“...after two thousand years, with deepest emotion I recognize more profoundly than ever before the fact that it was for this that He had to shed his blood upon the Cross.” – Adolph Hitler

These words were spoken by Hitler himself and this is a far more forthright confession of faith than President Bush has made. Each heaped praise for themselves by Apostate Christendom. Christians of Nazi Germany who did not go along with the Nazi program were shamefully persecuted and some were imprisoned and killed. Those that spoke out about what Hitler was doing were treated like the 'terrorists' of America's Concentration camps. The rest of the Church was basically left alone, as long as they kept quiet about Hitler's evil. When asked where he got his inspiration on the changes he was making to his 'Reich' he said “from Gods word”. Occult government must deceive and pacify the Church in order to gain power and this is what Hitler as well as Himmler and the SS did with remarkable skill and success. ¹

RELIGIOUS MALAISE

America is rapidly falling into a sea of religious and moral confusion as many of the leaders of the Christian churches do nothing but follow after wolves in sheep's clothing.

It's far past time to wake up Church! The Apostle Paul is speaking to the Christian Church in Roman's 13; he is speaking directly to Christians who, at that time, were being infiltrated by false prophets and carnal Christians. He was not speaking of nor was he defending and hiding the Roman secular government's brutish actions against both secular and Christian believers.

Hitler and his German collaborating pre-Nazi clergy used their perversion of Romans 13 to justify Christian non-involvement in government and their non-resisting subordination to tyranny...in the name of God.

Obama is attempting through the misnamed Fairness Doctrine and hate crimes to extinguish or outlaw Christians who contend that involvement in government is their incontestable sacred duty.

DEDICATED MINORITY

Obama knows well that it is the dedicated minority which determines the rise of nations to freedom, or their descent into slavery. He knows that in America, just in pre-Nazi Germany, the Christian clergy can be used to confuse, neutralize and paralyze Christians whose Romans 13 mandates from Christ Himself demand their involvement in government freedom affairs. These are Christians who understand that the so-called "separation of church and state" is a farse fabricated to preempt Christian duty to our government and to resist those who would confront forces destructive to it.

A Remnant Today there is a remnant of such Christians in America who feel the noose of tyranny tightening, and they foresee the dire consequences to their children and loved ones that will crush their liberties, just as happened in Hitler's Germany. America's clergy, excepting a remnant, are aiding Obama by default by their parroting the "separation of church and state" myth, and the freedom-killing misinterpretation of Romans 13.

Persecution of Christians can be traced historically from the time of Jesus in the first century to the present time.^[1] Early Christians were persecuted for their faith at the hands of both Jews from whose religion Christianity arose and the Roman Empire which controlled much of the land across which early Christianity was distributed. Early in the fourth century, the religion was legalized by the Edict of Milan, and it eventually became the State church of the Roman Empire. By no means was that the end of the persecution. Michael Gaddis wrote:

Christian missionaries as well as the neophytes that they converted to Christianity have been

CNS News also reports that the new sex education program in Chicago will instruct kindergartners about same-sex relationships, according to a report published by the local CBS affiliate.

"Students will also take a look at the different family structures that exist in today's society," said the CBS report.

Stephanie Whyte, the chief health officer of the Chicago Public Schools, is then quoted: "Whether that means there are two moms at home, everyone's home life is different, and we introduce the fact that we all have a diverse background."

Meanwhile, Russia has now become the moral compass of the world.

the target of persecution, many times to the point of being martyred for their faith.

In the 20th century, Christians have been persecuted by various groups, and by atheistic states such as the USSR and North Korea. The Christian missionary organization Open Doors (UK) estimates 100 million Christians face persecution, particularly in Muslim-dominated countries such as Pakistan and Saudi Arabia.^{[3] [4]} a survey reported in 2010 that at least 75% of religious persecution, reported from 2008-2010, around the world was directed at people of the Christian faith.^{[5] 2}

Understand that the Church seems to be sound asleep and not interacting against the powers of darkness that has been establishing itself within its religious system and at the same time, taking absolute dominion over the secular governments and all the religions of the world. False prophets and teachers with their "doctrines of devils" have crept into the Christian Church. You see, the Church seems to be asleep

SEX EDUCATION FOR KINDERGARTNERS

Obama says sex education for kindergartners 'right thing to do'

As we witness America being "transformed" in today's progressive era, there's simply no time for children to enjoy the innocence of childhood.

The Chicago Public Schools now mandate that the district's kindergarten classes teach sex education, as BizPac Review reported Friday. A move that's in line with a proposal President Obama supported in 2003 as an Illinois state senate and defended when he ran for president in the 2008, according to CNS News.

As can be seen in the video below, while speaking at a Planned Parenthood convention in Washington, D.C., in 2007, a teenage girl asked then-U.S. Sen. Obama what he would do to encourage the teaching of "medically accurate, age-appropriate, and responsible sex education." (See Video link here <http://www.bizpacreview.com/2013/08/31/obama-says-sex-education-for-kindergartners-right-thing-to-do-82495>).

In responding to the planted question, Obama noted that he had worked with Planned Parenthood to push a sex education bill as a state legislator.

He added that his opponent, Alan Keyes, used this as a campaign issue against him, saying, 'Barack Obama supports teaching sex education to kindergartners.

"And you know," Obama responded, "I didn't know what to tell him. But it is the right thing to do, to provide age-appropriate sex education, science-based sex education in the schools."³

MATTHEW 24: 3-8: Now as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? And what will be the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?" And Jesus answered and said to them: "Take heed that no one deceives you. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will deceive many. And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be famines, pestilences, and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of sorrows.

Matthew 24:33-34: So you also, when you see all these things, know that it is near—at the door...

PERSECUTION AGAINST CHRISTIANS WORLDWIDE

Shameful: Even Putin calls to end Christian persecution, as Obama is ‘silent’

To borrow from the musical group The Kinks, you know “it’s a mixed up, muddled up, shook up world” when Russian president Vladimir Putin becomes the leading voice for stopping the violent persecutions against Christians while the president of the United States stands silent.

Speaking at a meeting with Orthodox Christian leaders in Moscow last week, according to Life Site News, Putin said he noted “with alarm” that “in many of the world’s regions... inter-confessional tensions are mounting, and the rights of religious minorities are infringed, including Christians and Orthodox Christians.”⁴

Christian friends, whenever the Antichrist system decides to persecute Christians, it is a blind rage and terror. It does not discriminate because hypocrites, backsliders, false prophets, carnal Christians, and all the “can’t we just get along people.”⁵

Upon Putin’s ascendancy to the presidency of Russia, Time Magazine acknowledged that Putin was secretly baptized by his mother into the Russian Orthodox faith when he was born in 1952.

But even Putin’s own admission to being baptized during Russia’s Soviet era was glossed over by Time Magazine.

Instead of applauding Putin for his open Christian confession, the Jewish owned Time Magazine, (the Bronfman family owns the Time-Warner conglomerate), smeared Putin as a “colorless, ordinary man with prying eyes and expressionless face, a KGB spy who built his career on being a nonentity.”

But Putin’s “nonentity” status has gone by the wayside. Today, Vladimir Putin stands tall as a giant - not only on the world’s political and economic scene, but in the spiritual realm as well. In his own words during an Easter Service at Christ the Saviour Cathedral on April 27 2008, Putin assured the Russian people saying:

“This holiday shows just how important national traditions and spiritual values are for our people. The state will continue to provide all possible support to the Church aimed at the enlightenment and moral education of Russian citizens.” — Here.

Romans 13 KJV

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

²Whosoever therefore resisteth the power resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

³For rulers is not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

⁴For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

⁵Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

⁶For this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

⁷Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

In May of 2007, the Russian Orthodox Church in Russia united with the Russian Orthodox Church Outside of Russia, (ROCOR), which had been estranged from the Mother Church ever since the Bolshevik Revolution. (I, Brother Nathanael, attend a ROCOR church).

The Russian hierarch, Metropolitan Kirill, head of External Church Relations, is convinced, as thousands of Orthodox Christians, (myself included), and that Vladimir Putin is a deeply believing Christian man. ⁶

PERSECUTION IN AMERICA

A report by two U.S.-based religious freedom groups says anti-Christian persecution is on the rise in America.

The joint report by Texas-based Liberty Institute and Washington-based Family Research Council says groups like the American Civil Liberties Union aren't the only culprits. The report says government agencies around the U.S. are trying to push Christian expression out the door.

"It is dramatic," says Liberty Institute Founder Kelly Shackleford, of the recent hike in reported incidents of persecution. "I have been doing these types of cases for almost 25 years now. I have never seen the levels of attacks like these and how quickly they are now proliferating."⁷

Shackleford says government, from schools to social programs, is the ringleader. Read more here. ⁸

"There are children being prohibited from writing Merry Christmas to the soldiers, senior citizens being banned from praying over their meals in the Senior Center, the VA banning the mention of God in military funerals, numerous attempts to have veterans memorials torn down if they have any religious symbols such as a cross, and I could go on and on," Shackleford said. ⁹

Jer. and many other spiritual leaders spoke against both spiritual and civil authorities in the Word. Jesus also spoke constantly came against the spiritual authorities that were commanding the Jewish people of His time.

SCORCHTED EARTH POLICY

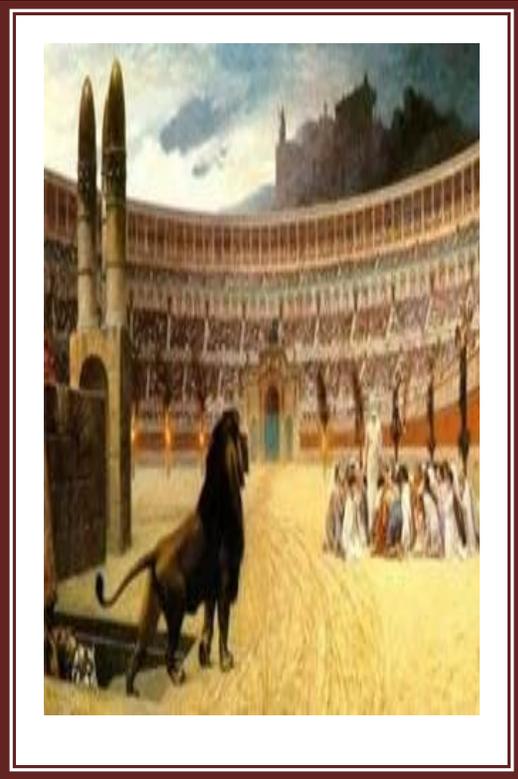

Clergy to protest at White House

Will ask Bush to reverse policy limiting chaplains' prayers

A group of clergy is planning to gather outside the White House today to ask President Bush to nullify military policies that forbid chaplains from praying in Jesus' name.

According to a statement from the National Clergy Council, Christian leaders from various denominations will hold a news conference outside Lafayette Park just north of the White House to protest what the group calls an "escalating crisis" over chaplain prayer policies.¹⁰

As WorldNetDaily reported, the U.S. Air Force released interim guidelines on religious expression in August that allow only a "brief nonsectarian prayer" during official ceremonies and events. The guidelines were developed in the wake of complaints from non-Christians at the Air Force Academy who believed Christians, both cadets and staff, were being too heavy-handed about their faith on campus. Also included in the directive is the regulation of proselytizing.

"This new policy of the military is an outrage," said the Rev. Rob Schenck, an evangelical minister and president of the National Clergy Council, in a statement. "We now have well-documented proof of this blatant violation of First Amendment guarantees. It is an egregious insult to the good men and women of every religious persuasion who serve in the chaplain corps."

According to NCC, Chaplain Gordon James Klingenschmitt, who is at risk of being fired from his post as a Navy chaplain for offering public prayers ending in Jesus' name, will join the church leaders at the protest.

"I'll be out on the street without a job," Klingenschmitt told CBN. "My family will be evicted from military housing, and I'll have no retirement after 14 years of glowing fitness reports, suddenly terminated from the Navy because I pray in Jesus' name."¹¹

In October, 75 members of Congress, led by Rep. Walter Jones, R-N.C., wrote to the president urging him to sign an executive order guaranteeing the right of chaplains to pray according to their religious traditions.

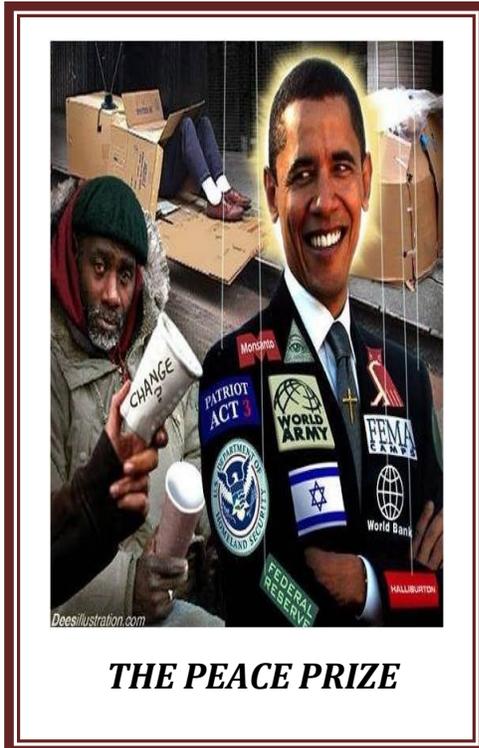

ROAD TO TYRANNY

"If you are a Christian, people know your faith, that Jesus Christ is your savior," Jones, a Catholic, told the Denver Post. "That is part of your tradition, part of your faith. Why in the world should you have to deny your faith?"¹²

The American Center for Law and Justice sponsored an online petition drive that urges President Bush to restore the right of Christian chaplains to pray "according to their faith" – for example, using Jesus' name in a prayer.

Said the Rev. Patrick J. Mahoney, a Presbyterian minister and director of the Christian Defense Coalition: "Sadly, we are witnessing a growing hostility toward expressions of faith in the public square. It is important the public be reminded that the First Amendment promises freedom 'of' religion not freedom 'from' religion. We call upon President Bush to issue this executive order allowing each military chaplain to pray according to their respective faith tradition, to ensure that religious freedom and the First Amendment are honored and protected."13

CHRISTIANS MARTYRS

The Christian church was not to be political tools for the ruling order. Many people in the world are receiving multitudes of New Martyrs every day. Unfortunately, there is hardly a push-back for these dear Saints.

Syrian Christian Village Besieged By Jihadists

*ICC Note: The Syrian town of Maaloula, once a common pilgrimage site for Christians from around the world and one of the few places where Aramaic is still spoken, has in recent days witnessed violent clashes between armed Islamist opposition groups and the Syrian army. Nuns serving at a convent in the mountain town have reported that many have come there for refuge from the fighting.*¹⁴

9/05/2013 Syria (Al-Monitor) - Jihadists from the Syrian armed opposition have opened a new battle, this time in the historic town of Maaloula on the outskirts of Damascus. Maaloula, which is one of the best-known Christian cities in the region or even the world, witnessed violent clashes yesterday [Sept. 4] between extremist militants and members of the Syrian regime army. Militants took control of large segments of this historical town.

The clashes began after a Jordanian national carried out a suicide bombing at a checkpoint in Maaloula, which lies on the international highway linking Homs and Damascus, 50 kilometers [31 miles] from the capital. The bomber blew himself up using a car bomb, killing at least eight Syrian soldiers and wounding others.

An on-the-ground source told As-Safir that the checkpoint bombing was the first step in "the battle to liberate Maaloula." He said, "Yes, our brothers the mujahedeen announced the start of a battle to conquer the capital of the crusaders." He added, "Our brother, a warrior named Abu Haytham al-Urduni, attacked the Alawite army's checkpoint using a car bomb. Afterward, our brothers the mujahedeen entered the city to liberate it."

The way in which the checkpoint was attacked resembles the method used by the Jaish al-Muhajireen al-Ansar in storming the Menagh military airport in the northern outskirts of Aleppo. A Saudi national carried out a suicide bombing at the airport's gate before militants entered the area. According to the same source, the attack on Maaloula was coordinated by several militant Islamic organizations, including Jabhat al-Nusra in Qalamoun, the Islamic Ahrar al-Sham movement and the Qalamoun Liberation Front, affiliated with the Brigades of the Descendants of the Prophet.

Meanwhile, a Syrian military source confirmed to As-Safir that clashes had taken place in Maaloula. He explained, "Terrorist groups infiltrated, and they spread throughout the town to intimidate the population. Violent clashes occurred, forcing them to withdraw and consolidate in the vicinity of the Maaloula Safir Hotel. Clashes are still ongoing."

Residents confirmed that clashes had occurred and militants were concentrated in the vicinity of the hotel. The military source added, "Syrian army helicopters intervened in the clashes, in conjunction with the arrival of army reinforcements."

SPIRITUAL POWERS AND GOVERNMENTS

I Corinthians 12:28

"And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues," (I Cor. 12:28).

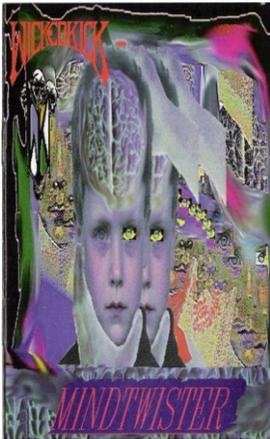

Roman 2:10- 22

"The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day-of-judgment to be punished: 10 but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. (God's Spiritual Authority). 11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee," (Jude 1:9).

Paul is not speaking about civil government in Romans Chapter two but he was speaking about false prophets: (Rom. 2: 12), "But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; 13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceiving's' while they feast with you; 14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: 15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; 16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. 17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. 18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. 19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. 20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end

POWER OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

"For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief. 5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober," (I Thess. 5:3-6).

Kissinger announced on the Stock Market floor recently that President Obama was their chosen man to bring forth the New World Order and so, there is a plan to institute a One World Government, One World Economic system and a New World Religious system.

The apocalyptic One World Government and New Universal Religion will soon step upon the world's stage revealing a despotism panorama of the future of a new world. People will be rigidly controlled by demonic power and big brother. This world monstrosity will appear to play out the final tragedies of Biblical prophecies concerning the extinction of personal and religious freedom.

“In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. 5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake,” (2 Cor. 4:4-5).

(Rev. 16:13-14), “And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.” This unholy diabolical trinity! The spiritual demons' hierarchy of control of the world; here you will notice that there are three supernatural personalities, the dragon (Satan); the beast (Abaddon-Apollyon) the king ruler of the bottomless pit; false prophet (the religious demon).

These three spirits that John saw represent lying, deceiving, seducing demon spirits that are going to be released by Satan, the Beast, and the False Prophet,

(Rev. 16:14). “For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.” This Scripture reveals the true source of the Powers of Darkness that will control those demons. This Scripture reveal that these three supernatural spirits will possess the kings of the world and the all the people of the world.

is worse with them than the beginning. 21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. 22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, the dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

SPEAKING AGAINST GOD'S AUTHORITY

The Apostle Paul was also speaking to Carnal Christians who were not frightened to speak against His Spiritual Authority; “But chiefly them that walks after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise government; Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities...” (II Pet. 2:10).

You cannot get Christians speaking against secular government out of these scriptures. These are carnal (Fleshy Christians) that speak against God's spiritual Government.

GILL'S EXPOSITION

But chiefly them that walk after the flesh, Not merely after the dictates of corrupt nature, as all men, and even God's elect do, in a state of unregeneracy; but "after strange flesh", as (Jde 1:7) expresses it, after the flesh of men: in the lust of uncleanness; not of fornication and adultery, but of sodomy, and sodomitical practices; sins exceeding great, not only contrary to the law and light of nature, but dishonorable to human nature; and are what prevail where idolatry, infidelity, errors, and heresies do; and which, as they are sins of the deepest dye, deserve the greater damnation, and are chiefly and more especially punished by God with great severity: and despise government: of parents, to whom these proud boasters and blasphemers are generally disobedient; and of masters, pretending it to be contrary to their Christian liberty; and of magistrates on the same account, and as being a restraint upon their lusts; which is to despise the ordinance of God, his representatives, and to introduce anarchy and confusion, and to open a door to all manner of sin; and also the government of Christ, as head of the church, and King of Zion, whom they will not have to reign over them, and therefore reject his laws, and submit not to his ordinances; and likewise the government of the world itself by God; and so the Ethiopic version renders it, "despise their Creator"; denying his omniscience and his providence, giving out that he neither sees, observes, and takes notice of what is done in the world; nor does he himself do either good or evil, or concern himself about what is done by men.

Presumptuous are they; bold and daring, not fearing to speak against men of the most exalted character on earth, and against God himself in heaven;(see Psa. 73:8). Self-willed; pleased with themselves, and their own conceits, their dogmas and opinions, with their high sense and profound judgment; and being obstinate in their sentiments, and resolutely bent to retain and defend them.

They are not afraid to speak evil of dignities; or "glories"; of the apostles, who were set in the first place in the church, and were the glory of Christ, (1 Cor. 12:28); or of angels, styled thrones, dominions, principalities, and powers; or rather of civil magistrates, set in high places, and to whom glory and honour are due; which to do is contrary to the law of God, and of dangerous consequence, (Exod. 22:28).

PAUL PERSECUTED

Secular Governments Persecuted Paul

Apostle Paul had many troubles with worldly rulers. He was given 39 stripes five times by the Jews, beaten with rods three times, in perils by his own countrymen and by the heathen, and frequently in prison. (See II Cor. 11:23-26). In Damascus the governor kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to apprehend Paul. "And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands," wrote Paul at (II Cor. 11:32). That is the same Paul that wrote (Rom. 13). He was forced to flee from the civil authorities; those "powers that be" that people say are ordained of God. Sorry folks, this does not compute. When Paul says, "the powers that be," he is saying the powers that be powers, are ordained of God. In other words, the only true powers are those that God ordains.

The crux of the matter is this, does Paul in (Rom. 13:1-7) argue that the civil government of this world has legitimate authority over the people of God? We believe that the obedient, called-out people of God are not bound to obey manmade civil governments. God's people are answerable to God above all else and are bound by His commands. At the same time, God's people are not to use their liberty as a cloak to do evil, to foment rebellion or waste time trying to influence the politics of the governments of this world. Furthermore, we believe Paul in Romans 13:1-7 is referring to the spiritual leaders of the Body of

The Spirit of God revealed to John in a vision that in the last days, Satan's host of demon spirits would be released upon the earth whose assignment will be to go forth to deceive the world.

This plan will consist of Satan's anointing giving his authoritative power to his son, who is united with a group of secretive, depraved, cabalistic men. It will join the iniquity of the masses and idol worship into a world witchcraft driven religion.

The Red Dragon is setting the world's stage for his great magical deception for the spirit of the Antichrist to arise up out of the Sea. Biblical scholars argue that a man that will be possessed by this demonic principality that will arise from this same sea. The prophets, Daniel, Isaiah, Micah, etc. witnessed the future and saw the son of Satan.

The Apostle John stood on the sands of the sea and saw a vision of the spirit of Abaddon the Beast arise from the Sea.

2nd BEAST COMES FROM THE EARTH

Satan must also will send another powerful angelic principality called the second beast that will possess a religious world leader called the False Prophet that will create a new religious system and turn the people's soul and spirit to worship the Antichrist as God. "And I beheld another beast (Demonic devil) coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb (imitation of Jesus), and he spake as a dragon (for Satan). (Rev. 13:11). John reveals that this religious man in whom the 2nd Beast (supernatural demon) will connect to First Beast that came out of the sea." This 2nd Beast will come from the

The Apostle John reveals the supernatural demonic 1st beast {that will control the human man called Antichrist} coming out of the Sea. John is on the shore of the Mediterranean Sea. — known as the Great Sea. This Sea demon (called the 1st beast) will possess a man (known as the Antichrist). He will rise to become the visible ruler of the world. His power will be more than that of an authoritarian, governmental dictator. He must be worshiped by the people of the world. He must reverse the laws of God and change the hearts of people. Everything that God has written in His Word will become backwards.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon (Satan) gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. 4 And they worshiped the dragon (Satan) which gave power unto the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him? 5 and there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.” (Rev 13:1-5). If you look carefully at the Scripture here, you will see that they worshiped the beast. They are not worshiping the shell of man that is called Antichrist. They are idolizing the spiritual being called the beast! Verse 4, discloses that they are worshiping the dragon (Satan).

Christ, not the civil authorities of this world.

If Paul is saying, "Obey the civil authorities," then he has a conflict in his life. Is Paul promoting Caesar or separating from Caesar? If Paul is promoting Caesar, there is no way I want Paul in my Bible. He can't work for Caesar and Jesus Christ. Caesar already has his writings; they are called "revised statutes" or the "law of the land." You can have them if you want. I would rather have God's Word. Actually that which is called the "law of the land," is the law of the devil. The term is used in the U.S. Constitution, where men claim that their laws are the supreme law of the land (See U.S. Constitution, Article VI).

GREATCOMMANDMENT

Supreme Law of the Land

"Master, which is the great commandment in the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets" (Matt. 22:36-40).

Do you know what that represents to a Christian? These two commands are the Supreme Law of the Land. If you believe that something else is the supreme law of the land for a Christian, someone has deceived you. It was a thief who drew you away from the true Supreme Law of the Land (see Jn. 10:8).

If you have the two great commandments, how much allegiance do you have left for the worldly rulers of this dark-age? Let me tell you, you have ZERO allegiance to Satan and his agents. All your time is spent "loving God" and "loving neighbor," and there is no room left over for obeying Satan and his minions.

"And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness," (I Jn. 5:19).

SUBMITTING TO JESUS

Submitting to the King of Heaven

(Revelation 17:14)

These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

This 2nd Beast demonic principality comes out of the earth; this demon will come out of underground of the earth and has a very deceptive nature. He takes on the appearance of a lamb but is actually a sheep in wolves' clothing. When he is closely examined, his words will give away his true nature. He will speak dark words of his leader Satan, and his followers will be spiritually blinded and good will seem to them bad and evil will appear to be good. The world will not have spiritual discernment so they will slavishly follow this wicked religious person.

“And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon. (Rev. 13:11). John reveals that this religious man in whom the 2nd Beast (supernatural demon) will connect to first beast that came out of the sea.”

The false prophet is possessed by another supernatural being that comes up out of the earth. This mysterious beast will come out of the earth to lead a Babylonian new world religious system for enslavement of all humans. This adulterous religious system is described as a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird.

(Rev. 18:2), “And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.”

As true followers of Jesus, we are led by the Spirit and our lives reflect the fact that we belong to another kingdom, the Kingdom of Heaven. Our stay on earth is only transitory. As citizens of Heaven, we are bound to submit and pledge allegiance to the King of Heaven and His government over us. We are not bound to obey the government of some nation just because we happen to be living within their so-called "borders."

Remember, "The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof" (I Cor. 10:26). Yet there is a pack of thieves out there who have divided up the earth and perverts are ruling over it. And they are doing it at the egging on of Satan himself.

Romans 13 has been wrongly interpreted by ruling secular governments to mean a Christian must submit to them. This misinterpretation forms a powerful weapon to neutralize and misdirect the power of God's Kingdom.

As the followers of Jesus Christ, we belong to another Kingdom, the Kingdom of Heaven. The Kingdom has its own government, its own laws, and its own leaders. Apostle Paul was not commanding us in Romans 13 to submit to the civil authorities of the kingdoms of this world. He was commanding us to submit to the authority of God's leaders who oversee the "called-out ones."

It is a fallacy that Paul was commanding Christians at Rome to submit to the secular government. It is time that Christ's followers renounce their allegiance to the ever-changing governments of men. They must set an example that there is a higher and more perfect form of government, the Kingdom of Heaven.

Of course there will be consequences. Jesus was brought to Pilate to be crucified on charges of "perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King" (Lk. 23:2). We, too, must be willing to sacrifice even our very lives to proclaim God's sovereign ruler-ship over us.

LOYALTY AND OBEDIENCE TO CHRIST

When we boldly declare that we belong to God's Kingdom, we are left with no choice but to trust God for His provision in the face of a hostile world. We quickly learn that our safety is in our obedience. To trust in carnal weapons and physical force is Demonic Dunamis operate within countries and cultures to influence certain aspects of life. Kosmokratoras are the many types of evil spirits that commonly afflict people such as spirits of deception, divination, lust, rebellion, fear, and infirmity, etc. The Bible shows that all nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality.

This religious, demon possessed man will head and control all commerce! In fact he will be a business tycoon and a False Prophet whose power exerts it quickly. In George Orwell's anti-Utopian novel, 1984, shows, O'Brien an important official who symbolizes the authority and power of Big Brother tells Winston, "power is power over people, and power is exercised only when people are made to suffer."

The False Prophet will be the religious ruler who under girds the work of the Antichrist. Both get their power from Satan (Rev. 13: 11-18). He will move to erase all traces of religion and Christianity in public. This purge of Christianity will include public property. He will arrogantly see himself as the unchallengeable molder of future generations. The spirit of Antichrist has worked for many years changing laws to affect the influence of opinion of the political, academic and media, so The False Prophet's work will move smoothly without resistance. He will control all communication, whether in the areas of mass media or traditional arts.

MAN OF PERDITION

This refers to a man so vile that he has the title "blasphemy." He will be a puppet that is carefully molded with the mind and hands of Satan.

vanity. We serve a living God. He is well able to make a way for us regardless of how much the modern day Nebuchadnezzar's rage and threaten to destroy us. ‘

Christians are in no way bound by the Scriptures to obey and support the man-made governments of this world. We are bound to live peaceably with all men to the greatest degree possible. Yet our loyalty, allegiance, and obedience must always be found at the feet of Christ. Our goal is to see souls brought to Christ. The more fully we separate from the world and consecrate ourselves to God, the more power we will have to infiltrate the hearts and minds of men with a living example of the Gospel. The world must see that God does have a people on this earth, and that His power dwells in their midst. Let us commit ourselves to His kingdom and be His people.

Romans 13:1-7

King James Bible (Translation)

1 Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. (God's selected spiritual powers; this chapter is talking about leadership in the ministry.) For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. It is not referring to either tax collectors or civil authority. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers or authorities. For there is no power (exousia) or authority but of God or of an act of God: and those that are in authority are ordained or ordered of God. When you walk with God in the body of the church, God sets the order or arrangement of the leadership in the Body of Christ and we are to subject ourselves to those leaders who are in positions of authority.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. Consequently, anyone who rebels against authority, sets oneself in opposition to the divine order and arrangement of God Almighty, and those who so resist will receive within themselves judgment, damnation, and punishment. If you oppose God's set-up, order, and arrangement, you open doors to the enemy in your life. If this happens, you have no one to blame but yourself.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil; Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For rulers or leaders ordained by God are not a terror to godly works, but to the works

Jesus said perilous times shall come; the author believes that we are living in those perilous times. Author Constance Cumbeby warned in 1984 that these perilous times were upon us. She wrote, "It is the contention of this writer that for the first time in history there is a viable movement, The New Age Movement that truly meets all scriptural requirements for the Antichrist (religious) and the political movement that will bring him on the world scene.

Cumbeby goes on to say, "It is further the position of the writer that this most likely is the great apostasy or 'falling away' spoken of by the Apostle Paul and that the Antichrist's appearance could be a very real event in our immediate future."

His religion will have the quality of blood sacrifices, incantations and spells to appease and manipulate the world of spirits. He will appear at a time of great social, political, and economic upheaval. He will win power by democratic means. Once in power, he will eliminate all opposition and launch an ambitious program of world domination and elimination of the Jews and Christians.

His plan, political goal is to consolidate world power manipulate the political system in a democracy and obtain autocratic power. He will seize power constitutionally rather than by force of arms, using demagogic oratory promising peace and creating a new empire which would rule the world for 1,000 years. The world will follow and believe him. His power will operate exactly as did the dictator Hilter. He will be demon possessed by demonic spirit named Abaddon.

of evil. Will you not then have respect for the authorities that are ordained of God? Then, continue to do right and you will have their approval, for they are God's agents working for your good.

 Before going any farther, certain figures of speech should be pointed out. In Verse one (1), the last sentence: "the powers that be are ordained of God" is the figure 'AMPLIFICATION' which is the 'Addition of conclusion by way of emphasis'. This figure is used when a concluding sentence is added to increase the emphasis. In this verse, it is used to explain and augment the force of the previous enunciation.

In verse three (3) is the figure of speech 'APOSTROPHE' which is "A turning aside from the direct subject matter to address others." It is a sudden breaking off in the course of speech, diverting it to some new person or thing. This figure is so called when the speaker turns away from the real auditory who he is addressing, and speaks to an imaginary one. In verse three (3), the figure can be recognized by the use of the word 'thou' twice. Remember, God is marking important parts in His Word with these figures.¹⁵

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. For these rulers are God's agents working for your good. But if you are doing wrong or evil, then you will have cause to fear them. For he (the ruler) bears not the sword in vain or for no purpose: for he is the minister or agent of God, a revenger executing right and justice and wrath to him that does evil, for retribution on the offender. When a person speaks the Word and is an agent for God, he allows God to be able to work and get things done. His work is not in vain by any means and those that do evil will fear that leader.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. Therefore, the believer must be lovingly in reverence and subjection, not because you know you will be corrected by the Word, if not, but build the Word in your life as a habit pattern. Then you will need no correction.

6 For this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to

There have been multitudes of world leaders, including the Popes that were thought to be the Antichrist. However, the man who will play the role of the Antichrist, will be probably be a mind controlled, multi personality, manipulated zombie, an empty suit or whose real power will be motivated by the demonic spirit named Abaddon. This Author can testify that people that she has delivered from the bondages of witchcraft or Satanism, usually involved people who have very shattered, fragmented mind. Those subjected to Satan were extremely weak and exercised very little brain power, full of mental confusion and their spirits were totally bound. They were driven by the demonic powers of darkness. The devil's battlefield is to control the mind. Satan's chosen vessel Antichrist is prepared to be subjected to Abaddon's malefic design by intensified training in Luciferin skill of magic witchcraft, sorcery, divination. The Word clearly shows that Satan chooses and gives him all the characteristics of intelligence and authority. His charismatic power over the people's minds will not be because of his physical magnetic presence or his intelligence activities but his spiritual conditioning and connections with the spirits of the underworld. He will be a demagogue, a first-class wizard, educated by the powers of darkness.

There is a description of this demonic beast in (Rev. 13:2), "And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon (Satan) gave him (the beast known as Abaddon in Rev. 9:11) his (Satan's) power, and his (Satan's) seat, and great authority. (Rev 9:11), "And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon." Therefore, we see that Abaddon-Apollyon left his kingship from the bottomless pit to become the spiritual kingship over the earth, and the dragon (Satan) gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority."

FALSE CHRISTIAN CARNAL CHRISTIANS

(I Pet. 2:13).

Many church leaders have been taught to misinterpret (Rom. 13) to stand for Christian to obedience to the civil government. Since (I Pet. 2: 13) concerns false teachers and carnal Christians, it reinforces Paul's traditional meaning that he was citing spiritual ministers of God's authority. Both apostles were writing to the church during a time when they were suffering persecution by governing authorities. Peter informs the people that throughout this time, they should not conform. Peter reveals in (I Pet. 2:14) same as Paul in (Rom. 12:2) which stresses the importance of hold onto their faith; I Pet. 2: 7, 8) same as (Rom. 12: 11, 13) and inspires them to love, (II Pet. 2:17, 22) identical to (Rom. 12: 9).

Peter commended the church in the first chapter because they were sustaining their faith in Jesus, "...though now for a while . . . you have been grieved by various trials," (I Pet.1:6); he urges them to continue enduring in the spirit. Peter's concern was to instruct the persecuted church that they should do good in the face of evil and in (II Pet 2:12) that they should do good works so that evildoers will observe them and they should glorify God when it is their time to be persecuted. The purpose for doing this is not to show obedience to the government, but to expose their hypocrisy and to "silence the ignorance of foolish and ignorant men," (II Pet. 2:15).

By abstaining from any wrongdoing against Christ's commands and not resisting any suffering that comes their way; their actions will be "commendable before God" (II Pet.2: 21). By doing good therefore, their persecutors will not be able to justify the violence they are using against innocent people in the same way that those who killed Jesus and caused him to suffer will not. The heart of what Peter is trying to convey to the church can be found in (II Pet. 2 19-21) and not in (II Pet 2 13). His command is not obey the government. He is stressing what Paul said and what Jesus commanded on the sermon on the mount; "Blessed are the you when they revile you and persecute you and speak evil against you for my name's sake."¹⁶

Corresponding to (Romans 13, 1 Peter is not a call to obedience to government. It is a call to follow Christ's footsteps by not resisting suffering for the name of God. 17

HITLER AND OBAMA

Hitler, Obama and Romans 13: 1-4

In fact, v. 23 in 1 Peter Ch. 2 is a direct reference to that.

Is Romans 13:1-4 “religion”, or hard core politics about freedom and government tyranny?¹⁸

Hitler and his German collaborating pre-Nazi clergy used their perversion of Romans 13 to justify Christian non-involvement in government and their non-resisting subordination to tyranny...in the name of God.¹⁹

Obama is attempting through the misnamed Fairness Doctrine and hate crimes to extinguish or outlaw Christians who contend that involvement in government is their incontestable sacred duty.

The Dedicated Minority

Obama knows well that it is the dedicated minority which determines the rise of nations to freedom, or their descent into slavery. He knows that in America, just in pre-Nazi Germany, the Christian clergy can be used to confuse, neutralize and paralyze Christians whose Romans 13 mandates from Christ Himself demand their involvement in government freedom affairs. These are Christians who understand that the so-called “separation of church and state” is a false fabricated to preempt Christian duty to our government and to resist those who would confront forces destructive to it.

A Remnant

Today there is a remnant of such Christians in America who feel the noose of tyranny tightening, and they foresee the dire consequences to their children and loved ones that will crush their liberties, just as happened in Hitler’s Germany. America’s clergy, excepting a remnant, are aiding Obama by default by their parroting the “separation of church and state” myth, and the freedom-killing misinterpretation of Romans 13.

Romans 13: Curse or Blessing?

So, what IS Romans: 13 which opened the Hitler’s door to genocide of millions of both Jews and Christians, and paved the way for absolute evil to subjugate an entire nation of men, women and children?

Romans 13:1

Romans 13:1 reads: Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God.

The pre-Nazi clergy and Hitler contended that Romans 13:1 meant that government affairs are in the hands of God, and that

The Bible clearly refers to by name the spiritual ruler of the world that will come out of the sea, as the beast called Abaddon also known as Apollyon in Revelation (9:11). Although seemingly different names, it is the same spirit. The description concludes with the word that covers this creature is the angel of the abyss, called in Hebrew, Abaddon, and in the Greek, Apollyon, and the latter meaning “destroyer.” In the Septuagint the word carries this idea in (Job 26:2; 28:22; Prov. 15:11, etc.); another form is the word translated “destruction” in (Matt. 7:13), and “destroy” in (2 Thess. 2:8).⁹

In Revelation 9:1-11, Abaddon is clearly identified as the king of the evil spirits released from the Abyss. This fact identifies him throughout the rest of the book of Revelation. Twice specifically, and once symbolically, Abaddon is referred to as the “beast” who is to come up out of the Abyss:

The False Prophet will never try to promote himself and will not become an object of worship. He will imitate the work of the Holy Spirit and direct attention away from himself to the one who he says has the right to be worshiped, the Antichrist. He will cause the supernatural action, copying the miracles of Elijah to convince the nation Israel that he is the Elijah whom Malachi promised was yet to come (Mal. 4:5-6). He will even call fire down from the heavens to prove he is Elijah and announce to Israel and the world Antichrist is “the Christ” (not Jesus Christ), and must be worshiped!

John identified this man as a Middle Easterner coming to power where in the same region all prior world empires previously existed. This Beast and his Kingdom are the ultimate expression of all previous human kingdoms, such as a leopard (Grecian), Bear (Media-Persians), lion (Babylon). The last great kingdom in this dream embodies all the viciousness, wealth, paganism, lust greed, filth of poverty, past and present of the Babylonians, Media Persians, Grecian, and Romans. . . . All under the control of the ultimate demonic spirit called Beast named Abaddon.

Through the Antichrist will be able to hypnotize the masses, his ability to mesmerize the world by demonic power will be his greatest ability. It will not embody his great personality. He will be an ordinary man full of occult energy. They will follow. Antichrist will just be a demon possessed, purposeful driven man. He will want to control the absolute destiny of the world. It is the spiritual power behind the throne that we must examine.

Antichrist will be an intellectual man of high caliber but thoroughly confused by demonic power. He will be the ultimate political ruler who arises to power speaking peaceful solutions to serious unsolvable problems by promising a new world utopia but he will actually do the work of Satan. He will appear the diplomat - a peacemaker and perfect gentleman, while ruling with an iron hand. Nevertheless, he possesses all the evil aspects of Mephistopheles, corrupt, satanic, and doomed. His goal is to achieve the mental-spiritual enslavement of the world to force its worship to him.

They are bewitched! "And all the world wondered after the beast," Rev. 13:3). Antichrist assume sovereign rule over the world empire. He will become Satan's god/man, just as Jesus Christ is the Father's God/man. His subjects will be classless people whose names will be replaced by numbers. It is interesting to note here that the Bible does not show Satan as possessing the Antichrist but Abbadon as possessing the "god/man. However, Satan is revealed as giving his power to Abbadon (the first beast). Satan gives his power to the 2nd Beast as well to draw worship to Satan and Antichrist. Here Satan is imitating Father Who sits on His Throne in heaven. Satan will sit on his throne in the Abyss during these terrible times, ruling with the words of his mouth. Abbadon will rule the world through the controlled puppet man of perdition Antichrist is a name taken from 1 and 2 John. In Daniel he is called the little horn and the vile person; in 2 Thessalonians as the Son of Perdition; and in Revelation as the Beast out of the sea. He will be indwelt by Abbadon, the king over the bottomless pit.

while it was a Christian's duty to live a Godly personal life, but it was sin against God's will for Christians to be involved in political affairs of government. Christians who believed God mandated their total involvement in government soon found themselves and their families suffering horrible consequences or even transported to Hitler's death camps.

Romans 13:2

Further justification by Hitler and his clergy was based upon Romans 13:2, which reads: Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

The literal out-of-context interpretation of 13:2 would seem to justify horrible repressive measures against any remnant of freedom-based resistance which resisted the Nazi government's imposition of tyranny upon the citizens.

Where Hitler's clergy right? Are America's clergy today, right in their out-of-context interpretation of Romans 13:1, 2?

Romans 13:3

PLEASE NOTE that IN context (Rom. 13:3) defines God's purpose for government: For rulers is not a terror to good works, but to evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

Romans 13:4

Christ further defines the role of government as the defender of freedom (not its suppressor): For he [government] is the minister of God to thee for good [righteousness]. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is a minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil (Rom. 13:4).

Author of Liberty

God is the author of freedom. He is the arch foe of tyranny and slavery. In Romans 13:3 and 4 He specifies that the purpose of government is to promote and defend liberty. That is, government must be founded and structured upon His laws and ordinances of righteousness and freedom. Those who would attempt to extinguish those blessings will be subject to His wrath. Recall the rubble to which Germany was reduced in a matter of a few years.

Our Christian Republic

America's Bible-based Constitutional Republic recognizes the sinful fallen nature of man as set forth in the Bible, and thus was established upon a system of checks and balances known as Legislative, Judicial and Executive. The citizen's rights are spelled out in the Bill of Rights.

Obama's greatest threat to America

“Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrist; whereby we know that it is the last time.” (1Jn. 2:18),

Satan’s hatred of Jews, the people of the Bible, will drive Antichrist to try to eradicate them, but he fails. Remember there will be Jews that are alive, become believers that will meet Jesus face to face when He returns. Antichrist will inspire people to write new perverse Bibles, twisting and eliminating all references to the deity, and blood of Jesus. In the beginning he will lead the people into the view that all pathways lead back to “the supreme god.” However, when he assumes the fake throne of God of this world, all religious people will be commanded to worship him. He will rise to power as a man of peace and take the position as the savior of a world threatened by destruction. The Tribulation will begin and last for seven years ending with the world on the brink of total annihilation at the battle of Armageddon.

Jesus Christ will suddenly return and with the Word of His mouth capture Antichrist and his forces and they will be cast into the pit! The Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ will establish His Kingdom upon this earth for one thousand years and His saints shall rule with Him! Remember this. Jesus has the keys to the bottomless pit. (Rev 1:18), “I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death, “I am Jesus the Savior, who, though the fountain of life, have died for mankind; and being raised from the dead I shall die no more, the great sacrifice being consummated. And have the keys of death and the grave, so that I can destroy the living and raise the dead. The key here signifies the power and authority over life, death, and the grave”

America’s government perpetuates the righteousness of God through its biblical essence: “of the people, by the people, for the people”. That is, our government is structured to be the servant of her citizens. It is the sacred duty of her citizens under (Rom. 13:3, 4) to be totally involved in all matters of freedom, both personal and national. If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do? (Psalm 11:3) That is Obama’s greatest threat to America.

Survival – and America’s complicit, defiant clergy

America is engaged in a war for her survival as a free nation. Her Christian clergy who stand neutral and intimidated on the great issues of our times such as homosexuality, right-to-life, the national economy, Christian education, or disarming our missile defenses, are on a parallel track with the capitulating clergy of Nazi Germany. They are in blatant defiance of the ordinances of God and paradoxically they justify their silence on the fabricated myth of separation of church and state, and (Rom. 13:1, 2). By default, they are leading our nation to its probable destruction.

Only one way

God has made clear the consequences to America of these abandonment clergy:

All nations that forget God shall be turned into hell (Psa. 9:17).

In Reflection

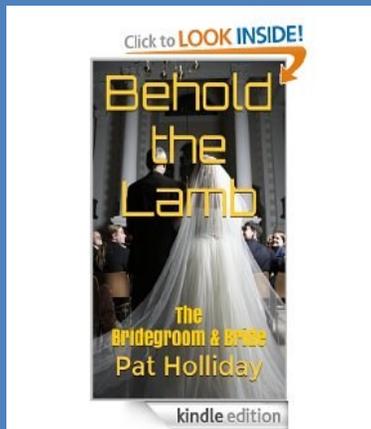

Is (Rom. 13) theology, or politics?

To readers who think the above has been simply a discourse in theology: may I remind you that life itself is a continual struggle between the spiritual, ideological, and political realms. They are all inseparably interrelated.

America’s political freedom, for example, is a spiritual concept unknown throughout man’s bloody history. Ideology also has its roots in theology. Materialism/secular humanism such as Marxism, is at war with Christianity, thus the essence of today’s battles is spiritual.

(Rom. 13), above, is a dissertation about hard core politics. The stakes of the war, if the victor be Marxism – are death, destruction, misery, enslavement for Americans.

If the victor be Christianity, the outflowing will be personal freedom, subordination of government to again become the servant of America's citizens as ordained by God, not their master; and blessings beyond measure from the Author of liberty, Jesus Christ.

The signs of our times: the imperative for Christian action

So successful has been America's (Rom. 13) anti -church & state" abandonment clergy who have abdicated God's mandate to be "watchmen on the wall," (Ezek. 33:6) that the Obama democrat administration has dazzled millions of Christians with the obvious tyrannical suppression of their God-given freedoms.

Rather than taking biblical corrective action, these would-be remnant Christians are retreating into "end-times, last-days" interpretations of "prophesy" according to Revelation. Many, being leaderless from their clergy, not knowing what to do, devote their time to praying for the "rapture", that they may participate in the great escape before they have to suffer the "tribulation".

America's call to action

America's call to action is obvious. Our prayers must become for Christ to forgive us; for Him to reveal His will to us and empower us with His Holy Spirit to become obedient to His will; and to carry out our Christian duty to our full measure, while still we have the freedom to do so, in His name.²⁰

IMPOTENT CHURCH AND ROMANS 13

By Chuck Baldwin March 10, 2011, NewsWithViews.com

Chuck Baldwin makes a statement that, "There are over 300,000 evangelical Christian churches in America. That equates to tens of millions of professing Christians and hundreds of thousands of Christian ministers. Think of the church sanctuaries, educational facilities, schools, camps, radio broadcasts, television programs, colleges, seminaries, preschools, youth retreats, etc., that grace America. In some communities there is a church building on just about every corner. In spite of this massive exposure to the modern Church, however, the nation has been left virtually unaffected, uninfluenced, and unimpressed.

"In fact, one could make the argument that while America's churches have experienced unprecedented growth in membership and wealth during the last half-century, the country as a whole has simultaneously nose-dived into corruption, deception, socialism, and even an increasing federal despotism. How can

Satan has always wanted to be worshiped like God. He led 1/3 of the Angels to follow him in his rebellion. He now is working to capture the hearts of the people of the world leading them to bow down and worship him. Genesis starts with a serpent leading Adam and Eve into rebellion. Ignorance of God's Word is a primary and essential condition for deception by evil spirits. The devil has always quoted and misquoted the Bible to bring captives into his kingdom. Christians are prime targets for Satan's craftiness. We must be alert as Satan disguises himself as "an angel of light" (2 Cor.11; 14), appearing as a messenger which is good and wholesome to pretend he comes from God. Bad theology is a cruel taskmaster which causes tragic consequence that spiritually cripples those who receive it. (1 Tim. 4:1), warns us, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing Spirits and Doctrines of devils." And Revelation will reveal his efforts to lead the world into rebellion against God.

When a Russian peace summit or conference is conducted, every one of us should be on alert and on guard, because from the time a Russian-led peace accord is "confirmed" and later times, Christians' lives are going to be in perils, especially about 965 days following the "confirming" of the Roadmap! God is going to allow persecution of Christians like no time in all of history, exactly as Jesus Christ promised in Matthew 24 and Mark 13 and as John wrote in Revelation 14, 16, 17, 18. Yes, this persecution is going to happen in the good old f USA!

Christians, who only see the world through eyes of the five senses, will miss the significance of the supernatural organization of the world that is forming in these times. A new world empire will rise out of the ashes of the old world chaos. It will be a world that denies Jesus Christ and God the Father. This New World system will be a world that will be ruled by Satan and his fallen angels. This New World Government will create a New Universal Religion will be based on the Spirit of Babylon which is established upon witchcraft powers. In the beginning of this new religion will draw people to worship the gods and goddesses of the Babylonian religion of antiquity. However, as it undergoes an evolution, it will demand that the entire world will worship the image of the 1st Beast. I believe that this image of the Beast will be an image of Satan.

SPEAKING ILL AGAINST DIGNITARIES

Jer. 5 and 2 Peter spoke ill against dignitaries:

Speaking truth
Speaking ill
Discerning Truth
Discerning Evil

Isaiah 9:6 "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace," (Isa.9:5-7).

Isaiah 9:7 "Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever." The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this," (Isa. 9: 6-8 this be? Where is the influence for God, for good, and for liberty from these hundreds of thousands of churches and multiplied millions of professing Christians--not to mention billions of dollars raised and spent by these religious institutions?

For all intents and purposes, the modern American Church is pathetically impotent! Not only has the American Church failed to influence the nation to any significant degree, it has proven itself to be ineffective in influencing its own membership!"

Baldwin goes on to say, "In Colonial America, churches were, without a doubt, the most influential, powerful institution in the country. The Great Awakenings of the 18th and 19th centuries were certainly among the most significant events in early American history--literally changing the course of the nation for decades. But not only has there been no "awakening" in the 20th (and now 21st) century, the Church seems to be totally ineffectual--and content to be so.

He makes note that, "Today's churches are much about political correctness, preachers stroking their congregations with sugar and honey, building financial empires, prosperity theology, entertainment, social networking, and fun and recreation. Some of the best politicians that money can buy are not in State.

I want to focus on the (Rom. 13) problem. As no Scripture is of any "private interpretation," it is necessary to research the entire Bible to properly interpret any passage, including Romans 13. A proper interpretation of Romans 13 could bring a revival of freedom and liberty to these United States of America. I believe the proper interpretation of Romans 13 could result in a spiritual revolution, akin to what was experienced in Colonial America.

Just imagine what could happen in this country if 300,000 churches truly taught the Biblical, Natural Law principles of liberty and submission, and would disentangle themselves from the enslaving tentacles of the IRS ²¹

"And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah," (Isa. 22:21).

Introduction Jer. 5

The Holy Spirit in Proverbs said, "The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit," (Prov. 12:12).

Again, He said, "A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved," (Prov. 12:3).

The Book of Job gives an eternal principle. "Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one." (Job 14:4). The impure doctrines of our present church systems have muddied the waters of religion until it hardly favors the Holy Bible and the true church. Revival is impossible until we return to "the love of the truth," (2 Thess. 2:10). The love of the truth is the saving power of God.

GOD OF THIS WORLD

This coming world demagogical system must appeal to the spiritual wishes of the masses and the prophesied anti-Christian leader that will bring his own mystical, universal religion which is a Harlot Church called the Mystery of Babylon complete with its false prophet and false god. As a baby Christian, the author remembers in the Lord asking Him what was the meaning of (Rev. 17:5), "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." He showed me that it was a belief in the cabalistic system.

The prophet, having described the judgments impending over his countrymen, enlarges on the corruptions which prevailed among them. Their profession of religion was all false and hypocritical, (Jer. 5:1, Jer. 5:2). Though corrected, they were not amended, but persisted in their guilt, (Jer. 5:3). This was not the case with the low and ignorant only, (Jer. 5:4); but more egregiously so with those of the higher order, from whose knowledge and opportunities better things might have been expected, (Jer. 5:5). God therefore threatens them with the most cruel enemies, (Jer. 5:6); and appeals to themselves if they should be permitted to practice such sins unpunished, (Jer. 5:7-90). He then commands their enemies to raze the walls of Jerusalem, (Jer. 5:10); that devoted city whose inhabitants added to all their other sins the highest contempt of God's word and prophets, (Jer. 5:11-13). Wherefore his word, in the mouth of his prophet, shall be as fire to consume them, (Jer. 5:14); the Chaldean forces shall cruelly addict them, (Jer. 5:15-17); and farther judgments await then as the consequence of their apostasy and idolatry, (Jer. 5:18; Jer. 5:19.)

The chapter closes with a most melancholy picture of the moral condition of the Jewish people at that period which immediately preceded the Babylonish captivity, (Jer. 5:20-31).²²

CAGE FULL OF BIRDS

"As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge," (Jer. 5:27-28).

ACCESS TO ENTRY INTO MY KINGDOM

As I was looking at the scenario, the service ended and the Young revived Pastor went to exhort and correct the traditional and theological minded Pastor about His message and he was categorically refusing to be corrected. I could see how they sharply differ in terms of beliefs by they are managing the same Church.

The Lord also showed me that few and very few had spiritual eyes and ears opened to hear and listen to what the Lord is saying. "But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear," (Mat 13:16).

The Lord showed me that so many people are following these traditional and theology minded Pastors and all of them will

THE MAN OF SIN

(II Thess. 2:1-4) "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, 2 that ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. 3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there comes a falling away first, (Gr. apostasia) and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; (who will attempt to usurp the power of God) 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Paul says that the Thessalonians know what is now "restraining" the "man of sin" (v. 6), yet he doesn't state what it is in his letter.

Paul had already taught the Thessalonians these things when he had been with them earlier (v. 5). The Greek word translated "restraining" here is katechon. According to Friberg's Analytical Lexicon to the Greek New Testament, this verb means "hold back, detains, prevents . . . figuratively restrain, check"

The Bible warns that this day would come. Look at this! (1 Thess. 5:3-5), 3 "For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that day should overtake you as a thief. 5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness."

miss the rapture if they do not repent and change their ways.

VISION ENDED

Brethren, The pastors and Servants of God have become idols in their Churches worshipped by their Church members. It is absolutely dangerous what is happening in the Church. Repent and come back to the way of the Lord.

As I was recounting the vision above to the prayer group, The Lord once again gave me the message of Jer. 5. Here it is below:

"Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not," (Jer. 5:21)

The servants of God have become stiff-necked and have decided to not listen to the Lord who called them to the field of Ministry. They are now taking possession of the Churches and they have abandoned the Lord and His ways.

But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone, (Jer.5:23).

Pastors have revolted against the Lord God who called them and they are now doing their own things in the Church and leading the people to take them as an example, instead of leading the people to take the character of Christ.

"Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest," (Jer. 5:24).

Pastors have stopped fearing the Lord their God and they do not consider anymore who is he but they only consider what he can give: Money, Building mega-churches and accumulating wealth on earth.

"As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge," (Jer. 5:27-28).

The churches have become a cage for the many Souls in deception and on the pretense of the Lord, [pastors are becoming rich and mighty. They have made political connections with politicians and have become great and rich. The Lord will judge them severely and many of these will be left behind. Pastors; repent and comeback to the Lord who gave you the vision. Repent and get back to the mountain where the Lord used to speak to you when you received your Church Vision. Where did you sell the prayer life you used to have??? Where is the way of the cross in your life and your church?

“Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;” (Jer. 5:29-30).

The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof, (Jer. 5:31)?

The pastors are preaching messages that are offline from the Lord. The Holy Spirit is saying one thing and they are preaching another thing. The Holy Spirit is going in one direction and the Pastors are going in the opposite direction. Their messages are not what the Lord is giving them. They are lost in time and space and season. They are lost in real time. 23
