1 Peter 5:8 “Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.”

It’s frightening but real! This is a stunning expose’ an incredible journey unmasking a hidden secret revelation of a small religious movement exorcist. into his sick innermost mind of religious confusion. What is more unbelievable is that no one has ever uncovered ungodly material publically exposed it.

Despite a radio host’s view that Win Worley being the most popular, greatest deliverance minister in the world is simply not true. Hardly any people in the Christian Community has ever heard of Win Worley He ministered in a small Baptist Church that his son-in-law pastors today. His books were self published and only the few people were aware in highly unpopular deliverance ministries of his day and most pastors were not interested in reading them. His impact concerning the deliverance ministry was very diminutive because of his off center views of the Bible. According to his books, Worley’s biblical knowledge are not in harmony with the Bible. Therefore, major deliverance ministers rejected his unbiblical viewpoints. They,

the pioneers of reviving deliverance as an important part of a Christian ministry, such as Derik Prince, Norman Parrish and others got busy to scripturally studying to define the principals of the deliverance ministry.

PATHWAYS TO STRONG DELUSSIONS

When one devises new ways that reinvent Christian ministry apart from sound biblical doctrines, produces powerful seeds of witchcraft. Win Worley created a dangerous cauldron of seething of evil cloaked in lies; nothing comes of it but new doctrines of devils being preached to destroy Christian souls! Jesus cautioned His believers that these methods of deception would appear in the later days.

1Ti 4:1	Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;
2Th 2:15	Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

Walter Ralston Martin, American Evangelical minister, author, and Christian Apologist's Warning to the Church (1988) "Talking to the elders in the church of Ephesus as the Apostle Paul is preparing to go to Jerusalem where he will be bound by the Jews, and later to die. The apostle speaks these words and Luke records them, Acts 20:26. That is a direct quote from Ezek. 34 the scripture says if you do not warn the wicked man of his wicked and he dies in his sin, I will hold you accountable for it. So we are supposed to warn the wicked (false ministers) of the wickedness they perform and also of the judgment of God upon them. If we don't, we become accessories after the fact of their sin.

Professor Martin believed that learning about historical Christian doctrine and the errors of the cults is extremely important So, he specialized his ministry to expose the cults. Walter's serious look into this field without any worry about the Church's ridicule made an impact on me providing answers to life's difficult questions and reasons for faith.

Martin writes, "Ezek. 34 says, I want you to know I am free from the blood of all mankind because I am giving you the whole counsel take heed there unto yourselves and all the flock unto which the Holy Spirit has made you rulers. The Greek word episcopos a ruler to tend therefore to the church of God which Jesus has purchased with his own blood, "For I know this after I leave you savage wolves shall enter in among you and will not spare the flock." No mercy and notice this from your own selves men shall arise speaking contrary things to draw away disciples after themselves. Therefore watch and remember for a period of three years I did not cease to warn everyone night and day to the point of tears."

WIN WORLEY AND HIS MASONIC BAPTIST OSAS AND OTHER UNSCRIPTUAL TEACHINGS

Before we get started in revealing what's wrong with following ministers that go along with teachers that reach outside firm biblical standards relating to the foundations of Word of God? Would you present yourself to a minister from the Mormon Church if he said he was a deliverance minister? Would you go to a person that is a member of the Jehovah Witness to minister to you? How about a minister that is a follower of the Third Wave? Most of you would say no! My question is this, why would you present yourself to people who are follow the doctrines of an OSAS Baptist man who reinvented the deliverance ministry to fit into his own delusions and false doctrines?

Let's look at Paul's warning here: "From your own selves v.30 you ought to mark church itself, men (or women) will arise. It does not say possibly, could, he said will arise. They will speak contrary the meaning of the word in the Greek, King James says perversion, the word in the Greek is contrary. They will speak contrary things for the purpose of drawing disciples after themselves.

Acts 20:28- "Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood. <sup>29</sup>For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>30</sup>Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them."

OSAS WIN WORLEY THE GENERAL'S HOST OF HELL

Here are a few examples from an OSAS Baptist minister named Win Worley who popularized his many false doctrines that he devised similar to strategies resembling a worldly military science or art of planning and conducting a war or a military campaign in the flesh. Worley is known in many of his followers as "the general." Therefore, I will quote his booklets in his own words revealing his reconstructions of the methodologies of "exorcising" demons... Jesus calls it casting out demon. The discerning doctrines and demons are encouraged by Jesus and His disciples. Also, Jesus' followers throughout the ages have carefully pointed out people's doctrines that have departed from the foundations of the Word of God.

In one particular Worley booklet that teaches how to defeat a spirit called Mind Control and another Scriptural spirit called Leviathan (see Job 41, Psalm 74:13-14, 104:26, Isaiah 27:1) which he totally worked hard to distort, we read this:

Worley set in motion new notions concerning his new ideas taught as truth. "Because Leviathan and Mind Control are represented as sea monsters, we are able to loose spirits patterned after creatures in the ocean to attack them. (There is no Biblical foundation). Jesus gave His followers the same powers that He has Matthew 16:19 "And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." However, Worley does not seem to express himself and new doctrine in biblical terminology.

First, bind the strongman and burn out the witchcraft of the Third Eye. Call for angels to protect the person from being hindered in deliverance and to put shields in every direction to cut off all evil supply lines. (No Bible foundations). Again, he tells his followers to bind the strongman and "burn out the witchcraft of the Third Eye without a clear biblical foundation to lay his teaching upon. I was alive during this time and believe me, Americans would not understand anything about witchcraft or the “Third Eye.” His teaching is very contradictory to sound biblical doctrines according to the Word. 2 Timothy 4:3 “For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;”

Worley walks into grave darkness where no man dares to go and he tells his students, “Call for a school of giant sperm whales to attack Mind Control (the giant squid). Have angels move in to cut off all tentacles, and toss parts of the whales (your friends used to help are now your enemies?). Angels with grappling hooks can tear these layers down. Call in a great white shark to attack Leviathan and devour him.” (No Biblical Foundations.) If you can find one Bible scripture for this fuzzy statement, I’ll buy you an Ice cream Sunday.

Worley going further out on the limb with shadowy, unclear teachings writes, “Call in a whole school of blue fin sharks to attack all of the connected parasitic demons such as Rebellion, Rejection, Anger, Retaliation, Violence, Murder, Rape, Infirmary, allergy, and suicide. Challenge the evil spirits to attempt to swim away while the whales and sharks are making their turns. Some will only do this only to be devoured. Gasp! (Purely mind mixing head banging lying demonic imaginations of Worley, no Biblical foundations).

Worley advises his apprentices to “Keep the attack going constantly so the enemy can get no rest. Whales and sharks have large stomachs, voracious appetites and are ruthless predators. Loose spoiler spirits to attack spoiler spirits to attack the rear guard of the enemy. They will uproot, drive, and destroy. (With the sole purpose of devils diversified bewitching Christianity and of Worley unhealthy teachings to seduce Christians that have no Biblical foundations).

Worley continues to expand into new areas of his strange areas of his crazy thinking. “This four way attack gives the demons no way of escape, so many will be knocked out in the cross fire. It is possible that the victim may gag, retch and sometimes even a bit of blood may come up as the enemy is being dislodged. In spite of this the end result will not be pain, but fatigue. Workers should loose healing on the person. (Merely having a propensity for false doctrines of devils from Worley’s demonized mind; no Biblical foundations).

Worley seems to be predisposed to cultivate a Schizophrenic, mind controlling ministry. To sum up, loose the sperm whale against Mind Control in the head; pit the the great white shark against Leviathan (the piercing serpent); send blue fin sharks to attack all other demons and diseases from head to foot; and launch the spoilers to uproot and destroy.” (Purely sick imaginations of Worley who evidently does not have a sound mind and absolutely no Biblical foundations).

Where is the name of Jesus in this master of confusion? “Take heed that no man deceive you” (Matt. 24:4). Such were the first words of our Lord’s reply to inquiry, “What shall be the sign of Thy coming and of the end of the age?” Matthew 24:3. No thoughtful Christian can ignore the signs which mark the days in which we live. The growth of cynicism within the churches has surpassed even the gloomiest prediction and side by side with this, the expansion of spiritualism and demon-worship has been shocking.

*Evil Spirit in the End Times"—Booklet 31—By Win Worley—wrwpublications.com

You never see Jesus telling animals to chase demons cast out demons such as mongooses and sperm whales; this is sheer delusional lunacy mental illness and is what Voodooists do... Mark 16:17-18 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; 18 .They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

These people have built a cult around Win Worley's teachings instead of studying the Bible and building their ministries around the Word of God and Jesus.

The ability of casting out demons comes from having the authority of Jesus Christ delegated to you to do so. It doesn't come from your man-made knowledge and power to so or talking to demons. As a matter of fact, Jesus told them NOT TO TALK to demons!

Walter Martin was one of the few writers that challenged the powerful departures from Biblical foundations. The writers that put their fingers on the darkness that was rising in the Christian Church usually walked alone like Jeremiahs of their time. Water wrote; "Notice Paul's emphasis here, Acts 20: 27, "I have not avoided declaring unto you verse 27 "all or the whole counsel of God." The whole counsel of God is to warn against the savage wolves, cultists occultists, Christian religionists, atheistic and skeptical philosophers, psychologists whatever they may be, who have attacked the church from without and some have penetrated and chewed up the church. Now the Scripture has many statements about false teachings and false prophets. Matt.7 gives one of the most frightening passages in all divine revelation it says and this is the lord Jesus speaking on the subject ( --- dressed as sheep but inwardly or spiritually you are dealing with savage wolves, you will know them by what they produce). Now Jesus has said something else that the Church has forgotten today. Jesus said in my name or if you want the actual meaning of the Greek text, by my authority name means authority. When you say "stop in the name of the Law" to criminal fleeing, you are saying stop by the authority of what? The law; the law says you can't do that. Stop! When a King pronounces judgment in Old Testament times and recent times until kings went out of fashion. In the world a ruler person would say open the door in the name of the king.

Walter Martin says, "Alright once you get that concept in your mind Jesus said there will come men who will speak claiming their authority is from me. Now get that in your head carefully. There will come men who will speak in my name. That is, I am supposedly saying this to you, that is a very important phrase. They are going to come and say I'm speaking to you in Jesus by my name; and by the power of devils, they will work miracles in my name they will claim to cast out devils, will prophesy and preach. However, when I meet them I will say leave me I never knew you workers of iniquity.

Martin asked the question, why? He answers his question, because they (illegally) use His authority and His name; the power was in Jesus name, or Jesus' authority not in them. God honored the name of his Son; and they took that as a means of teaching their own false doctrines and false prophecies and because of that they corrupted the faith of the church. But inwardly, spiritually, they are really revenging wolves in sheep's clothing! And if you don't know fleece from fur your dinner, dumb dum. And the only way you can know fleece from fur is to know how to test them. You don't test them by Walter Martin, or by Norman Geisler, as good as the apologist and defenders of Christianity might be and as much as you trust them. You don't test them by other people, you test them by Scripture.

1Jo 4:1	Beloved, believe not every spirit , but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

The deliverance ministry was a mystery in America when Win Worley stepped on the stage to develop his strange convoluted ministry. Actually, no one could discern his new complicated religious ministry. The name of Satan was never mentioned in Bible lessons and he remained hidden but extremely active in the lives of sinful Christians. Not many people were brave enough to believe solely in the Power of Jesus Christ and they certainly did not want to face Satan's influence however a few men did move forth on the platform of developing the lost principles that is shown in the Bible of casting out demons. These few men that were called pioneers totally vilified by the American Churches at the same time, witchcraft, sexual perversion, false Christianity began to explode with revolutionary wild fires.

Pastor Worley heretical new inventions of "exorcisms" which are not to be confused with the biblical doctrines of casting out demons is a witchcraft sloping occult doctrine of calling on animal spirits to enter into a person to devour another individual. There simply are no scriptural foundations for these kinds of silly tactics. Such as sperm whales and great white sharks to attack demons.

The Bible tells us to call on Jesus' Name alone for deliverance, not animals or demonic spirits. This odd practice is plain occultism. This is nowhere found in Scripture, or any form of "word of knowledge anointed by the Holy Spirit;" words we receive MUST line up with the written Word of Almighty God. Here is another example from one of Pastor Worley's most popular booklets of how to treat demons in deliverance sessions:

WORLEY'S FOOLISHNESS AND FAKE SPIRITUAL WEAPONS

Worley goes on to say, "In battling evil spirits, keep up a barrage so they can get no rest. You can loose angels (DEMONS) to spin their minds round and round so the spirits cannot think and become confused. Where is that in the Bible? Even if one had the power to do what Worley is telling them to do, what is the point of spinning a demons head around in confusion? What happened to simply commanding them to leave in the Name of Jesus?" Another thing, what is the difference in these Worleyites calling on angels to minister and do things that God has not given people the power to boss angels around. Also, God has not called angels to minister instead of humans to do the work of the ministry. He did not give angels the Great Commission; he gave it to His people with sufficient power to win every battle.

Worley goes on to teach his man-made lie: “Another way to discomfit the enemy is to ask the angel of the Lord to chase them and harass them. This biblically illiterate man does not seem to understand that “Angel of the Lord,” is none other than Jesus Christ when He appeared to men and women in the Old Testament. What a funny scene he paints here in his badly informed followers; Worley asking the God of the universe, to chase demons and harass them. LOL. “I often asked,” said Worley, “that the angels bruise, crush, and flatten the heads of the serpentine spirits and snip off the tails of the scorpion spirits.” Then again, he goes on with his silly false doctrines, “telling angels to do things that God has NOT called them to do.

This spiritually blinded “pastor” went on to describe his idiotic new deliverance ministry. “Another useful tactic after demons manifest is to order the princes and rulers to be bound with chains and thrown down before the other spirits (Psalm 149). There is not one word in Psalms 149 showing a human ordering demons to be bound with chains. As this spiritually sick man describes in his imaginary warfare. This particularly scripture demonstrates humans fighting humans.... <sup>5</sup> Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds. <sup>6</sup> Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand; <sup>7</sup> To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people; <sup>8</sup> To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron.” Thus we see Worley twisting scriptures to mean what they do not say.

Worley then suggests a new technique. “Ask that on their foreheads be written in red letters “Jesus Christ is My Lord.” THIS IS NOT IN THE BIBLE “Next, he says, “tell all the little spirits inside (who are already programmed to destroy) that there are traitors in the camp and they must attack and throw them out. He is teaching his students that they have cajole the “little spirit” to get them to come out. “They are, of course, chained and have the signs on their heads. Sometimes it takes a lot of prodding,” Worley contends, “but often the bigger demons are savagely attacked and thrown out while they are bound and helpless. This is because the believer takes authority...” WOW! Another made-up defense that is not shown in the Word of God! Matter of fact, all God’s powerful spiritual weapons are completely ignored by the spiritual ignorance by lack good sense or judgment of man’s schemes.

“...Psychological warfare is in order. Spirits are not equally susceptible, so the approach must be suited to whatever will cause the demon to slip and be defeated.” Worley is unqualified spiritually to cast a demon out as demonstrated by Jesus’ disciples; therefore, he has to devise stupid tricks to sort of fool the demons to get them out. It seems to me that Satan chose him to confuse the deliverance ministries that God was bringing forth during this time.

His senseless newly created bizarre vision for “exorcizing” of demons go on with his insane plots. “With many, an appeal to their enormous vanity is effective: “You must be very strong/wise/powerful. I guess you are very intelligent. Have you done your job well? Let’s have a friendly (!!!) little chat.” I must give this crazy boo-boo a double Wow! This is absolutely the most absurd statement yet. There simply is no scripture that shows a demon has to coerce, lie, and hoodwink, mock, coach a demon to make them leave. In fact the Bible shows them utterly defeated and having to bow their knees to the power of the name of Jesus.

JESUS' AUTHORITY OVER DEMONS GIVES HIS BELIEVERS HIS POWER TO CAST THEM OUT

All authority is vested in Jesus Christ, yet He has given His authority to us to overcome all the power of the enemy. Demons get their "authority" from Satan who is a defeated foe. Knowing authority of Jesus Christ enables one to enter into spiritual warfare with faith to overcome every demonic power. His power is "Far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every title that can be given, not only in the present age but also in the one to come," Ephesians 1:21. Jesus' power is above all the power of Satan and his fallen hosts.

Each Christian deliverance minister must learn that he has power over any and every demonic strong man. We as true believers in the Lord Jesus Christ can bind and cast out demons. "I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you," Luke 10:19. The believer in Christ has not only the spiritual ability of the Holy Spirit in him, but also the authority of the name of Jesus. "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given unto me, therefore go . . ." Matthew 28:28. Jesus gave the power and authority to all His followers and deliverance ministers to go. The name "Jesus" is the deliverance minister's absolute legal right of unconditional authority to cast demons and their satanic rank has no superior power to refuse to bow their knee and obey the name of Jesus.

Comparing the power of Jesus to Worley's religious confusion is astounding. He goes on to teach his watered down false gospel to say, "To punish reluctant demons I ask the Father, in Jesus' Name, to send warrior angels with swords to chain the rulers and throw the fire of God on them. This is the most asinine thing that I've heard so far. First place, the Father has already given Worley His plan for casting out demons and so far, he's striking out one hundred percent trying to figure spiritual warfare with his simple confused mind.

We are reminded :"As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him: Rooted and built up in Him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily," Colossians 2:6-9.

This deceived man turned the deliverance ministry similar to a computer war game that consist of simply talking to demons to get his superficial deliverance strategies goes on to suggest his idiotic set of guidelines: "Sometimes I threaten a struggling demon by telling him I will have him carved up in pieces or chopped into confetti and scattered over the dry places where it will take a hundred years to put all the pieces together." NOW THAT WHAT I CALL BIBLICAL INSTABILITY! LOL. Worley followers where is that in the Word of God? Christian friends, the only way out of this man's spiritual chaos is for you to repent and ask Jesus Christ to forgive you for following after such a spiritual buffoon. Then if your fidelity is in Jesus Christ and the Scripture, and your allegiance is the Scripture, you must reject these doctrines of devils!

Galatians 1:6 “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel.” Says Paul, in the last days, men are going to be drawn away by false teachers and prophets in the church speaking in the name of Jesus. And you’re not going to test them you’re going to go along with them. And there gonna fragment and divide the Church because you won’t test them.

“Curses and Soul Ties/Binding and Loosing Spirits—Win Worley—www.wrwpublishations.com

OH MY GOODNESS NOW WE CAN CLEARLY SEE “JEZZY” T

This gluttonous, 500 pound Ahab styled man who evidently had women cook him many meals confronts a woman that he claims Jezebel spirits manifest by stating “Hi Jezzy, it’s your favorite preacher! I loose the hounds of heaven on you!” Again, I cannot find any supernatural beings called the “hounds of heaven”. And there are no scripture in the Word of God that calls Christian women “Jezebels or Jezzy.” There is a reference in the book of Revelation where false ministers allow a Jezebel witch to seduce people into immorality through false prophecies.

Rev 2:20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

Jesus rebuked theremen that were in charge of the last church for allowing a witch to prophesize and seduce the men to commit fornication and worship of idols. This scripture is not talking about holy Christian women, redeemed, washed in the blood of Jesus and preaching His gospel, praying for the sick and following Jesus and His Word. Yet, these foolish followers of Win Worley treat every single Christian woman as witches, full of sin that must be placed in bondage under their unsanctified ministries.

These men seem to have a horrific, perfect hatred of women. Jesus does not does not walk in agree with Worley’s interpretations of the Word concerning taking Baptist doctrines and twisting the Bible to say things that it does not teach about women or deliverance. He never bashed women in the name of deliverance exposing their secret sins by letting demons blabber them out so that onlookers could hear them and acquire a low opinion of women. This is not what Jesus’ had in mind when He gave the disciples authority to cast out demons.

ENTERTAINING DEMONS UNAWARES

Jesus never gave us power to manipulate angels. We are not to call Michael and Gabriel to come and smite demons. Where is that in the Bible? Look at Jude 8Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

Jude <sup>9</sup>Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

<sup>10</sup>But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves. Win Worley and his deceived follower have no idea what the Bible says. They only parrot his platitudes and pointless, unoriginal, or empty comments or statements made as though they biblically significant or helpful to a person’s well being.

The Bible warns about such spiritually blinded men coming in the Body of Christ dressed as sheep in wolves clothing. Wolves deceive the flock and devour them to capture their lives. The Bible reveals 2 Cor. 4:2 “But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.”

It is deceitful to replace the Power and Name of Jesus with calling on angels to spear a demon to cut them up and scattering them on the beach. to send them to Tartartus which you will find in occults teachings but is not in the Bible Old or New Testament; send whales and mongooses to attack and win victories over demons.... It is simply Satan’s sheer ability to form images and ideas in the human mind using mind's eye of deceived agents. He guides and anoints the part of the mind where ideas, thoughts, and images are formed. Then the victim directly experiences the lies coming from the twisted minds of biblically ignorant, blinded religious men.

This fallacious manner using angels to caste demons out is no better the Third Wave using angels to heal and cast gold dust and gems in their meetings while the Bible does not give angels this kind of assignments or men and women power to boss them around. Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, the Lord rebuke thee, “Jude 6-9

TARTARUS IN GREEK MYTHOLOGY

Speaking of Tartarus, and Win Worley concept about this place is simply not scriptural this word is not found in the Bible, but is found in the book of Enoch. Tartartus, as you know, I do not receive the book of Enoch as being divinely inspired.

http://www.jesus-is-savior.com/Wolves/book\_of\_enoch.htm

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gaJKPSy8a1k>

Do not receive these Catholic Episcopal references.... Tartarus occurs in the Septuagint of Job 40:20, 41:21 but otherwise is only known in Hellenistic Jewish literature from the Greek text of 1 Enoch 20:2 where Uriel is the jailer of 200 angels that sinned. [3]

In Greek mythology, Tartarus is both a deity and a place in the underworld even lower than Hades. In ancient Orphic sources (and in the mystery schools), Tartarus is also the unbounded first-existing entity from which the Light and the cosmos are born.

In Hesiod's Theogony, c. 700 BC, the deity Tartarus was the third force to manifest in the yawning void of Chaos.

As for the place, the Greek poet Hesiod asserts that a bronze anvil falling from heaven would fall 9 days before it reached the Earth. The anvil would take nine more days to fall from Earth to Tartarus, (equivalent to 2,900 million kilometers of free-fall). In The Iliad (c. 700), Zeus asserts that Tartarus is "as far beneath Hades as heaven is high above the earth." It is one of the primordial objects that sprung from Chaos, along with Gaia (Earth) and Eros (Desire).

While, according to Greek mythology, The Realm of Hades is the place of the dead, Tartarus also has a number of inhabitants. When Kronos, the ruling Titan, came to power he imprisoned the Cyclopes in Tartarus and set the monster Campe as guard. Some myths also say he imprisoned the three Hecatonchires (giants with fifty heads and one hundred arms). Zeus killed Campe and released the Cyclopes and the Hecatonchires to aid in his conflict with the Titan giants. The gods of Olympus eventually defeated the Titans. Many, but not all of the Titans, were cast into Tartarus. Epimetheus, Metis, and Prometheus are some Titans who were not banished to Tartarus. Cronus was imprisoned in Tartarus. Other gods could be sentenced to Tartarus, as well. Apollo is a prime example, although Zeus freed him. In Tartarus, the Hecatonchires guarded prisoners. Later, when Zeus overcame the monster Typhon, the offspring of Tartarus and Gaia, he threw the monster into the same pit.

Originally, Tartarus was used only to confine dangers to the gods of Olympus. In later mythologies, Tartarus became the place where the punishment fits the crime. For example:

- Sisyphus was sent to Tartarus for killing guests and travelers to his castle in violation to his hospitality, seducing his niece, taking his brother's throne, and betraying Zeus' secrets. One of Zeus' secrets that Sisyphus gave away is that he reported one of Zeus' sexual conquests telling the river god Asopus of the whereabouts of his daughter Aegina. Zeus had taken her away but regardless of the impropriety of Zeus' frequent conquests, Sisyphus overstepped his bounds by considering himself a peer of the gods who could rightfully report their indiscretions. When Zeus ordered Thanatos to chain Sisyphus in Tartarus upon his death, Sisyphus tricked Thanatos by asking him how the chains worked and ended up chaining Thanatos which caused no one to die. This caused Ares to free Thanatos and turn Sisyphus over to him. Sometime later, Sisyphus had Persephone send him back to the surface to scold his wife for not burying him properly. Sisyphus was dragged back to Tartarus by Hermes when he refused to go back to the Underworld. In Tartarus, Sisyphus would be forced to roll a large boulder up a mountainside which when he reached the crest, rolled away from Sisyphus and rolled back down repeatedly. This represented the punishment of Sisyphus claiming that his cleverness surpassed Zeus causing the god to make the boulder roll away from Sisyphus binding Sisyphus to an eternity of frustration.
- Tantalus was also in Tartarus after he cut up his son Pelops, boiled him, and served him as food when he was invited to dine with the gods. He also stole the ambrosia from the Gods and told his people its secrets. Another story mentioned that he held onto a golden dog forged by Hephaestus and stolen by Tantalus' friend Pandareus. Tantalus held onto the golden dog for safekeeping and later denied Pandareus that he had it. Tantalus's punishment for his actions (now a proverbial term for temptation without satisfaction) was to stand in a pool of water beneath a fruit tree with low branches. Whenever he reached for the fruit, the branches raised his intended meal from his grasp. Whenever he bent down to get a drink, the water receded before he could get any. Over his head towers a threatening stone like that of Sisyphus.

- Ixion was the king of the Lapiths, the most ancient tribe of Thessaly. Ixion got mad at his father in law and ended up pushing him onto a bed of coal and woods committing the first kin-related murder. The princes of other lands ordered that Ixion be denied of any sin cleansing. Of course Zeus took pity on Ixion and was invited to a meal on Olympus. But when he saw Hera, he fell in love with her and did some under the table caressing until Zeus signaled him to stop. After finding a place for Ixion to sleep, Zeus created a cloud-clone of Hera to test him and Ixion made love to her which resulted in the birth of Centauros who mated with some Magnesians on Mount Pelion engendering the race of Centaurs (who are called the Ixionidae from their descent). Zeus ended up driving Ixion from Mount Olympus and then struck him with a thunderbolt. He was punished by being tied to a winged flaming wheel that was always spinning first in the sky and then transferred to Tartarus. Only when Orpheus came down to the Underworld to rescue Eurydice did it stop spinning because of the music Orpheus was playing. Ixion being strapped to the flaming wheel represented his burning lust.
- In some versions, the Danaides murdered their husbands and were punished in Tartarus by being forced to carry water in a jug to fill a bath which will thereby wash off their sins, but the jugs were actually sieves so the water always leaked out.<sup>[1]</sup>
- The giant Tityos was slain by Apollo and Artemis after attempting to rape Leto on Hera's behalf. As punishment, Zeus has Tityos stretched out in Tartarus and tortured by two vultures who fed on his liver. This punishment is extremely similar to that of the Titan Prometheus.
- King Salmoneus was also mentioned to have been imprisoned in Tartarus after passing himself off as Zeus causing the real Zeus to smite him with a thunderbolt.

According to Plato (c. 427BCE), Rhadamanthus, Aeacus and Minos were the judges of the dead and chose who went to Tartarus. Rhadamanthus judged Asian souls; Aeacus judged European souls and Minos was the deciding vote and judge of the Greek.

Plato also proposes the concept that sinners were cast under the ground to be punished in accordance with their sins in the Myth of Er. Cronus (the ruler of the Titans) was thrown down into the pits of Tartarus by his children.

There were a number of entrances to Tartarus in Greek mythology. One was in Aornum.<sup>[2]</sup>

[edit] Tartarus in Roman mythology

In Roman mythology, Tartarus is the place where sinners are sent. Virgil describes it in the Aeneid as a gigantic place, surrounded by the flaming river Phlegethon and triple walls to prevent sinners from escaping from it. It is guarded by a hydra with fifty black gaping jaws, which sits at a screeching gate protected by columns of solid adamantine, a substance akin to diamond - so hard that nothing will cut through it. Inside, there is a castle with wide walls, and a tall iron turret. Tisiphone, one of the Erinyes who represents revenge, stands guard sleepless at the top of this turret lashing a whip. There is a pit inside which is said to extend down into the earth twice as far as the distance from the lands of the living to Olympus. At the bottom of this pit lie the Titans, the twin sons of Aloeus, and many other sinners. Still more sinners are contained inside Tartarus, with punishments similar to those of Greek myth.

[\[edit\]](#) New Testament

Tartarus occurs in the Septuagint of Job 40:20, 41:21 but otherwise is only known in Hellenistic Jewish literature from the Greek text of 1 Enoch 20:2 where Uriel is the jailer of 200 angels that sinned.<sup>[3]</sup>

In the New Testament the noun Tartarus does not occur but tartaroo (ταρταρώω, "throw to Tartarus") a shortened form of the classical Greek verb kata-tartaroo ("throw down to Tartarus") does appear in 2 Peter 2:4. Liddell Scott provides other uses for the shortened form of this verb including Acusilaus (5thC BC), Joannes Laurentius Lydus (4thC AD) and the Scholiast on Aeschylus, Eumenides who cites Pindar relating how the earth tried to tartaroo "cast down" Apollo after he overcame the Python.<sup>[4]</sup> In classical texts the longer form kata-tartaroo is often related to the throwing of the Titans down to Tartarus.<sup>[5]</sup>

The ESV is one of several English versions which gives the Greek reading Tartarus as a footnote:

For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell [1] and committed them to chains [2] of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment;"
Footnotes [1] 2:4 Greek Tartarus

Adam Clarke reasoned that Peter's use of language relating to the Titans was an indication that the ancient Greeks had heard of a Biblical punishment of fallen angels.<sup>[6]</sup> Some Evangelical Christian commentaries distinguish Tartarus as a place for wicked angels and Gehenna as a place for wicked humans on the basis of this verse.<sup>[7]</sup> Other Evangelical commentaries, in reconciling that some fallen angels are chained in Tartarus, yet some not, attempt to distinguish between one type of fallen angels and another.<sup>[8]</sup>

[\[edit\]](#) Biblical Pseudepigrapha

The Book of Enoch, dated to 400-200 B.C., states that God placed the archangel Uriel "in charge of the world and of Tartarus" (20:2). In 1 Enoch, Tartarus is generally understood to be the place where the fallen Watchers are imprisoned.

HOWEVER IN WORLEY-LAND DEMONS FEAR TARTARUS

Give me a break! Worley claims “Demons fear this place exceedingly and tremble, saying it is dark (once again, engaging in conversations with demons) filled with black flames, that the inhabitants are bound by chains, cannot communicate with each other, and it is a horrible place to go, filled with misery.” So there you have it, again, this so-called Bible teacher gets his information the demons that he talks to receive his information to cast them out. Why in the world would someone become so deceived that they believe a demon would tell them truth to enable them to supposedly cast them out. It is a lie, I tell you.

Win Worley's reinventing the deliverance ministry according to his own madness is simply his creation to devist the ability to think of new unscriptural ways of dealing with difficulties or problems of making demons leave, (which I do not believe they are leaving because Jesus said, "Satan cannot cast out Satan...

Mat 12:25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

Worley continues his delusional rules or man-made up principles that form the basis of his beliefs, theories, or policies that forms the unscriptural creation of "Exorcizing demons which do not depend on Jesus or His Word. Worley thinks that he is very clever to come up with some of his insane measure to practice his insanity of "exorcism.", "A threat to send stubbornly resisting demons to Tartarus as punishment for their resistance has often caused them to capitulate more easily (it worked!!). To send one there as an object lesson has also proven helpful in dealing with other demons in the same person. Evil spirits are punished severely by satan (sic) for failing to hold their ground and this explains their desperate resistance to expulsion."

We must see that this illegally devised ministry really only the power of a man who believes that he must outsmart the wiles of Satan. He tells you that you have to trick him or pull the wool over him for you weak authority to work. I hope you have noticed that he never mentions Jesus or His Word. Worley is really a fool

Once again, we see another example of charismaniac behavior. One verse is quoted, than an entire doctrine is built upon that one verse. Let's see what this passage says:

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. 2And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. 3And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. 4For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;" 2Peter 2:1-4.

- Demonology and deliverance plays into mind control and mind Control is more than using psychological techniques. Mind Control concerns evil men and women in the hand of Satan using demons and KUNDALINI spirits

- , witchcraft to product spiritual slaves. The burgeoning field of holistic medicine shows a tremendous amount of experimentation involving the reinventing of many techniques long practiced in shamanism, such as visualization altered state of consciousness, aspects of psychoanalysis, hypnotherapy, mediation, positive attitude, stress-reduction and mental and emotional expression of personal will for health and healing. These reinvented techniques, are taught in many New Age seminars, personal transformation courses and in numerous New Age books (some of which are sold in Christian bookstores). This quackery is being used by teachers, college professors, nurses, doctors, businessmen and people from all walks of life. We know what force is working behind the scenes to make shamanic magicians more common than the “Old Age” church Gospel.

I’ve taken the time to introduce to very sick man Schizophrenic man to encourage you to flee from his incompetent or irresponsible teachings showing a complete lack of reason or foresight.
