INCREDIBLE AWAKENING¹

THE ORDER

SOCIALISM ~ NAZISM

“...after two thousand years, with deepest emotion I recognize more profoundly than ever before the fact that it was for this that He had to shed his blood upon the Cross.” ² – Adolph Hitler

These words were spoken by Hitler himself and this is a far more forthright confession of faith than President Bush has made. Each heaped praise for themselves by Apostate Christendom. Christians of Nazi Germany who did not go along with the Nazi program were shamefully persecuted and some were imprisoned and killed. Those that spoke out about what Hitler was doing were treated like the 'terrorists' of America's Concentration camps. The rest of the Church was basically left alone, as long as they kept quiet about Hitler's evil. When asked where he got his inspiration on the changes he was making to his 'Reich' he said “from Gods word”. Occult government must deceive and pacify the Church in order to gain power and this is what Hitler as well as Himmler and the SS did with remarkable skill and success.³

Truth of every kind makes free, while lies bind up in bonds. Ignorance also binds up, because it gives ground to Satan. Man's ignorance is a primary and essential condition for deception by evil spirits. The ignorance of the people of God concerning the powers of darkness has made it easy for the devil to carry out his work as deceiver. Fallen man in his pure state was not perfect in knowledge. Eve was ignorant of "good and evil," and her ignorance was a condition which lent itself to the deception of the serpent.⁴

AMERICANS SUPPORT OF GERMANIC/SATANIC ORDER

While the SS was important to the Reich it is important to remember that there were many in the US who belonged to a Germanic/Satanic Order whose members assisted the Nazi's with arms and money.

This order was established in 1833 by a man named General William Huntington Russell and Alphonso Taft, father of the man who was the only man to be both President of the United States and Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The Order or the Skull and Bones Society was also incorporated as the Russell Trust in

William Huntington

Commercial Institute, New Haven, Connecticut;

Guard (1862-70)

1856, so those ignorant folks out there who laugh in their own stupidity and say of The Order, 'it doesn't exist', should do just a little homework and a little less time displaying their own abject ignorance.⁵

Exodus 20:3 "You shall have no other gods before Me. 20:4 "You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; 20:5 you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, 20:6 but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments."

William Huntington Russell (12 August 1809 – 19 May 1885) was co-founder of Skull and Bones along with Alphonso Taft. He was a descendant of the most noted New England families, including Pierpont, Hooker, Bingham, and Willet.

Born in Middletown, Connecticut, Russell was a cadet at the American Literary, Scientific and Military Academy \(later Norwich University\) from 1826 until graduation in 1828, where he was taught under strict military discipline. In 1828, William's father died, piling family responsibility on to him. Under severe financial restraints, he entered Yale College. He supported himself throughout his college years and to cut on costs he travelled by foot between Yale in New Haven and his home in Middletown (This is likely revisionist history, as Russell was first cousin to Samuel Russell, the richest Opium dealer in the World, and the distance of some 27.0 mi from New Haven to Middletown was a bit more than a "walk to school"). Despite his financial restraints, he graduated with an MA in 1833. Not only was he class valedictorian, he was the founder of a secret society that would spawn three United States Presidents, Skull and Bones. From 1831 to 1832, Russell studied in Germany. It has been suggested while there, he was initiated into a German society that inspired Skull and Bones. Confirmation of this came when the Skull and Bones meeting hall was broken into and materials were found that refer to Skull and Bones as the Yale Chapter of a German society. The German "Illuminati" was outlawed as effected by an edict of the Bavarian government in 1785 and it is assumed that they then became a truly secretive underground organization.

One account of the society's foundation says Russell was secretary of the Yale University chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. It is said that Russell was furious when a prominent undergraduate scholar was left out of the Phi Beta Kappa elections and Russell openly condemned the fraternity. He joined with the undergraduate and thirteen other students to found the Eulogian Club, which later became known as Skull and Bones.

Russell, who had spent his senior year of College in Germany came across a secret society and created his own chapter here in America upon his return. This society was probably (though this cannot be proved conclusively) the successor to the Illuminati, an earlier German Secret Society that was discovered by the German Authorities and caused a great international stir because they were attempting to overthrow Europe's Governments through internal subversion. Indeed, a core group of the early Order's members spent time in Germany, specifically in Berlin where Hegel's philosophical and political views were very much in fashion. The connections here are interesting and it is here that any illuministic connections to The Order would be drawn. On a side note it was Daniel Gilman a member of The Order who wrote a letter describing his desire to apply what he had learned in Germany to American Education and Christianity. Who was Daniel Gilman?⁶

The First President of the University Of California

The First President of the John Hopkins University

The First President of the Carnegie Institution

This is just one important connection that the order has with American Society and its influence still lives on today. There are many, many such connections with the elite and powerful institutions far too many to go into with depth in an article of this size, if the reader wants more info, See the links and bibliography info at the bottom of the page. The orders influence on American Education is probably the most significant other than in the political and banking arenas. They have been responsible for such educational travesties as the 'look-say' method of 'reading'. The influence of one Johann Herbart should be noted here. He is an interesting man who does have a direct connection to the original Illuminati, though not the the Order. He wrote a book on the education theories of Johann Heinrich Pestolozzi, a known member of the illuminati that seemed to influence members of the order who went on to influence education.⁷

The clearest and most damning evidence against the order and an incontrovertible link between the Nazi's and the Order is the fact that Prescott Bush, (Father of George Bush Sr. and the current Presidents Grandfather, who are all members of the Order), was a major funder of the Nazi's, with its bank Brown, Brothers Harriman, which had on its board of 26 directors, 9 of whom were members of the Order! This bank was the prime mover for aiding the Nazi government during the war, yes you read correctly, during the war! In fact the US government had to get involved and pass legislation specifically directed at this Nazi Operation in America and seize some of its assets! Yes, this is all in the congressional record and anyone who really wants to know what kind of people make up the membership of The Order should remember these salient points. These are facts that the establishment media will always try to denigrate or downplay today. Not focusing on why these traitors never went to prison and were never executed for high treason, not focusing on why the Order was never investigated and not focusing on why the decedents of these traitors and current members of The Order sat and presently sit in the Oval Office. Instead, the media will focus in those 'conspiracy guys' and will feign ignorance as to how anyone could be so 'crazy' as to add up one plus one and get two.⁸

That The Order has some very dark and arguably satanic rituals is disputed by very, very few researchers. It is how these bizarre and perverse rituals are portrayed to the public that is the issue that divides people (See Video). Some call these rituals harmless pranks, where initiates must divulge their sexual history and screams of 'get that plunger out of my ass' have been heard by some. The initiation ritual is where real human skulls and coffins make up the trappings. Some, once again call these rituals and trappings 'pranks' others see something evil and Satanic. One must wonder what sorts of things one would expect at a satanic ritual if not these! How satanic and evil this order is can best answered however, by looking at what kinds of actions can be attributed to men of the order.

Men of The Order are directly responsible for the following things:

- ☐ The Bay of Pigs
- ☐ The Vietnam War
- ☐ The First Gulf War
- ☐ Our current War in Iraq
- ☐ Heading The Council on Foreign Relations
- ☐ Aiding Hitler With Money and Trade During The War
- ☐ Aided The Soviet Union With Money And Trade
- ☐ Aiding the Communist Revolution In Russia
- ☐ First Head of the Unconstitutional Federal Reserve System

The best way to describe the policies of the Skull and Bones is 'Death's Head Foreign Policy', because if they are making the decisions, the corpses invariably pile up as a result.

The Symbol for the Order

One important family who were members of the order that should be briefly, and that is the Bundy family. Much has been written on the Bundy's and their membership in The Order so I will not go into depth. McGeorge Bundy's meteoric rise to power is truly remarkable if one does not consider his connection to the Order. But once one understands that this is how power works and has always worked in America, it makes much more sense. Joining the Army as a private (the lowest enlisted rank); he mysteriously gets a commission and becomes a staff officer working on the invasion plans of Normandy. Having no experience and being only 23 years old one can see why that invasion could very easily have failed if Hitler had not been listening to his astrologers rather than his Generals. Nevertheless, at 27 he goes to the Pentagon as an assistant to the secretary of War (!). He moves quickly up the ladder and becomes The National Security Adviser to Kennedy and Johnson. His brother, William Bundy was CIA Director and BOTH were members of The Order.

The Order is an important piece of the puzzle to the demise of American values. It is important to understand the philosophical roots of the order and thus we come to Hegel.

Hegel believed that the state was the 'end of history' it was all important and embodied the culmination of all things. Hegel can best be described as a pantheist who saw the state as the ultimate good. ⁹

“All the worth which the human being possesses, all spiritual reality, he possesses only through the State. For his spiritual reality consists in this, that his own essence - Reason - is objectively present to him, that it possesses objective immediate existence for him. . . . For Truth is the unity of the universal and subjective will; and the Universal is to be found in the State, in its laws, its universal and rational arrangements. The State is the Divine Idea as it exists on earth. We have in it, therefore, the object of history in a more definite shape than before; that in which Freedom obtains objectivity. For Law is the objectivity of the Spirit . . . Only that will which obeys law, is free; for it obeys itself - it is independent and so free.” - Hegel¹⁰

It was his dialectic that moved and still moves so much of the world today this is particularly true in American Society where the educational and technological infrastructure exists to mold the mass society. Those in power who use the dialectic are not concerned with political ideology as it is taught and practiced in today's political movements. These movements exist to serve a purpose to The Order. In other words, the political left and right are an illusion and the fight between the two is important only insofar as it furthers the goal of the elite. That goal is the control of all the mechanics of the state into their hands. It should become suspicious to any and all who take part in the political process that;

1. No matter which party is in power the government grows in size
2. All problems that are presented are done in such a way that
3. seems to 'require' government solutions
4. Power is increasing amalgamated amongst a smaller and smaller group of people.
5. Corruption that enriches the elite is very rarely prosecuted and never punished with prison sentences

These are all things that those who are truly willing to take off their partisan blinders can see. However, far too many who have had their minds poisoned with the phony debate between the left and the right to see that there is another agenda. One that Hegel made clear in his works, the deification of the State and using his dialectic, their plans are almost complete.¹¹

Total Quality Management [TQM] and the Hegelian Dialectic

Total Quality Management [TQM] is based upon the Hegelian dialectic, invented by George Wilhelm Freidrich Hegel, a transformational Marxist social psychologist.¹² Briefly, the Hegelian dialectic process works like this: a diverse group of people (in the church, this is a mixture of believers (thesis) and unbelievers (antithesis), gather in a facilitated meeting (with a trained facilitator/"teacher"/group leader/"change agent"), using group dynamics (peer pressure), to discuss a social issue (or dialogue the Word of God), and reach a pre-determined outcome (consensus, compromise, or synthesis). When the Word of God is dialogued (as opposed to being taught didactically) between believers and unbelievers, with multiple Bible versions utilized (with King James usage discouraged) and consensus is reached – agreement that all are comfortable with – then the message of the Word of God has been watered down ever so slightly, and the participants have been conditioned to accept (and even celebrate) their compromise (synthesis).¹³

The new synthesis becomes the starting point (thesis) for the next meeting, and the process of continual change (innovation) continues. The fear of alienation from the group is the pressure that prevents an individual from standing firm for the truth of the Word of God, and such a one usually remains silent (self-editing). The fear of man (rejection) overrides the fear of God. The end result is a "paradigm shift" is how one processes factual information.¹⁴

Paradigm Shift is a dramatic change in methodology or practice. It often refers to a major change in thinking and planning, which ultimately changes the way projects are implemented. For example, accessing applications and data from the Web instead of from local servers is a paradigm shift.¹⁵

An example: Traditionally thinking Christians, when proven wrong with factual information (i.e.-Biblical moral absolutes), yield to the facts, and admit that they are wrong, and then align themselves to those facts. They are brought back to accountability to higher authority (the Word of God). Because Biblical moral absolutes do not change, such traditional thinkers, who adhere to such unchanging absolutes are labeled as "resistant to change," by those promoting this "new way of doing church."

TRANSFORMED CHRIST

SPIRITUAL TRANSFORMATION

Transformation means a shift, or a qualitative change, a transfer from the original spiritual tenets to a switch over to a new religious belief system.

Spiritual transformation is still building its avenue into the Christian Church. Astrology, reincarnation, higher planes of being, expanded consciousness; we all are God, pantheism, Angelic communication, CHRISTIAN MYSTICS ~ The Glory Generation: Angelic Visitations ~ Latter Rain Movements, Joel's Army/Kingdom Now/Dominion Theology; Angels may also be called Spiritual Guides, Wisdom Guides, Helpers, Guides, Protectors, Guardian Angels, Spirit, Wisdom Beings or Ancient Companions; please use whatever name is comfortable for you. There are also Masters, Healers, and Archangels and beyond ... the Creator, UFO's and other nutty things. If you like your life guided by the demons out of hell, go New Age! Satan will love you.

And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. [The angels which kept not their first estate] Teen heautoon archeen Their own principality. The words may be understood of their having invaded the office or dignity of some others, or of their having by some means forfeited their own; This is spoken of those generally termed the fallen angels; but from what they fell, or from what cause or for what crime, we know not. It is generally thought to have been pride; but this is mere conjecture. One thing is certain; the angels who fell must have been in a state of probation, capable of either standing or falling, since Adam was in Paradise. They did not continue faithful, though they knew the law on which they stood; they are therefore produced as the second example. [But left their own habitation] This seems to intimate that they had invaded the office and prerogatives of others, and attempted to seize on their place of residence and felicity. [He hath reserved in everlasting chains]

That is, in a state of confinement from which they cannot escape. [Under darkness] Alluding probably to those dungeons or dark cells in prisons where the most flagitious culprits were confined. [The judgment of the great day.] The final judgment, when both angels and men shall receive their eternal doom. See the note at 2 Peter 2:4. In Sohar Exod., fol. 8, c. 32: "Rabbi Isaac asked: Suppose God should punish any of his heavenly family, how would he act? R. Abba answered: He would send them into the flaming river, take away their dominion, and put others in their place." Some suppose that the saints are to occupy the places from which these angels, by transgression, fell. (Jude 6; Jude 7).

Spiritually blinded Christians are entertaining fallen angels and are being entrapped by the powers of darkness because of a lack of scriptural knowledge.

Jan Jansens' appeared on Patricia King's program testified that she saw an angel with chains around its neck. The spiritual being spoke to her claiming that he was "the Angel of Records." She described seeing a hole in the ground and could see a room filled with books. She asserted that the angel was being released from this prison place wherein he had been buried for centuries because of the works of men. "This is a time to redig the wells," she stated. Just as some of these "mystical Christians are opening Star gates to a place they say is the "The Third Heaven and inviting Christians to astral project into that paranormal dimensions; others are "digging wells to open wormholes to dig wells into the earth's mystical veils of fallen angels. ¹⁶

Newly devised non scriptural ministry techniques lay the groundwork for these exchanges of the Christian Faith. Leave Jesus of the Bible and replace Biblical foundations with mystical demonic experiences and you have New Age paranormal transformation.

On the other hand, transformational thinkers, having transitioned through this dialectic process, when proven wrong with factual information, have been conditioned to process that information differently - they automatically question the facts (what is) and dialogue them within themselves; their (deceitful) hearts rebel against the facts; and then they begin to justify (to themselves and others) why it is that they no longer have to attend to the facts, or yield to higher authority. They process the facts away, and their consciences become seared. This is the natural result of the dialectic process – the searing of the conscience [1 Tim 4:1] “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils.”KJV

Transformational thinkers are then able to justify to themselves why they are no longer bound to Biblical moral absolutes. You see, people are saying that the Biblical message just doesn't apply to today's (humanistic) culture – that it must be interpreted in light of the culture of the day. [To some degree this is true – (i.e.-slavery was common then, etc.).] However, this movement takes it much further, and through the process of continual incremental “change” (using the Hegelian dialectic over and over with the last synthesis becoming the new thesis – the “new fact” base, or “new reality”), the Word of God is gradually/incrementally changed from its original intent, and eventually it is interpreted to mean something contrary to its original intent. This is the process that all sinners use in attempting to justify their rebellion to themselves and others. The rebellion is subtle at first – simply moving away from the traditional way of “doing” church; later, the ordaining of female “pastors”; and eventually it gets to the point of ordaining lesbian “pastors”, etc... This is the end result of the process of “continual change.” In Germany, the Hegelian dialectic process was utilized in order to reorder the thinking process of the society, and the result was the extermination of 6 million Jews.¹⁷

The seduction of Christianity is often very subtle and various Christian principles are targeted. The devil has already succeeded to infiltrate evangelical and charismatic Christendom through seduction to follow after a counterfeit revival. He follows the well-proved methods against which Paul warned Christians in the first century:

Jesus is still preached by these new spiritual leaders, but the message of the Cross is not central to their preaching. Through a reinterpretation of the meaning and significance of the Cross, Jesus is changed into another Jesus. The heart of the gospel message is twisted that the emphasis on sin and the inherent sinful nature of man is shifted to the sin of the community, the city, or nations that are ruled by Satan. The solution to this problem is not personal regeneration but spiritual warfare enforced by a united, ecumenical Christendom against the kingdom of Satan.

It is evident that another spirit is manifested during such meetings. It is the spirit of the "angel of light", who gives new revelations and new interpretations of the Bible, resulting in a new concept of revival. It is the spirit of unity at all cost. This spirit operates in the sphere of feeling, especially during mass rallies where emotions are stirred and a warm, corporate feeling of love binds all people together. These experiences do not depend on any revelation of Scripture. People are not convicted of personal sin and unrighteousness, but the blame for all the problems that exist is rather shifted to communal sins and to the devil and his hierarchy of demons who are viewed as the instigators of every wrong act.¹⁸

"For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him" (2 Cor.11:2-4).

The seduction of Christianity is often very subtle and various Christian principles are targeted. The devil has already succeeded to infiltrate evangelical and charismatic Christendom through seduction to follow after counterfeit revivals. He follows the well-proved methods against which Paul warned Christians in the first century:

Jesus is still preached by these new spiritual leaders, but the message of the Cross is not central to their preaching. BEWITCHING SPIRITS

It is evident that another spirit is manifested during such meetings. It is the spirit of the "angel of light", who gives new revelations and new interpretations of the Bible, resulting in a new concept of revivals. The goal is to feel good having Holy Ghost chills and bumps. Prophecies take precedence over the Word of God. It is the spirit of unity at all cost. This spirit operates in the sphere of feeling, especially during mass rallies where emotions are stirred and a warm, corporate feeling of love binds all people together. These experiences do not depend on any revelation of Scripture. People are not convicted of personal sin and unrighteousness, but the blame for all the problems that exist is rather shifted to communal sins and to the devil and his hierarchy of demons who are viewed as the instigators of every wrong act.¹⁹

The Apostle Paul was absolutely amazed when he returned to the Galatians Church to find those people that he had taught about Jesus totally bewitched. He asked them, (Gal. 3:1), “O foolish Galatians, WHO hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?”

Paul saw that these Christians were being led blindly and unresistingly onto their own destruction. That is, foolish for having yielded to the influence of the false teachers, and for having embraced doctrines that tended to subvert the gospel of the Redeemer.²⁰

They had shown it in a remarkable manner in rejecting the doctrine of the apostles, and in embracing the errors into which they had fallen.²¹ The Bereans Commended: “These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so,” (Acts 17:11). The Apostle Paul also warns God’s people of the dangers of seeking extra-biblical answers to their problems in (Eph. 3:1,2,3), “Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.”

(2 Pet. 2:1-3), describes the methods of the end-time false ministers. “But there were false prophets also among the people even as there shall be false teachers among you, you privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of the truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.”

What are these Christian leaders promoting? Iniquity. They are promoting Iniquity. Jesus said in (Matt 7:21-24 21), “Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

The apostle Peter indicated that many would come in the name of Christ, yet deny Him as both Lord and Savior. The apostle also said that these same apostates would make merchandise of the members of the churches. In other words, like the Nicolatians, they would use the money to gain advantage (Rev. 2).

Today, many are spreading lies and slander concerning the deity of Jesus Christ. Every mind is under attack to turn the people to hoards of demonic men who wish to rule the world under a new religious system called witchcraft. If they can transform the minds of the masses, they can take possession of the planet and exercise authority over the people as slaves.²²

The impure doctrines of our present church systems have muddied the waters of religion until it hardly favors the Holy Bible and the true church. Revival is impossible until we return to "the love of the truth." (2 Thess. 2:10). The love of the truth is the saving power of God.

Where this Movement is Headed

In May, 1995, the Leadership Network's Compass Magazine addressed the issue: "After Church Growth, What?" Under this heading, the Network wrote:

Bob Buford says, "The next movement will grow partnerships, not properties. Partnerships, alliances and collaboration will become the norm, rather than the exception, and the relationships will be built on new loyalties and a new common mission. ... The next movement will grow people, not parking lots. ... These same people are in the congregations of the 21st century and they are going to be the "point people" for the partnerships and alliances that will achieve the vision beyond the property line (emphasis added)."²³

²⁴ "The Church of the 21st Century is reforming itself into a multi-faceted service operation."²⁵

Compass continues on to say:

"The Windsor Village United Methodist Church in Houston, Texas, has several 501 (c) (3) entities related to housing, job training and employment, medical and dental services, and educational ventures."

Regarding the church, Peter Drucker stated:

"The community ... needs a community center... I'm not talking religion now, I'm talking society. There is no other institution on the American community that could be the center."²⁶²⁴

So, what is the point of all this? Sustainable development. the notions are that:

There are too many people on the planet

There are not enough resources

There is wealth inequity

There's not enough food

The people are negatively impacting the native species
(the biodiversity)

World peace must be accomplished

We must act now, so that the earth is saved from mankind – all human activity on the earth must be “sustainable” for untold numbers of generations to come.

HOW DOES THE CHURCH FIT INTO THE FALLING AWAY FROM JESUS?

First, many pastors will work with the government to condition people to calmly submit to tyranny leading them to Femma Camps. There will be designated community centers, which offer “one-stop shopping” (health care, food banks, education, and other governmental social programs: i.e. welfare distribution). There must be a lot of these decentralized areas, so that they are within walking/biking distances of peoples' homes, diminishing the need for automobiles. Some of these programs are already being administered through fire stations (vaccinations), senior citizen centers, and parks (free cheese giveaways, etc.).

Is the church really participating in this? Compass continues:

Willow Creek Community Church in So. Barrington, Illinois, is in partnership with World Vision [a United Nation's Non-governmental Organization, affiliated with the U.N. Department of Public Information – they have agreed to actively promote the U.N. agenda.] to create Vision Chicago in an effort to link Willow Creek with urban ministries.²⁷

Most of these types of churches are “planted” after a survey is taken of the surrounding community. The “felt needs” of the community are then compiled, and the church is tailored around meeting those needs. Two of the most prominent proponents of this style of church, the Rev. Bill Hybels, founder of Willowcreek Church in So. Barrington IL, and Dr. Rick Warren, founder of Saddleback Valley Community Church in Mission Viejo, CA, both readily admit to being influenced by Dr. Robert H. Schuller, founder of the Crystal Cathedral in Orange, CA with regards to their utilization of these community surveys²⁸. Dr Warren, admits to being only interested in meeting the needs of unbelievers in his surveying, when he states: “I didn’t want to color the survey with believers’ opinions.” The question thus arises: Is it acceptable to pattern a church after the felt needs of unbelievers, when the Apostle Paul states that the function of the church is to perfect and to edify the saints? [²⁹ Eph 4:11 – 12]

Furthermore, are we to use worldly surveys and techniques to become more attractive to the masses? [1 Cor. 1:20, and Rom 12:2]

What else is seen in these churches? Special parking for first time visitors, and numerous “greeters” (a la Wal Mart). Why? Because surveys have shown that people decide in the first eight minutes, whether they will return to that church or not, so first impressions become very important.

How about the presentation and the message? The churches are often devoid of any religious symbols, such as crosses, stained glass windows, and pews, so as to make the unbelievers more comfortable, and the environment “less intimidating.” Remember: the cross is an offense [Galatians 5:11], and the preaching of the cross is to those who are perishing foolishness [1 Corinthians 1:18]. The environment is visually stimulating, often with multiple video screens, drama, dance, and skits to portray “Biblical concepts”. The pastors often wear polo shirts to set the audience at ease, pace back and forth as they speak, wearing mobile microphones – in all, a very distracting environment. The pastors give handouts with fill-in-the-blanks to be utilized during the message – this results in people rarely bringing Bibles to church. Multiple Bible versions are used, in order to put the right “spin” on the message, and the King James Version is usually avoided due to the “difficulty in newcomers understanding it”, and the “hard truth” message that it brings. The messages are significant, in that much is left out, and with all of the distraction that is occurring, it is difficult for one to discern what it is that is missing. Jesus' love and grace are emphasized, often His deity is minimized, and the fact that He is a righteous judge is usually avoided. Sin is often characterized as "wrongdoing", "wrong choices", and "mistakes." In Rick Warren⁵ and Bob Buford's⁶ books, the personal pronouns He, and Him, when referring to Jesus in mid-sentence, are not capitalized, once again diminishing His deity. Rick Warren stated how he prepares a sermon:³⁰

He first considers: "To whom will I be preaching? ... Then, I consider what are their needs, hurts, and interests, and I ask a second question: 'What does the Bible say about their needs?'" ... Once he examines what the Bible says about the subject, he asks himself: "What is the most practical way to say this? What is the most positive way to say this? What is the most encouraging way to say this? What is the simplest way to say this? What is the most personal way to say this? What is the most interesting way to say this?"

In other words, he puts his "spin" on the Blessed Word of God in order to tickle the itching ears of his audience. This is a reversal of God's plan; His plan is to send His truth down to sinful man through His messengers (pastors). The word pastor can also be translated as messenger. The true pastor is to act as a messenger from God, bringing God's truth and message to the people, regardless of whether it is what they want to hear.

The end result is a watered-down message, with "feel good" half-truths, and no condemnation/conviction of sin for the listeners. Those who "accept Christ" are not accepting the Christ revealed in the blessed Word of God, but rather a false Christ, a Christ of grace and love, and not of judgment, who exists to meet their needs and heal their hurts. Jesus becomes a servant of theirs, rather than those becoming servants of Him.³¹

(1) The only way to rid any area of demons is for people in that area to be saved and therefore have a relationship to Jesus. There are no methods or devices that cannot substitute for that relationship, nor are any required by biblical definition. The Bible says, "And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will everyone does the imagination of his evil heart," (Jer. 18:12).

(2) Evangelization must also be implemented to the area with real Christians preaching and leading people to Jesus. When people repent and receive Jesus, demons will flee. A change in spiritual atmosphere will occur.

Idolatry in Old Babylon was the open worship of gods and goddesses: in reality, it was the worship of demons. Sexual perversions were brought into pagan worship with such practices as temple prostitutes. People depended on these spirit-beings (demons) to supply them with power, wisdom and resources. To gain favor with the gods, worship was accompanied by offerings and sacrifices. The sacrifices today are our children.⁸

THE ANTICHRIST SPIRIT

(1Jn. 4:3), “And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.”

The spirit of antichrist is already at work. As these Last Days approach, more and more, we are witnessing people abandon the bible in favor of the New Age Movement, witchcraft, and Unitarian beliefs.

All pathways lead God will lead humanity into great deception Luciferian worship. We know from the Scriptures that Satan’s plan is to deceive the whole world. His objective is to blind the minds of the unbelieving and to recruit those who believed to become part of his agenda to set up an end-times delusion.

The Spirit of Antichrist includes: The New Age Movement which denies Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven.

John 14:6, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me,” KJV

THE FORCES OF DARKNESS

The forces of the powers of darkness are gathering for the great predicted conflict of the future between the apostasy of a false religion and the rebellion of open infidelity. Satan’s lying claim to invincibility may fool the world but God's people know God is omnipotent and able to move for His people. We are at war! Every believer in Jesus Christ is a soldier whether he is effective or not. Our task today is to be actively resisting the powers that struggle for the souls of men and women. The Holy Spirit working through the church is shown in (2 Thess. 2), as the force that hinders the final Antichrist from being revealed before "his own season."

We are certainly in the midst of the "great falling away." The Word of God warns, "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God," (2 Thess. 2:3-4). I feel the breath of Jesus Christ at the door are you ready?

Unfortunately, many Christians, who once served Jesus Christ, are now running after preachers that are promising them new candy cotton, powder - puff Christianity, i.e., "things" or "self worth" "peace" and "heaven on earth," instead of the true Gospel of Jesus. Jesus is truly the picture that is shown in (Rev 3:20), of "standing at the church door knocking to come in." He is not the center of many churches today. You must seek for Christian ministers' who are sent by God to preach the gospel and Jesus. Jesus is supposed to be the focus of the gospel and His blood sacrifice is the only way back to God, the Father.

(Rev. 13:2) reveals that the devil (the dragon) has power: "the dragon gave him his power." Strong's (G1410) says the word "power" means "miraculous power," (Rev 13:2). God's intention was that his POWER, THRONE AND AUTHORITY was given to Adam to rule the earth. He renounced his power when he obeyed Satan, giving him the reigns of his authority.

The Body of Christ is facing the most horrendous, Satanic and demonic greater confrontation than at any other time in history. It will be a time of intensified spiritual warfare where demons will manifest themselves and will fight in direct confrontation with God's people. The Lord Jesus told us in (Matt. 10:22), "And ye shall be hated of all men for. My name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved." And then in (Matt. 6:33),

He said, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness . . ." The Apostle John forewarns, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know we the Spirit of God, every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ is coming in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that confesses not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is not of God and this is that spirit of antichrist whereof you have heard that it should come and even now, already is in the world," (I Jn. 4). Certainly, as we look at this text, we see that Christians should be discerning the times and seasons.

Here are some of false doctrines;

"We are our own gods . . . " philosophy

"There are many paths to God . . . "

Witchcraft

Unification of all religions

Rejection of the Bible as Truth

The "Da Vinci Code" fiction

Evolution theory promoted as "truth"

Aliens, female angels, worship of arch angels

Astral projection into the Third Heaven to meet another Jesus.

Opening stargates and wormholes to another dimension.

Seeking God for wealth instead of souls.

Materialism

The Book of Daniel, chapter 11, says that the willful king (Antichrist) will honor a "strange god" -- a god whom his father's knew not . . . a "god of forces . . ."

There is a great spiritual blindness the covers the earth today. Many Christians seem to be caught in a web of deceit. Why have so many so often been so blind to the meaning of the great event often been so oblivious to the meaning of the great events transpiring in our time?

Is it because we have not bothered to relate the Word of God to those affairs of life which lie beyond our personal interests, our families, and our immediate circle of Christian friends? As much of Europe rids itself of all traces of biblical Christianity, it has chosen to degrade Jesus to merely a man and mock the bible and in turn embrace a new vision for their future . . . a vision that will usher in the coming of the antichrist on the world stage.

Look at (1 Jn. 2:18), who is this antichristos, Antichrist? Is he the Emperor Domitian, the Gnostics, Nicolaitans, Nazareans, Cerinthians, Romish pontiffs, etc., etc.? Answer: Any person, thing, doctrine, system of religion, polity, etc., which is opposed to Christ, and to the spirit and spread of his Gospel, is antichrist. We need not look for this imaginary being in any of the above exclusively. Even Protestantism may have its antichrist as well as Popery. Every man who opposes the spirit of the Gospel, and every teacher and writer, who endeavors to lower the Gospel standard to the spirit and taste of the world, is a genuine antichrist, no matter where or among whom he is found. The heresies which sprang up in the days of John were the Antichrist of that time. As there has been a succession of oppositions to Christianity in its spirit and spread through every age since its promulgation in the world, so there has been a succession of antichrists. We may bring this matter much lower; every enemy of Christ, everyone who opposes his reign in the world, in others, or in himself, is an antichrist; and consequently every wicked man is an antichrist. But the name has been generally applied to whatever person or thing systematically opposes Christ and his religion.

[Many antichrists] Many false prophets, false Messiahs, heretics, and corrupters of the truth.

[Whereby we know that it is the last time.] That time which our Lord has predicted, and of which he has warned us. ¹

(1 Jn. 2:22-23). “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son. 23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.”

(1 Jn. 4:3), “And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.”

(2 Jn. 7), “For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.”

(1Jn. 2:22) “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.”

The answer is found in (1Jn. 2:22). The word "Anti" can mean "against Christ" or it can also mean "in place of Christ", meaning a substitute for Christ.

The word "Christ"-- derived from the Greek word, "Christos"-- means "Messiah" or "Anointed One." The Holy Spirit emphasizes the point that those who deny the Deity of Christ and His Messiahship are antichrist . . . or against Christ. They are also of the "spirit of Antichrist."

Most people today would not deny that Jesus existed. Most would not deny that He died upon the cross. What they do deny is that Jesus is the Savior-- the Christ/Messiah. They deny that He is God come in the flesh. They deny His virgin birth, His sinless life and they reject that His death upon the cross was sufficient payment for our sins. They reject His triumphant Resurrection! They scoff at the idea of His Second Coming. (2Pet. 3:3-4). “Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers [mockers], walking after their own lusts, and saying, where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.”
