are given massive bailouts and the systems are still stuck in the mud of Congressional confusion because the money was spent by the greedy CEOs buying failing banks and gold. Our Automotive Companies have been nationalized after massive bailouts are still in mayhem and are going to move to Brazil.

WE CAN DEFEAT THESE DEVILS

"And I sought for a man among them that should make up the hedge and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. 31 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord God," (Ezek. 22:30-31).

"The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out," (Lev. 6:13).

IF WE STAND IN OUR PRAYER CLOSETS AND CALL OUT TO OUR GOD, JESUS, the most powerful Being in the universe!

Beginning 14th July 2009, a three-week encampment of some of the world's most powerful men; more than 2,000 America's leaders, politicians, financiers, are gathering at the world's most exclusive men's club, the Bohemian Club at Bohemian Grove, Sonoma County, California.

SCOUNDRELS OF DEATH

These rogues will scalawag call upon their god, Moloch to give them power to complete their plans to enslave the people of America and the world into their NWO. These idolatrous scalawags have not been elected to govern America; yet, they are called the Shadow Government

THE PUPPET MASTERS

The hidden policy makers- that control our politicians, banks, businesses and resources. They boast that they choose who will be the U.S. President and select the candidate who will. They sacrifice to their demon gods for the coming years' powers to rule the world and because the Church of Jesus is sound asleep; they are able to criminally steal our country, faith, resources, jobs, retirements, homes, children to enslave us.

THESE SHADOW PEOPLE ARE NOT HUMAN!

These elitists are spiritual motivated by the powers of darkness.

Woe unto America! Many of our nation's highest leaders worship Satan and are willing servants of EVIL. They are controlled by Satan, the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Satan controls these men through the occult (i.e., "hidden" organizations). Jesus said "in secret have I done nothing" (John 18:20), because He had nothing to hide. Why the secrecy from our nation's top leaders?

Skull and Bones is of the Devil. Freemasonry is of the Devil. Nearly 2,000 carefully selected government officials, corporate tycoons and other luminaries—men with power to shape the future—assemble privately every July in a redwood forest about 65 miles north of San Francisco. The meeting includes a somber ritual that features the Druidic burning of an effigy on the altar, chants from a robed chorus, and wild drinking and promiscuity. Richard Nixon once famously described the gathering as “the foggiest G—d damned thing you could ever imagine.”

The bizarre Pagan ritual of the Bohemian Grove—the Cremation of Care ceremony—is practiced by its members (all men), including both Presidents Bush, Bill Clinton, Ronald Reagan, Alan Greenspan, Richard M. Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Walter Cronkite, Colin Powell, and Henry Kissinger to name but a few. The meeting is held every July. It is purported that Obama and McCain visited Bohemian Grove in July of 2008. WORLD LEADERS AND THE OCCULT *

Summer Solstice

LONDON (AP) -- Self-styled Druids, new-agers and thousands of revelers have watched the sun rise above the ancient stone circle at Stonehenge to mark the summer solstice - the longest day of the year in the northern hemisphere.

English Heritage, which manages the monument, says some 36,000 sun-watchers gathered on the Salisbury Plain about 80 miles (130 kilometers) southwest of London on Saturday. Police say the event was peaceful with only 25 arrests, mainly for drug offenses.

Couples kissed, dancers circled with hoops and revelers took part in a mass yoga practice as part of the free-form celebrations. °

Thousands salute the sun in Times Square as yoga fans gather to welcome summer solstice in New York

The summer solstice occurs when the tilt of a planet's semi axis, in either the northern or the southern hemisphere, is most inclined toward the star (sun) that it orbits. Earth's maximum axial tilt toward the sun is 23° 26'. This happens twice each year, at which times the sun reaches its highest position in the sky as seen from the north or the south pole.

The summer solstice occurs during a hemisphere's summer. This is northern solstice in the northern hemisphere and the southern solstice in the southern. Depending on the shift of the calendar, the summer solstice occurs sometime between June 20 and June 22 in the northern hemisphere ^{[2][3]} and between December 20 and December 23 each year in the southern hemisphere.^[4]

When on a geographic pole, the sun reaches its greatest height, the moment of solstice; it can be noon only along that longitude which at that moment lies in the direction of the sun from the pole. For other longitudes, it is not noon. Noon has either passed or has yet to come. Hence the notion of a solstice day is useful. The term is colloquially used like midsummer to refer to the day on which solstice occurs. The summer solstice day has the longest period of daylight – except in the polar regions, where daylight is continuous, from a few days to six months around the summer solstice.

BOHEMIANS PARTY WHILE THE WORLD BURNS

Worldwide, interpretation of the event has varied among cultures, but most recognize the event in some way with holidays, festivals, and rituals around that time with themes of religion or fertility.^[5]

Starting July 14, these perverse, ungodly scoundrels will be involved in 14 days festivities of carousing and demonic decadence. Revelry filled with drunken wickedness, debaucheries, and sordid explicit sexual orgies, repugnant blatantly witchcraft rites and shameless practices; during which they will perform an annual ceremony called the "Cremation of Care".

In this ceremony they actually conjure up a human sacrifice (some believe it is an alive human) to desecrate the human body to the ancient demonic entity Moloch as represented by a 40ft stone idol. Part of the ritual involves an actual corpse. They will worship Moloch an idol, shown in the Bible demanding the sacrifice of children. The Bohemians' culture of death reigns over America through the sacrifice of babies and killing our young people in unprovoked wars.

MAGICAL THINKING OF THE SONS OF BELIAL?

As we have repeatedly stated, the Satanist believes that numbers contain inherent power. Thus, they literally order their lives by occult numerology -- such numerology also is a key component in astrology, another system of divining that Satanists observe very closely. The occult calendar is divided into four (4) segments of 13 weeks each. The number, "13" is considered divine by the occultist for a couple of reasons:¹⁰

The Bible assigns '13' the meaning of "rebellion against constituted authority", plus the depravity that caused Satan to rebel against God.

The occultist assigns '6' to represent the number of man, and the number '7' to represent the number of divine perfection. Thus, as a person climbs that "Jacob's Ladder" toward self-perfection in the realm of the occult, the number '13' represents the state of divine perfection, self-achieved perfection, and Illumination (6+7 = 13).

Thus, the occult calendar is comprised of four periods of 13 weeks each.

SHADOWY DEATH SPIRITS ARE RELEASED DURING SATAN'S HIGH DAYS

To demonstrate their occult, Illuminist ties, Communists have always celebrated "May Day". If you have not been taught how the Illuminati created Communism, and for which purpose, you need to hear our Seminar 2, "America Determines the Flow of History".

SONS OF BELIAL

Deuteronomy 13:13, "Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known." [Children of Belial] B-liya±al, from b-liy, not, and yaa±al, profit; -Septuagint, Andres paranomoi, lawless men; -person's good for nothing to themselves or others, and capable of nothing but mischief. ¹¹

In (Deut.15:9), and in (Nah. 1:11), the word "Belial" is rendered in our translation by the adjectives "immoral, depraved." The word means "decadent, debauched, worthlessness."¹²

In verse 13 of our text we see men, "The children of Belial" also referred to as the sons of worthless men, wicked men, ungodly men; men who have gone out from among us and have drawn others to follow them into their diabolical sins of folly and deceit. The name Belial also refers to Satan in another text.

"And what concord (or agreement) what Christ with Belial or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel," (II Cor. 6:15)?

There is a wide contrast between the two names mentioned in this verse.

Christ stands for all that is without sin; holy, pure and good.

Satan stands for all that is evil, wicked, impure and he, himself, is the paradigm of apostasy.¹³

The sons of Belial are humans who have a special leadership quality. They are chosen vessels of Satan who are used to gather the people leading them away God.

SPELL CASTING SATAN IS ASLEEP

Their spell casting powers work because the Church is asleep and are not resisting by prayer.

"I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth," (Rev. 2:13).

[12] If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying, [13] Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known; (Deut. 13:12-18).

Think of the Satan worshippers today.

Toward a world government [emphasis mine] patterned after our own government with a legislature, executive and judiciary, and police to enforce its international laws and keep the peace. To do that, of course, we Americans will have to yield up some of our sovereignty. That would be a bitter pill. It would take a lot of courage, a lot of faith in the new order. But the American colonies did it once and brought forth one of the most nearly perfect unions the world has ever seen." Now you know why Walter Cronkite was called "the most trusted man in America"—he was trusted by the Establishment that control America to promote their One World Government Fascist agenda.¹⁵

"But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves. 27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose name is The God of hosts," (Amos 5:26-27).

“Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness,” (Acts 7:42)?

“Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them; and I will carry you away beyond Babylon,” (Acts 7:43).

Notice... God watched them go into idolatry worship. He lifted His conviction from their souls. He sent them into captivity. Friends, God is watching this blinded despotic cabal too. Fear not, just pray and watch what will happen!

The membership list of the Bohemian Grove has included every Republican U.S. president since 1923 (as well as some Democrats), many cabinet officials, directors and CEOs of large corporations including major financial institutions and even some Christian Church leaders. Major military contractors, oil companies, banks (including the thieves at the Federal Reserve), utilities (including nuclear power) and national media (broadcast and print) have high-ranking officials as club members or guests.

This annual event has in the past attracted both George Bush Sr and his son George Bush.

Ronald Reagan, Bill Clinton, Jimmy Carter and many US Presidents, Senators and Congressman, Presidential candidates such as John McCain and Obama. Infiltrated by an undercover news team in 2000, the licentious behavior of the participants is defined in the Bible as "spiritual wickedness in high places". These scurrilous national leaders are releasing their death culture over our country through their pagan sacrifices to Moloch, the Owl God of child sacrifices of the Old Testament.

See the video link below: On July 15, 2000, Austin, Texas-based filmmaker Alex Jones and his cameraman, Mike Hanson, infiltrated the Grove. With a hidden camera, Jones and Hanson were able to film the “Cremation of Care” demonic ceremony. The footage was the centerpiece of Jones' documentary Dark Secrets: Inside Bohemian Grove. Jones claimed that the Cremation of Care was an "ancient Canaanite, Luciferian, Babylon mystery religion ceremony," and that the owl statue was Moloch. The Grove and Jones' investigation were covered by Jon Ronson in Channel 4's four-part documentary, Secret Rulers of the World. Ronson documented his view of the ritual in his book, Them: Adventures with Extremists,¹⁶

The Sons of Belial

(Deut. 13:12-18).

In the English language, the same transliterated Greek word PHARMAKEIA is also shown in the Bible as SORCERY or SORCERIES. Here's an example:

"...for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived," (Rev. 18: 23).

So, what does this Greek word PHARMAKEIA have for a definition? According to Biblical Greek Lexicons, it means:

administering of drugs; Poisoning

In the Perseus Greek-English Lexicon, there are many variants of PHARMAKEIA listed. Here are a couple of examples: pharmakeia, the use of drugs, potions, spells, poisoning, witchcraft pharmakaô, suffer from the effect of drugs.¹⁷

"There shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch. 11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12

For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee," (Deut. 18:10-12).

The next time you get a "flu shot" or a purported "immunization" shot, think about it... you just might be allowing yourself to be subjected to SORCERY and WITCHCRAFT. Now, that's not what the media has taught us for the past 60 years, but Plato even understood the need for the rulers to deceive the people in order for the business of PHARMA to thrive.¹⁸

WIZARD'S ("black magic", "demonology"), Witchcraft Spell Casting sor·cer·y ~Spelled Pronunciation [sawr-suh-ree] Show IPA –noun, plural -eries.

Wizard is another name for a Magician (fantasy).

Witch and wizard use magic spells, magic potions, magic charms and magic power which probably work by the victim's belief.

The art, practices, or spells of a person who is supposed to exercise supernatural powers through the aid of evil spirits; black magic; witchery.

Sorcery is the art of grabbing some power from the Orb, shaping it into a spell, and throwing it at whatever you wish to alter.

AVIAN – SWINE FLU SCANDALS

“For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; (hello Obama) and shall deceive many. 6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. 8 All these are the beginning of sorrows,” (Matt 24:5-8).

“And I looked and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth,” (Rev 6:8).

Flu Pandemic Hype: Another Pretext for World Government

In November 2005, Bush announced a set of domestic measures to fight the possible pandemic which included an envelope of US$1.4 billion to go shopping for Tamiflu. This was a gift, not only for Roche and Gilead, but also for people like US Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld, board member and former chairman of Gilead. He currently owns somewhere between US$5 million and $25 million of Gilead equity, making him possibly the largest shareholder. Other people who stand to gain from this policy are Gilead board members George Schultz, former US Secretary of State and Bush campaign advisor, Etienne Davignon, Vice-Chairman of Suez-Tractebel and Honorary Chairman of Bilderberg, and John W Madigan who among other things is on the Defense Business Board, a corporate advisory council to the US Department of Defense.¹⁹

PRINCE OF DEATH

By examining what became known as ‘the US swine flu’ outbreak, we bring to light the actions of one particularly powerful, yet little known section of the US medical research community - the Epidemic Intelligence Service (EIS), a department within the US Centers for Disease Control. The interestingly named Epidemic Intelligence Service was formed in July 1951 by Alexander Langmuir, an associate professor at Johns Hopkins University School of Hygiene and Public Health. Langmuir had persuaded US health officials and Congress to grant the CDC special contingency powers to deal with future potential public health emergencies. The Epidemic Intelligence Service was granted significant spending powers and unlimited access across the medical institutions to give advanced warning of any perceived health threat, however remote. Such was the autonomy enjoyed by the EIS that one of Britain’s senior epidemiologists, Dr Gordon Stewart, described them as “the medical CIA.” [1] 20

The considerable budget allocated to the EIS helped fund the positioning of agents into local health departments and corporations throughout the United States and even abroad. Acting as the eyes and ears of the Centers for Disease Control, the mission of these agents was primarily to act as guardians of America's health and report on even the most insignificant outbreaks of illness. Such was the mandate of the EIS that from the outset, finding new diseases and tracking 'new' viruses and bacteria became fundamental to its worth and purpose.

In January 1976, five soldiers succumbed to a particular strain of flu. The EIS was the first to sound the alarm. They named the emerging outbreak 'swine flu', based on the prevailing speculation that pigs had served as the reservoir for the supposed virus. There was no evidence to support the assumption, but pigs got the blame. As Professor Hiram Caton states in his deconstruction of the epidemic, which readers are strongly recommended to study:

"The CDC's vigilance systems were triggered. The new virus was thought to represent a major mutational shift in human influenza viruses. There was no immunity to it in the general population. Could it cause a national pandemic?" [2] Such were the frightening predictions put out by the EIS concerning the destructive potential of the new disease, that President Ford and Congress panicked, allocating $135m for a 'readily available' swine flu vaccine – a sum of money which would spread itself liberally down through the epidemic research chain. The program stalled when insurers discovered that the vaccine itself produced devastating side-effects, ranging from severe fevers and malaise to paralysis and death. [3]

SWINE FLU NON-EXISTENT IN THE FIRST PLACE

A revealing paper on the true history of swine flu was written back in 1976 by vaccine historian Eleanor McBean, who stated: "There was not a certified case of swine flu in the world when they [EIS] planned it in 1976, but the multi-million-dollar swine flu vaccine campaign was foisted on the people anyway." [4]

Swine flu was to reveal itself eventually as a wholly concocted 'disease', which earned the pharmaceutical and related industries millions of dollars. McBean's in-depth report on the political machinery behind swine flu contains an uncomfortable number of similarities to other pharma-political strategies already examined. The following paragraphs are excerpted from her paper:

At the present time of writing, October 1976, a group of medical opportunists have taken upon themselves the dictatorial authority to declare the threat of a sweeping epidemic of swine flu which they said was similar to, or related to, the 1918 epidemic of Spanish influenza which wiped out 20,000,000 people worldwide.

This declaration was supposed to scare all the people into their vaccination centers to be shot full of experimental vaccine poisons, while they, the promoters, raked in the profits.

The arrangement was that $135,000,000 of the people's money was for vaccine doses for all the 215 million people in this country, at 50 cents a shot....

So many people were killed and paralyzed by the vaccine that the campaign had to be stopped.

The swine flu vaccine campaign was such an obvious fraud, with no epidemic - not even one authentic case of swine flu anywhere in the world - it makes us wonder about the sanity of the promoter.

Many people who saw through the fraud from the start tried to get warnings in the papers, on TV, and through other channels of communication, but the media turned a deaf ear.” [5]

Summarizing the situation:

The flow of disinformation was brought to the public almost exclusively through the national media outlets which had magnified the situation to monstrous proportions.

A vaccine was swiftly proffered for the solution.

$135m was paid to pharmaceutical organizations who, with their close ties to the mainstream press, were the instigators of the fearsome headlines.

Minority voices, calling attention to the extreme fraud associated with the campaign, supplied the mainstream media with all the necessary information to expose the scam.

The minority voices were completely ignored.

Does this ring any bells? Of course, swine flu has now effectively been planted into the world public psyche as ‘a proven and terribly infectious’ disease. Swine flu is still a great earner today for various corporations.

The first time I ever heard about Avian Flu, President George Bush mentioned it. Now, it is become a well know word because millions of lives are at stake with threatened pandemics worldwide. Interesting when you discover that the people who have financial interest in vaccines from Roche, which sells Tamiflu, include former President George Bush, and President Barack Obama, do I smell something stinky here?²¹

As a Senator, Sen. Barack Obama, D-Ill., said in an interview that Michael O. Leavitt, the secretary of health and human services, told senators in a closed-door briefing last week that the administration would soon place an order to raise the government’s Tamiflu stockpile to 81 million courses — up from 12 million to 13 million courses expected by the end of 2006. Obama has long been urging the government to buy more Tamiflu.

During the Security and Prosperity Partnership (SPP) Summit in Montebello, Canada in 2005, the “three amigos” (Bush, Harper and Calderon) released “North American Plan for Avian and Pandemic Influenza,” described as a “collaborative North American approach that recognizes that controlling the spread of avian influenza or a novel strain of human influenza, with minimal economic disruption, is in the best interest of all three countries.”²²

Baxter To Develop Swine Flu Vaccine Despite Bird Flu Scandal

A U.S. based pharmaceutical company that just weeks ago was involved in a scandal involving vaccines tainted with deadly avian flu virus has been chosen to head up efforts to produce a vaccine for the Mexican swine flu that has seemingly migrated into the U.S. and Europe.²³

“I experienced in the rest of the world at the hands of modern doctors was the prescribing of artificially manufactured potions and drugs, clearly defined as Pharmaceuticals, which are poisons and fulfill the true definition of Witchcraft and Sorcery.²⁶

It's been proven, both in ancient manuscripts and by modern herbologists, that the plants of the earth and the earth itself have all the necessary elements needed for our bodies to combat influenza and even the plagues of the past. The black plague, yellow fever, dengue fever, and so many others are/were a result of living conditions or human interruption of the natural ecology of the earth. Why have the majority of the world's past plagues started in cities? The humanity living in cities is living in unnatural conditions and their bodies will react to that condition quickly by deteriorating from the inside out.”²⁷

Israel was appointed as an executioner of all idolaters and in the New Testament we are not to have fellowship with reprobates or idolaters. Idolatry was a capital crime in Israel. They were ordered to stone the idolatrous person that all Israel would fear the Lord, verses 6-11.

Lastly, idolatry and witchcraft are mentioned in three passages for our admonition: (Isa. 15:23, 2 Chron. 33:6 and Gal. 5:20), “Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,” Another translation says “idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, and factions.”

BOHEMIAN GROVE MEN DANCING AS WOMEN

If you're still doubting reality: The November 1989 edition of SPY magazine featured photos of Bohemian Grove men dancing around dressed up as women. The article included artist renditions of the Moloch idol and discussed how they bus in male prostitutes and how AIDS is a big problem. In July of 2004, a New York Post article reported how a top gay-porn star, Chad Savage, serviced the moguls at the Bohemian Grove. Bigwigs who have attended the two-week retreat include George H.W. Bush, Dick Cheney, Alan Greenspan, Walter Cronkite, Newt Gingrich, Alexander Haig, Jack Kemp, Henry Kissinger, Colin Powell, John Major, William F. Buckley, Justin Dart, William Randolph Hearst, Jr., Caspar Weinberger, Charles Percy, George Schultz, Edward Teller, and former C.I.A. director William Casey.

The Canaanite deity, Moloch, was worshipped in Greece, Babylon and later in Europe. It is normally symbolized by a bull or an owl, or some type of horned beast, and children are sacrificed to it. It is the precursor of all modern death cults. What purpose does this all serve, having world leaders congregate and engage in an ancient Canaanite ritual of mock child sacrifice? It is a way of binding them together.

Nowhere is the origin of the cult more in evidence than in former German chancellor Helmut Schmidt's own autobiography, MEN IN POWERS: A POLITICAL RETROSPECTIVE. He talks about how they have their own German groves, where they do Druidic rituals, but his favorite place to do the rituals is at Bohemian Grove. This is a book you can get at the library, written by Schmidt. He talks about the Trilateral Commission, the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR), the Bilderberg Group and world government. He says that much of the decisions are made at the Bohemian Grove.²⁸

The CEO of IBM, Thomas J. Watson, was a member of Bohemian Grove, a position that was shared by his good friend, the fascist totalitarian leader of the Nazi regime, namely Adolf Hitler. IBM Germany (known in those days as Dehomag) was totally and utterly immersed in the Nazi war rollout. Nearly every Nazi concentration camp operated a Hollerith department known as the Hollerith Abteilung. The five-digit Hollerith number and customized punch card system devised by IBM was software programming in its earliest forms. These Hollerith machines computerized the civil and slave labour resources allowing for a streamlining of the process. These IBM leased Hollerith machines matched worker skills and locations with labour needs during the building of the Nazi war machine. The prisoner was worked until he was exhausted and then exterminated by gas or bullet. Fast forward to today. IBM Credit Corp. is funding the parent company of the Verichip, Applied Digital Solutions.

In this ceremony, a giant 40-foot OWL is worshipped, and a mock human being is sacrificed in effigy. The occult has always been synonymous with idolatry and Satanism. David Rockefeller is also a member of this Satanic group. Arnold Schwarzenegger has also attended its meetings. Bohemian Grove is believed to be an offshoot of the Nazi based Skull and Bones (officially known as The Order of Death). Please watch Illuminazi 911 (video — 1 Hour, 22 Minutes). Also, please watch Martial Law 911: Rise of the Police State (video — 2 Hours, 35 Minutes). The last part of this video exposes the Nazi roots of the Bush family.²⁹

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

“I have long time holden my peace; I have been still and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods,” (Isa. 42:14 and 17). 30

At the end of the world, standing before the Judgment Seat of Jesus, they will be amazed at the true spiritual importance of their god. Their hope and pride will crash to the ground when they see him;

Satan waiting for his Judgment. He said, Isaiah 14:14-18, “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.” Instead, he stands, Isaiah 14:19 [Like an abominable branch] “Like the tree abominated.” That is, as an object of abomination and detestation; such as the tree is on which a malefactor has been hanged. Isaiah 14:20 [Because thou hast destroyed thy land and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.] Isa 14:16-17, They (his followers) that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; 17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?”

These New Age Babylonians can hardly believe that the great one, Satan that they served diligently with their money, talents, body, soul and spirit; according to his pathetic prominence, standing in the Presence of Jesus; especially in contrasting him to the Divine glory of Jesus that he could have been so successful in his works of destruction.

In amazement, they will say, "that made the earth to tremble that did shake kingdoms; 17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?"

Great mighty angels of God will take their shoulders and push them to their knees. "I command you to Bow before the God of the universe!

Bowing, confessing the name of Jesus will be too late for them. At this point, they will recognize that it wasn't Satan's power at all. It was theirs. They simply gave it to him!

The Illuminati conspiracy reveals that in the coming New Age, a Babylonian worship of Lucifer. This is the power behind the Soulless ones and their sorceries is rule over a very dark world with their god Lucifer.

"Let not one of them escape," (I Kin. 18:40), Like Elijah, God's people have power too!

When the prophet Elijah had received the answer to his prayer, and the fire from heaven had consumed the sacrifice in the presence of all the people, he called upon the assembled Israelites to take the priests of Baal, and sternly cried, "Let not one of them escape." He took them all down to the brook Kishon and slew them there. So, must it be with our sins--they are all doomed, not one must be preserved.

Our darling sin must die. Spare it not for its much crying. Strike, though it is as dear as an Isaac. Strike, for God struck at sin when it was laid upon His Own Son. With stern unflinching purpose must you condemn to death that sin which was once the idol of your heart?

POWER OF GOD

Do you ask how you are to accomplish this? Jesus will be your power. You have grace to overcome sin given you in the covenant of grace; you have strength to win the victory in the crusade against inward lusts, because Christ Jesus has promised to be with you even unto the end. If you would triumph over darkness, set yourself in the presence of the Sun of Righteousness. There is no place so well adapted for the discovery of sin, and recovery from its power and guilt, as the immediate presence of God. Job never knew how to get rid of sin half as well as he did when his eye of faith rested upon God, and then he abhorred himself, and repented in dust and ashes. The fine gold of the Christian is oft becoming dim. We need the sacred fire to consume the dross. Let us fly to our God, He is a consuming fire; He will not consume our spirit, but our sins. Let the goodness of God excite us to a sacred jealousy, and to a holy revenge against those iniquities which are hateful in His sight. Go forth to battle with Amalek in His strength, and utterly destroy the accursed crew: let not one of them escapes. ³¹

"Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: 3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others," (Eph. 2:2-3).

INTERCESSIONARY PRAYER

Dear Father, according to Ezekiel 22:21, therefore, because of the licentiousness already mentioned; because of the false worship practiced; because of the false prophets tolerated; because of the unholy and profane priesthood; because of the oppressive princes; because of the unfaithful and deceiving prophets; because of the oppressions being released; and because of the total corruption of manners in all ranks, places, offices, etc.

Father God will pour out His indignation upon them; He will consume them with the fire of His wrath. Considering the above, has there not been sufficient reason why He will abandon such a people, and pour out His wrath upon them such a destructive storm of calamities.

Give us a new awakening and hunger for souls in our nation Father. Bring the Spirit of repentance in Your wings and commitment in the hearts of the people, in Jesus' name.

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land,” (II Chron. 7:14).

Pray every day that the works darkness being released from the devils from the Bohemian Grove will be bound, opposed by heaven and deactivated.

Pray secrecy to be uncovered.

Pray the church will respond and awaken to the call of God to stand in the gap to war against the powers of Satan and his agents at the Bohemian Club.

Pray against the spiritual blindness and repentance and a spiritual awakening of our nation.

Pray against the spirit of War over our Nation.

Pray for our young people in the war fields of the world.

Pray against the mass killing of babies.

Pray against Obama's Administration of socialistically taking over the Health Care of the Nation and denying medical care for our older citizens and veterans.

Pray for the lives of the American and peoples of the world to protect against taking the deadly flu shots!

Pray for God to judge the wicked, soulless men and women of Satan who want to kill 5 ½ billion people in the world for the “betterment of the planet.” They hate what they are calling “Useless Eaters” and believe they empty souls are the only people of value on the planet to have rights to live.

Have you nothing to pray for? Let us suggest the Church, the ministry, your own soul, your children, your relations, your neighbors, your country, and the cause of God and truth throughout the world. Let us examine ourselves on this important matter. Do YOU engage with being lukewarm in private devotion? Is the fire of devotion burning dimly in our hearts? Do the chariot wheels drag heavily? If so, let us be alarmed at this sign of decay. Let us go with weeping and ask for the Spirit of grace and of supplications. Let us set apart special seasons for extraordinary prayer, for if this fire should be smothered beneath the ashes of a worldly conformity, it will dim the fire on the family altar, and lessen our influence both in the Church and in the world.

This applies to the altar of the heart. This is a golden altar indeed. God loves to see the hearts of His people glowing towards Himself. Let us give to God our hearts, all blazing with love, and seek His grace, that the fire may never be quenched; for it will not burn if the Lord does not keep it burning. Many foes will attempt to extinguish it; but if the unseen hand behind the wall pours thereon the sacred oil, it will blaze higher and higher. Let us use texts of Scripture as fuel for our heart's fire, they are live coals; let us attend sermons, but above all, let us be much alone with Jesus.

May God have mercy on our nation and bless you for your prayers.

We are admonished not to have fellowship with those who practice the above as recorded in the first paragraph, (II Cor. 6:15).

If you choose to carefully look, you'll see that there is truly the Walking Dead among us. Print this off, take it to your Pastor, prayer leader, and pray. (A few Pastors will not receive this) Send to your Email list.... Keep it moving ... they are getting ready now.

REVIVAL, PROMISE OF BLESSINGS IN THE LAST DAYS

Bottom of Form
THE LAST DAY REVIVAL
David Wilkerson
January 28, 2008

What is ahead for the church of Jesus Christ? This is a question of great concern to believers worldwide. As cataclysmic events take place all over the globe, many are wondering, "Is the Holy Spirit going to revive the church before Jesus returns? Will Christ's body leave this world with a whimper or with a shout?"^{vii}

The New Testament is filled with predictions of a last-days falling away. False prophets will rise up and lead many astray. Wolves will come in sheep's clothing, bringing powerful deceptions to "deceive, if possible, even the elect of God." Wickedness will abound, causing once-hot believers to lose their first love. With the flood of iniquity to come, the love of many will grow cold.

Jesus prophesied these very things. And his warnings were meant to challenge our faith. As overwhelming iniquity floods the earth, he asks: "When the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?" (Luke 18:8).

Think about it: Christ knew everything we would be witnessing today, from horrifying school shootings, to the rise of militant homosexuality, to terrorist acts taking place throughout the world. In the midst of these things, he asks us, "Will you continue to believe, though things wax worse? Will you faint in your confidence when things don't happen as you thought they would? Or, will you continue to trust in me?"

You see, despite the rise in iniquity and great calamities, Jesus knew there would be a great last-days revival. The Holy Spirit inspired Isaiah's prophecies, and he knew full well about the prediction of a revival as the end draws near.

Isaiah said there would be a great, worldwide awakening just prior to Christ's return.

Isaiah said there would be a great, worldwide awakening just prior to Christ's return.

This prophecy is found in Isaiah 54 and is summed up in these verses: "Thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles and make the desolate cities to be inhabited" (54:3).

I believe with a number of Bible scholars that Isaiah's prophecy has a dual application. It speaks not only about natural Israel after captivity in Babylon, but also about the spiritual Israel that was to come: the body of Jesus Christ, the church of the New Jerusalem. Paul quotes from Isaiah 54 when he refers to the "Jerusalem which is above...the mother of us all" (Galatians 4:26). Paul saw Isaiah's prophecy as directed "to the children of promise," those in Christ by faith.

If Isaiah addressed his prophecy only to natural Israel, it would mean his promises haven't yet been fulfilled. In short, it has not yet come to pass that "thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles" (Isaiah 54:3). Yet that word was clearly fulfilled in Christ, at the cross and at Pentecost. Think about it: when Isaiah delivered this message, some 42,000 Israelites had come out of Babylonian captivity. By the time of Jesus, their number had increased only to about 3 million.

Isaiah refers to his prophecy as a promise from God, a sworn word from heaven. We see the Lord swearing by the mountains and even referring back to his covenant made with Noah. He says, in essence, "As surely as I won't allow another Flood on the earth, I tell you there will be an awakening of my church in the last days."

In these last days, the Lord's eye is not fixed on world powers but on the church of Jesus Christ.

In these last days, the Lord's eye is not fixed on world powers but on the church of Jesus Christ. God is not focused on the economy, on the rise of world religions, on the roaring of the heathen. According to Isaiah, the nations are to God "as a drop of a bucket" (Isaiah 40:15). They are all under his sovereign rule and reign.

He knows all about terrorist threats, wars and rumors of wars. His Word warns that the heathen will rage, secular powers will try to outlaw Christianity, and fast-growing, anti-Christ movements will boast they'll rule the world and destroy Jesus' followers. The Bible says this about it all:

"The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us" (Psalm 2:2-3). In short, "Let's cast away all moral hindrances, all moral landmarks of the past."

Here is God's reaction to these earthly powers and demon-influenced men: "He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: The Lord shall have them in derision" (2:4). No matter how desperate things look, everything remains under God's full control.

I'm thankful for this word from the Psalms. More and more, we hear reports of secularism wiping out the evangelical church in Europe, of Islam being the fastest growing religion in the world, of homosexuals hijacking entire denominations, of Christ's church growing so weak it no longer has any impact on society. Yet God's Word declares, "On Christ the Rock God will build his church."

"And the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew 16:18). Nothing from the bowels of hell can hope to destroy Christ's church. His eye is always on his people, and through everything he warns Satan and his hordes, "Do not touch the apple of my eye."

"Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake" (Isaiah 54:15). Do you see what God is saying here? "The devil is going to come at you. Enemies out of hell will gather together against you. But Satan will not succeed."

1. Everywhere we turn in the last days, we will see God's glory breaking forth in a last revival.

Let the devil do what he pleases. Let hell open its bowels and spill forth every vile thing. It won't have any impact whatsoever on God's last-day plan for his people. Glory to the Lord, his church cannot be destroyed!

1. Everywhere we turn in the last days, we will see God's glory breaking forth in a last revival.

Christ's church will stretch beyond all former limitations to spread the good news: "Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; for thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited" (Isaiah 54:2-3). Simply put, the church will gain strength and raise up multitudes in Christ.

As we look more closely at Isaiah's prophecy, we see it is meant not only for the church body but also for individual members. I know godly servants, friends of mine, who have laid hold of this prophecy as a personal word from the Holy Spirit. And they have built up their faith by its promises: "Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more" (Isaiah 54:4). Isaiah makes it clear in this verse: God's church will not go out under reproach.

Yet just a few verses down, we read this warning to the last-days church: "O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colors, and lay thy foundations with sapphires" (54:11). We are told we'll be afflicted, tossed with tempest. Yet we are also promised a foundation made of sapphires. What does this mean, exactly?

As believers, we can be under covenant with God, carrying in our hearts his precious promises of no fear, no shame, no confusion, no reproach. Yet, it is still possible for us to be tossed about by personal storms, to experience loneliness, to have no one to comfort us. In short, we are allowed to be buffeted by Satan.

In verse 16, Isaiah gives us a picture of our adversary at work. God says, "Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy" (54:16). Here is an image of a blacksmith, pumping the bellows on his fire to cause a white heat. He then uses that heat to beat and pound out weapons of warfare on his anvil. This smith represents Satan, who constantly devises new weapons against the church and individual believers.

What an incredible picture. It is as though God is saying, "Behold the devil fanning his fire, making weapons he uses to try to destroy my people. I made this smith, creating him as an angel. He once had power and authority, but he was cast down because of rebellion. I created him, and so I can chain him. He can go only as far as I permit."

Note God's amazing promise in the very next verse: "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is of me, saith the Lord" (54:17). In other words: "Let the enemy make all his weapons. Let him arm legions of demons. Not a single weapon he forms against you will bring you down." What a glorious promise!

Satan is using his weapons of hopelessness against God's people, tempests too violent to endure without the comfort of the Holy Spirit. Yet God declares, "I will lay thy foundations with sapphires" (54:11). The message here is, "When everything in the world is being shaken, you will not be moved. The foundation I'm laying underneath you is as solid as these stones. What I'm doing in you cannot be shaken."

These sapphires represent spiritual knowledge and wisdom, insights into the very heart of God. We know that those who endure suffering come out armed with greater insights into God's mercy. You may be tempted, tossed, afflicted and alone, but through it all he is forming underneath you a rock-solid foundation. It is all so that you may comfort others in their trials.

2. Paul echoes Isaiah when he says the Lord cherishes his church as a loving husband cherishes his wife. Many are familiar with the passage where Paul equates marriage to God's relationship with the church: "For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church" (Ephesians 5:31-32).

2. Paul echoes Isaiah when he says the Lord cherishes his church as a loving husband cherishes his wife.

Now note what Isaiah says: "Thy Maker is thine husband; the Lord of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall he be called" (Isaiah 54:5). Who is the Maker here? It is Christ, creator of heaven and earth. And Isaiah tells us he is our husband. However, the wife has separated herself from her husband: "Your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you, that he will not hear" (59:2).

Where do we see this separation today between the church and God? I see it most obviously in compromised mainline churches. Yet I also see it in the soft-pedaled gospel of post-modern churches. It is evident there has been a separation from God's manifest presence. Indeed, it has happened just as Jesus and Paul prophesied: many have become lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God...having a form of religion with no power...despising the gospel of their fathers...tearing down the old moral landmarks...changing God's infallible Word to suit the times.

I challenge you to go to any city, from church to church of every evangelical persuasion. Try to find one where you recognize the awesome, manifest presence of Jesus, where you encounter his heart-melting conviction. When the Lord is truly present, you recognize it, whether in the singing, the preaching or the fellowship. Something stirs your soul, and it produces an awe and a reverence. In my experience, this is rarely found.

I am not condemning the modern-day church; God forbid. But may the Lord help us if we don't have his manifest presence in these last days. And because of the compromise of such churches, he has had to hide his presence from them for a time. Yet God has not divorced the compromised church. Isaiah says he calls her to return to him:

"Thus, saith the Lord, where is the bill of...divorcement, whom I have put away? Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you?" (Isaiah 50:1). God is saying, in essence, "You walked out on me. You loved the world and the things of the world, and you left me for them. I didn't leave you; you left me. Show me the divorce papers! Show me where I sold you to another."

"Thus, saith the Lord, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money" (52:3). He continues: "I tell you, this marriage is not over. It is not hopeless. I still love you, though you prostituted yourself. You grew weary of me, but in spite of it all I love you. I want you back."

"The Lord hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy Redeemer" (54:6-8).

Here is a sworn promise by God to bring back to himself a harlot wife. In short, the last revival will be one of mercy alone. The Lord is telling his church, "When you return to me, I won't condemn you or reprove you. Instead, I will anoint you with my Spirit. I will empower you where you had no power before."

Some may still say, "Isaiah 54 applies only to natural Israel."

Some may still say, "Isaiah 54 applies only to natural Israel."

I offer indisputable proof that the promise of Isaiah 54 is meant for God's church today. Isaiah clearly speaks of Christ in 53:10: "He shall see his seed" (my italics). Simply put, Christ's travail and sacrifice will bring forth many children: "He shall see of the travail of his soul and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities" (53:11). This is all to be fulfilled after the cross.

The nails that pierced Jesus' hands and feet were fashioned on the devil's anvil. The sword that pierced his side was forged in that smith shop of hell. But the blood that poured forth from his body has never lost its power. Isaiah is telling us: "God has sworn his Son's blood will be sprinkled on transgressors in every nation on earth. It has power in every Arab nation, in Israel, in Africa, in Europe. He will see his seed spread to many multitudes, from all tribes and tongues." A great awakening will continue in the end times.

It may be discouraging to see false religions grow in great numbers while Christ's church seems so few in number. But Isaiah says, "It is time to sing, O barren wife. Enlarge the dwellings of worship, lengthen and strengthen your vision. You're going to see breakthroughs on the left and right." "Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord" (54:1).

3. How will this last revival come about?

3. How will this last revival come about?

How is this last revival going to happen? It requires something powerful, something world-shaking to precipitate it. Isaiah tells us this shaking will happen in one day. In chapter 47, he says the spirit of Babylon must be dealt with. Throughout Scripture, Babylon has always represented a spirit of prosperity, ease and pleasure. And the Babylonian spirit is the same in every age.

In short, Isaiah says there can be no widespread, last revival until the spirit of greed and false security is brought down. We can pray for revival, we can cry out to God to pour out his Spirit, but it is impossible unless the Lord first shakes all things: "Hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me... Therefore. shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know" (Isaiah 47:8, 11, my italics).

God is not going to overlook sin, but he will strike down the devil's strongholds. He's going to sound a wake-up call to his church with a "sudden desolation." Indeed, this will be a great act of love on the Lord's part. He so loves his church that he refuses to allow ease, pleasure and apostasy to blind and ruin the object of his love.

"Let favor be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly and will not behold the majesty of the Lord" (26:10, my italics). Here is proof that revival is impossible in a time of ease and prosperity. Isaiah says in plain terms, "In a time of blessing, the people will not turn." Nothing is going to happen until the pocketbook is affected. Only "when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (26:9).

Isaiah offers one final proof that a last revival will come after a shaking:

"According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense. So, shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him. And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the Lord.

"As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the Lord; my spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the Lord, from henceforth and forever" (Isaiah 59:18-21).

The spirit of Babylon is about to be broken through desolation. Yet, do not misinterpret Isaiah's prophecy as a message of gloom and doom. On the contrary, Jesus says, "When these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh" (Luke 21:28).

Even now, we are seeing the beginnings of the last revival, as Acts 2:17 is being fulfilled.

Even now, we are seeing the beginnings of the last revival, as Acts 2:17 is being fulfilled.

"It shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams" (Acts 2:17). In all my years of ministry, I have never been able to envision this prophecy happening in our day. Now I believe it is being fulfilled.

In nations everywhere, Christ is revealing himself to multitudes in dreams and visions. In China, India and Arab nations, people are reporting their experiences with Jesus in dreams. Even here at Times Square Church it is happening.

One of our church's security men was once New York's third-highest-ranking high priest in Santeria devil worship. His territory was the Bronx, and his apartment was filled with human bones. He had sold himself body and soul to Satan. But this man's heart was stirred by the Holy Spirit. He became restless, and one night he challenged Jesus, "If you are stronger than the devil I serve, show me in a dream tonight."

That night in a dream, the man saw himself on a train bound for hell. As it passed through a tunnel, on the other side stood Satan. The devil told the man, "You have been faithful to me. Now I'm taking you to your eternal resting place." Then suddenly, a cross appeared. At that moment, the man woke up.

He came out of that experience on fire for Jesus, rid his apartment of every trace of evil, and gave his life to the Lord. Today, he is a sweet, devout man of God and is active in our church. I stopped him recently and told him, "I see Jesus in you." He answered, "Brother Dave, you don't realize what those words mean to me after twenty-five years of serving the devil." His miraculous new life had all come out of that God-given dream.

Dear saint, the day is coming when the whole world will see Jesus. The apostle John envisioned "a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb" (Revelation 7:9-10).

This is not a little remnant, but an innumerable multitude, just as Isaiah prophesied. And they are all worshipping the Lord. Praise God for that promised day! ^{viii}
